It is far from a pleasant picture. Dallas Methodist MYF In Search Of Blankets For Migrant Workers

Dallas Methodist Church MYF needs blankets for its project of piecing out the needs of migrant workers in the Back Mountain. The goal is 100 blankets; health kits consisting of soap, towels, combs, tooth paste and brushes; first-aid kits; baby clothes.
 The MYF saw a film on Migrant Workers Sunday night at the church. Pictures were taken in the West, not locally, but conditions in any migrant camp follow much the same pattern, where there is a sudden influx of many people who have no roots in the community. They must be housed, must have cooking facilities, sanitation, recreation.
 Percy Love showed the film. Mr. Love is on the committee sponsored Luzerne-Lackawanna Counties. He and Mrs. Love have been much interested in migrant workers camps for some years, after visiting one such camp in the Oswego area in New York State.
 The film showed before and after pictures of a camp where great improvement in living conditions had been made.

Mrs. Love, in speaking afterward of the need, said that in the Back Mountain twelve babies had been born last summer, and that for none of them had preparation of clothing been made. One mother, she reported, had given birth to her infant just on the eve of departure for the south with her family along the route.
 A storage and workroom is needed, where clothing can be reconditioned for distribution to the people who need it, and blankets can be safely stored. The MYF is on the lookout for such a place.
 Around 700 migrants appear annually in the Back Mountain, of whom almost 300 are children, who need daytime care while parents pick green tomatoes.
 Migrants remain to themselves for the most part, but they are nonetheless a community responsibility. Some of them, accustomed to warmer climates, do not realize that by the time the green tomato season is over, nights will become very chilly, and extra bedding will be needed.

Requiem Mass Yesterday For Agnes Youngblood

Mrs. Agnes Youngblood was laid to rest in St. Mary's Cemetery Hanover Township, Tuesday morning, following a requiem mass at St. Therese's church.
 Mrs. Youngblood, resident of Shavertown for the past 38 years, died Saturday night at Nesbitt Hospital, where she had been a medical patient for a week.
 She was a native of Wilkes-Barre, daughter of the late Cornelius and Mary Ann Marley Ward. She was a member of St. Therese's and its Altar and Rosary Society.
 She leaves her husband Francis; four sons; Francis Jr., Shavertown; John, Falls Church; Virginia; Joseph, Arlington, Va.; Robert, Quaker town; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Conside, Shavertown; ten grandchildren; a sister Sarah Ward, and brothers Daniel and Manus Ward, Wilkes-Barre Township.

Card Of Thanks

The family of Billy Belles, instantly killed in a sledding accident last Saturday, wishes to thank all the wonderful people who eased the burden of sorrow by heartfelt expressions of sympathy, collections of money, gifts of food and flowers from residents 'of Demunds, Beaumont, and Dallas Township.

The trouble with each generation is that it hasn't read the minutes of the last meeting.

GETS WILD CAT

Frank Elenchik caught a heavy wild cat in one of his traps on Red Rock Mountain Friday. Frank placed two traps on the forepaws of the cat and carried it down the mountain. He almost succeeded in capturing a second cat on Saturday.

TEACHER RESIGNS

Mrs. Suzanne Bethke, Fifth Grade Teacher at Ross School, has resigned. Her husband, who has been stationed at Red Rock Air Base has been transferred to the State of Washington and she will accompany him. Lois DeKanic has been appointed in her place, and will assume her duties in September.

WILL RESIGN

Les Kocher, Noxen School Director, will tender his resignation shortly. Mr. Kocher has obtained a job in Williamsport and will soon move his family to that city.

C-N-C Class of Huntsville Methodist Church will hold a Box Social at the Church Saturday night. The women pack the box lunches and the men purchase them and eat their lunch with the woman who Thomas M. Marshall, Dushore, State Dog Enforcement Officer, has announced a general check will be initiated for owners of unlicensed dogs. All persons found owning or harboring unlicensed dogs will be prosecuted without exception. Minimum fine is $5.00 and costs of prosecution. Maximum fine is $100 and costs or 30 days in jail or both. All dogs not bearing a current license tag are considered as strays and may be disposed of by any officer on sight. A license does not permit dogs to run at large unless accompanied. Better get that license quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Gurnacia and Mrs. Helen Buckley, Wilkes-Barre, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gabel.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes entertained the following officers and committee members of Fellowship Club of Dorranceston Methodist Church Saturday evening: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ide, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zweier, Mr. and Mrs. David VanFossen, Mrs. Minnie Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schramm, Mr. and Mrs. Ray MacDonald. Plans were made for the February meeting and refreshments were enjoyed.

At the last meeting of Lake-Lehman Joint School Board the question of Atty. Lewis Crisman's bill came up. From information obtained from the Department of Justice, it is claimed that there is a legal basis for the payment of the $5,000 fee by Lehman Township School Authority. The fee is for services rendered in connection with the recent Bond Issue. There has been a dispute between the Joint School Board and the Authority as to who is to pay Crisman's bill.

The following members of the Lake-Lehman Joint School Board and officials of the system attended the A.A.S.A. Convention at Atlantic City over the week end: School Directors: Edgar Lashford, Walter Chamberlain and Willard Sutton, and Supervising Principal, Lester B.

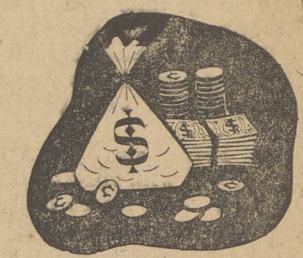

It's A Tough Break

A plea from somebody on the Hunlock Creek route: "Why can't you folks get our paper transferred to the Sweet Valley route? Every time I see something in Trading Post I want to buy, it's gone before I can telephone. The paper doesn't get here until Friday, and right down the road folks get their paper on Thursday."

Tough luck, Lee. Take it up with your congressman. The Dallas Post is powerless.

Squier, Asst. Supervising Principal, Robert Belles and Principal Anthony Marchakitus.

How to have extra money

while you're in a HOSPITAL

If you're hospitalized this year (your chances are 1 in 8), perhaps your family will have plenty of money to get along. Or maybe they won't. Only you know the answer. But quite often, when the wage earner is hospitalized, most families badly need some extra "emergency money" coming in every week from their insurance company.

Our IN-HOSPITAL INCOME POLICY is the one that, for many families, will keep that extra cash rolling in. The weekly insurance sum can be anywhere from $25 to $175. May we tell you how IN-HOSPITAL INCOME insurance can fit in with your present insurance?
