Shavertown
 Well - it has happened. After doing our best to get a phone number installed in the automatic thoughts of friends and relatives, a familiar yellow telephone truck stopped in front of our residence to allow the lineman to tell us that after months and months of waiting—we were now able to have a private line. Of course, there had to be one hitch. "We are sorry but you cannot retain your old number." Hence, we may now be reached at OR 4-2351.

Mrs. Michael Caffrey, Corner Division and Lehigh Streets, has been a medical patient in Nesbitt Hospital for a week.
