Hunstville Wins Championship, Play-offs Start Saturday Night

By KEITH P. YEISLEY

Huntsville, a team that added a lot of new faces this season, avenged their sole defeat of the campaign on Saturday night by downing runner-up East Dallas 49-40, thus wrapping up the League championship!

In the second game, St. Therese's again beat Shavertown, this time by the score 54-52, and Harveys Lake was victorious in the final contest as they downed Prince of Peace 61-53.

A nice crowd was on hand for the contests and the awarding of the "Booster Night" prizes. Prizewinners were as follows: Bracket compliments of Henry the Jeweler, Maggie Evenson, $5.00 grocery order at Harron's Grocery Store, Harveys Lake, Joan Stires. 1 case of Coca-Cola, compliments of Keystone Bottling Co., and Frank Wagner, Jr., Mrs. Larry Crispell, 2 tickets to the East Dallas Pan-cake Supper, Pamela Rood. Two cases of Coca-Cola, compliments of Kozik's Back Mt. Beverage Co., one won by Jeff Eyet, one won by Bill Bartoo. Service at Ben Franklin's Gulf Service Station, Hillside, in the amount of $2.75, Carl MacDougall. Two 10 lb. boxes of tomatoes, compliments of James C. Thomas & Sons, one box won by Cheryl Dietz, one by Henry Evans. The ten Silver Dollars were won by the following: Tim Bauman, Mary Harris, Dave Huray, Peggy Thomas, Teddy Wright, Sherri Gauntlett, Stella Vosburgh, O. "Curly" Rome, and Peggy Rood. The League wishes to thank all of the fine people who contributed so generously to make "Booster Night" a success.

In the first game, Huntsville immediately built up a substantial lead over East Dallas, and had to hang on to it near the close of the contest as the game East Dallas five knotted the score at 40-40 with less than two minutes of playing time remaining. This may not have been the best game of the season, but it may certainly have been the dirtiest and most hard-fought! It was not uncommon to see several players on the floor at one time grappling for a loose ball, arms, legs, and elbows flailing wildly! Several times players from both teams were knocked hard to the floor as they attempted to grab a rebound or drive in for a shot! In the wild melees, Huntsville managed to hold its composure well enough to score 9 points in the final moments to ice the game.

Lynn Dietz, a hustling, alert guard, played one of the finest games of the season and lead the Champions scoring with 16 points. Ace rebounder Len "Pooch" Kozik tallied 12 points, and veteran Charlie Brobst hit with amazing accuracy from the corners a few times and ended up with 10 points to his credit. Bob Berlew was responsible for grabbing rebounds for the Huntsville five at crucial moments, and this definitely helped to turn the tide toward victory.

For the losers, all five of the players did a fine job. Manager Fred Lamoreaux, who shot 15 foul shots and converted 10 of them, was the high point producer for the losers as he totalled 16. Workhorse Wes Evans, who proved that he was going to stay right in the thick of things, had 14 points. Chuck Lasher, though he didn't score, turned in a fine performance off of the backboards with his rugged rebounding.

In the second game, St. Therese's, paced by the torrid second half play of Pete Lets, who scored 19 of his total 21 points in the last two periods, won their second game of the season, both over Shavertown. Shavertown, sparked by the deadeye set shooting of guard Bill Oney and corner man Bob Hontz, jumped into an early lead over the cellar-dwellers. They maintained a 31-27 lead over the Saints as the halftime buzzer sounded. But in the second half, there was no stopping the fabulous play of Pete Lets. He dazzled the defense of Shavertown with his perfect jump shots, drove his 6'5" frame through the defenders for lay-ups, and controlled the boards in grabbing off rebounds. When men were guarding him, he passed off to team-mates for quick two-pointers. Guard Don Purvin, who never stops hustling, played the entire game constantly on the move, stealing the ball several times from The Shavertown players, and at the same time came in second in the scoring column with 10 points. Guard Jack Hogan, who has been unable to play for the Saints two previous games, played a nice all-around game and finished with 9 points. Center Don Rome was the offensive stalwart for Shavertown as he scored 18 points, followed by Bob Hontz's 14 and Bill Oney's 10. This has been a rough season for the Shavertown team, having lost several games by only one or two points.

In the third and final game, Harveys Lake ended up the season in a deadlock with East Dallas for second half honors by virtue of their 61-54 defeat of Prince of Peace. Prince of Peace looked as though they might win the game as soon as the contest started as they built up a 16-10 lead at the end of the first quarter, and still maintained a 24-19 lead at half-time. However, the Lakers really put on a surge in the second half, paced by the accurate shooting of 6'9" Dave Shales and forward Gene Brobst. Gene finished the game with 17 points, followed by Dave Shales and Don Hinkle with 14 each. Guards Bob Harris and Dick Seafoss stood out for the Lakers with their fast ball handling.

For Prince of Peace, rugged Bob Coolbaugh was once again the rebounding star, supported in that department by center Jim Thomas. Jim also finished as the game's high scorer as he put in 13 out of 17 free throw attempts and three goals to score a total of 19 points. Guard Tom Richardson, who played a good game for the losers, was second in the scoring brackets with 12 points, followed by Chuck Allabaugh with 10.

This week, February 17, the Play-offs start at the DALLAS JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL Gymnasium. There are games scheduled for 7:00 p.m., 8:00 p.m., and 9:00 p.m. Please consult the daily papers later in the week for the schedule.

Mrs. Joseph (Frieda) Perry of Orange has been a surgical patient for ten days or more in Nesbitt Hospital. She is recovering nicely. The Perry's daughter, Catherine —Mrs. William Gray—phoned home from Scotland where she and her minister husband and family have been for some time. And youngest son Dr. Jerry Perry phoned his mother's hospital room from Austin, Texas.

When I arrived at the Perry household for a recent visit I found bee-man Bill Perry and a young helper from Harveys Lake loading up a truck sky high with bee hives or supers for a journey to Florida. They invited me to go along but I couldn't see a spot on the load that would accommodate my feet! I never could be an astronaut nor a stow-away. I told Bill to give my regards to the Florida bees, and had bought a jar of honey to take home with me.

Our sympathy goes to Emily VanTuyle. Last Friday she went skating. You wouldn't believe it but she says she's not so young as she was 20 years ago! Anyway, she fell down on the ice and when she got up her right arm began to swell and pain. Yes, it was broken, in the wrist and when I talked with her it was still in a splint waiting for the swelling to go down before a cast could be applied. Ruth told me to give her sympathy because while we were up at Maine she broke her wrist, right one, and knows the discomfort. I remember how many things I did around the Tuesday night Lake-Lehman traveled to West Wyoming and suffered a 45-31 setback, its second in a row to the Cowboys. Ellsworth again paced the Knights with 14 counters. Schalles with 16 and F. Banko with 12 led West Wyoming.

Ashley Next Foe For Dallas Tuesday Night

Two arch rivals, Dallas and Lake-Lehman go at it Friday night at the Lake-Lehman gym starting at 8 p.m.

Lake-Lehman will be out to atone for the drubbing handed them in the first half when Tommy Gauntlett set a record breaking 61 points.

Lake-Lehman dented the win column for the first time this season with an impressive 50-43 win over Wilkes-Barre Township Friday and may be able to contain the Dallas cagers on the Lehman floor.

Dallas wins pair
After losing the second half opener to Swyersville by eight points Dallas bounced back to cop its last two outings, stopping Wilkes-Barre Twp. 66-47 and West Wyoming 48-44.

Dallas made amends for the 40-39 setback handed them in the first half when Tom Gauntlett was missing from the lineup by thumping the Braves of Coach Eddie Solack by a 66-47 count.

Tommy Gauntlett tossed in 31 markers and Bob Letts 11 as Dallas took a commanding 43-21 half-time lead. With Coach Brobst using his bench in the second half the teams battled on even terms to wind up with a 19 point victory.

Golazewski with 24 and Perrence 14 led the losers.
Friday night Dallas rallied in the final period at West Wyoming to emerge the winner 48-44.

Bob Letts with 23 and Tom Gauntlett 18 paced Dallas, while Schalles, Noto and F. Banko tossed in 35 between them for the Cowboys.

After the teams were deadlocked at 25-all at halftime, the Cowboys outscored Dallas 11-7 to take a 36-32 lead going into the final period. In the final period the Dallas defense stiffened and Dallas outscored the home team 16-8 to come out the winner.
