District Chorus

Four girls chosen for District Chorus are Elsa Orchard and Peggy Hall, second altos; Sally Moyer, second soprano; and Betty Jean Davis, first soprano. The chorus is held at Canton, on April 12, 13, and 14. Girls will report for practice at 10:30 a.m. April 12. April 12 they will give a concert for Canton High School students after which they will attend a dance. On April 14 they will present a public concert.

Vogue Contest

Vogue Fashion Contest sponsored by Dallas Senior Women's Club, was held last Monday at the high school. Three senior girls entered were Barbara Prokopenak, Peggy Hall, and Olga Jurysta. At this writing, results of the contest are not known.

Prom

Plans for the Junior Prom have begun. As is customary, the Juniors will be the hosts for the Seniors. May 11 is the date. This event always seems to cast a magical spell of enchantment on everyone.

Junior Play

Try-outs for the Junior Play have begun under the direction of Mr. Molley. Many Juniors are trying out for parts. It promises to be very enjoyable for all those involved and the audience.

Alma Mater

The new Alma Mater has been chosen. The lyrics were written by Barbara Tag, a senior. Last Friday in assembly the song was presented to the student body. Elfriede Hefft was given the honor of introducing it and then leading the student body. The Student Council has given a printed copy to each student.

P. O. D. Display

The very nice display we have been admiring is the handi-work of Mr. Evans' Problems of Democracy class. Recently projects were completed and a few were selected to put in one of the showcases in the hall.

Valentine Twist Party

The Seniors sponsored a Valentine Twist Party last Saturday night.

Bloomsburg To Aid Those With Speech And Hearing Problems

In June, 1961, the Bureau of Vocational Rehabilitation entered into an agreement with Bloomsburg State College to provide another service for adults (age 16 and over) who have speech and hearing problems that would interfere with educational or occupational gain. This contract was put into effect during the 1961 summer session. Twelve trainees were admitted to the Residential Program established on the Bloomsburg State College campus.

from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. The main attraction was a Twist Contest where everyone tried to out-do their fellow twisters. Now we have room for about 12 more students at our school due to the loss of weight.

Key Club News

Dallas Key Club, at its recent meeting, made plans for a scrapbook for the Pittsburgh Convention to be held at Hotel Hilton, April 6, 7, 8 and for polishing school trophies.

The District 15 meeting, scheduled for February 19 at Meyers High School has been postponed.

Awards Given For Model Car Contest

McCrory's Model Car contest ended Saturday, with more than 100 entries considered, and awards given in two classifications, junior and senior. Among the younger contestants, Drew Bittenbender took first place, Ricky Crocker second. Among the older boys, Harry Haas was first, Billy Cooper second.

You don't need to worry about avoiding temptation after you pass 50. That's when it starts to avoid you.

Beaumont

Local interest this past few weeks has centered on the well drilling at the Beaumont Elementary School where it is pleasant to report an artesian well finally gushed in!

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kozak and Miss Ann Kubeo of New York City are enjoying the warm sunshine as they fish in Florida.

Dr. Edward Kresge of Elizabeth, N. J. renewed acquaintances here last weekend. Dr. Kresge, who was graduated from the University of Florida this past summer, is doing research work for the Esso Company.

Mrs. George Kuhl, who is visiting at San Diego, Cal., has submitted to hospital tests there.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sabo of Massena, N. Y. were recent visitors in the W. A. Austins, Mine, who was a former "All Star Pitcher", now has his own resort hotel on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Pine Grosbeaks Tame

Birds to burn Saturday morning. A robin on Sutton Road, reported by Gwennie Weaver, and six Pine Grosbeaks in the apple tree by the Dallas Post, one so tame that he flew down for a drink of melted snow within four feet of four feet. Two minutes later, all gone.

CONTEST

Lehman's Women's Club is sponsoring the Vogue Pattern Contest; final judging for the local contest is Thursday. The four girls entering from our area are Joan Darby, Barbara Ross, Carol Toluba, and Marilyn Wooding. Pat Zbick will be commentator for the meeting.

Joan will model a dark green wool suit, which has a straight jacket with an open pleat in the back, and shawl collar. The sleeves are three-quarter length. The skirt is straight. Dark green taffeta is used for the complete lining. Joan will wear green jewelry with black hat, purse and shoes.

Barbara will model a Cardinal Red Velvet Suit with stand-up collar. The blouse and lining are made of white crepe. She will wear white long gloves and black accessories.

Carol will model a peacock blue wool suit with softly tailored jacket. The skirt is A-line. The suit is completely lined in peacock blue satin.

Marilyn will model a wool suit of charcoal grey with black candy stripes. The sleeves are three-quarter length. It has a flare skirt. She will wear a white blouse made of peau-de-soie.

All of these outfits are from Vogue patterns. The winner in this contest will be named next week.

SENIOR HOME EC

The girls in the senior home-making classes along with five juniors are planning their dream homes. Included in these homes are type of heating, type of insulation, and type of siding. From the blueprint is made, each room must be drawn and furnished. This is an interesting project and fascinating for the girls.
