Mt. Zion

Mt. Zion church has been going through a complete interior re-finishing. Walls, ceiling and pews. Church service had to be held downstairs again last Sunday. When I was pastor we had to have the Carverton church service at the Grange Hall while the interior was being practically rebuilt. Up at the new church we went through the same upheaval while installing a new heating system. One of the painters working at the Mt. Zion church remarked to me last Friday, "You can be thankful this church has members who care about the condition of the church." That is true.

Saturday afternoon Catherine had Tuffy out for one of their usual walks. Over on the other side of our place she slipped and fell, landing on her left hand and elbow, receiving a painful sprain. I took her to the doctor and he put her arm in a sling.

Now here's some reporting on Saturday of something that was to happen the next day, last Sunday, as if it had happened! It's this way: Dave and Celia Emanuel from Chester Pa. came in to visit Leon's folks down the road. Sunday is — was Celia's birthday. Too, it was Enola, Gay's birthday, that's Marietta's little girl. Then Jean Emanuel Dymond joined the party. So they all sang — (they should have!) "Happy birthday to you". For they all got together for dinner.

ORANGE NEWS Last Saturday night the Cheerio Class at their regular monthly meeting made it the occasion for an annual Valentine Supper. This included men and women which made it all the more lively. There was no special entertainment program, but with the Cheerios no formal entertainment is needed. Aren't there always a hundred things for nice girls like that to talk about? I wasn't there, that the women talked among themselves and the men at the other end talked over their interests. But at the supper their conversation flew back and forth between bites. And their hearts all went pitta-pat as they thought back to the days when they sent frilly valentines to each other with sentimental verses on them. Look over the list of those who were there, and you'll know that everybody had a good time: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bedford, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Perry Jr., Mrs. Eugene Gordon, Mrs. Raymond Rozelle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson J. Dymond, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Kunkle, Mr. and Mrs. Howard James, Mr. and Mrs. Morris R. Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Everal Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. John Zarno, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sicker, Clare Sicker, Joyce Sicker, Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird, Mr. and Mrs. W. Beverly Perrego.

Kunkle Firemen Plan Banquet For Saturday Kunkle firemen will stage their Seventh Annual Banquet at Beaumont Inn. Saturday night, February 17, Arnold Patton will be chairman, Basil Frantz co-chairman.

Herman Kern will be Master of Ceremonies, and music will be furnished by the Hudak Brothers.

Mr. Scott Asks A Question

"How do you stop the telephone calls after you have sold an item advertised in The Trading Post?"

This was the question asked us Friday morning by Robert Scott, Mount Greenwood Road, who had just received another call about the saw he sold shortly after the paper was out Thursday morning.

"We're sorry we can't tell you how to stop them," we told Bob, knowing full well that he will continue to get calls for the next week from potential buyers who do not realize how quickly Dallas Post ads work.

Then we asked timidly, "How many calls have you had?" "Fourteen," he replied. I've just had another, wish I knew where I could pick up some more used saws for all the fellows who want them."

NOW is the time to have alterations and repairs made on that Suit - Dress or Top Coat. Come in and have JOE BOND make it right—
