Variety Show At Ross Friday Night At 8

John Zaleskas, teacher at Lake-Noxen, and Dick Williams, chairman of the five-way committee for the Fred Hennebaul Recovery Fund, will report Friday night on Freddie's present condition and the amounts raised for his rehabilitation.

The men will speak between acts of the "Pickaninny Patch," a comedy program for Freddie's benefit, scheduled tomorrow night at 8 at Ross Township School. Pupils of Mrs. John Devens will give a variety show. A bake sale will be staged on the side. Donations of money and other baked goods are solicited to swell the Ross Township fund for Freddie. Michael Adams says the dress rehearsal Monday night was fine, and everything points to a capacity house. Don't miss it.

Stephen Glova Chairman Of Lady Of Lake Contest

Stephen Glova, Harveys Lake funeral director, was named chairman of the annual "Lady of the Lake" beauty contest at a recent directors' meeting of Harveys Lake Lions Club.

He was program chairman for last summer's successful affair. Mr. Glova has served on many committees throughout his years as a Lion, and last year received a plaque for his service as secretary.

BAND TO SELL RECORDS

The band has set March 19 as the date when they will record most of the concert. The concert will be held in April. One of the local radio stations will record the numbers; the tapes will then be sent to New York. The records will be sold at concert time. Profits will go toward the bands trip to Sherburne, New York, where they will compete in the Sherburne Band Festival.

TESTS TAKEN BY STUDENTS

The students are busy taking an assortment of tests. Last Friday, Marie Hardisky, Carol Drapiewski and Bill Schlosser took the State Senetorial Scholarship test at Coughin High School. Last Tuesday, the National Education Development Test was taken by the Sophomores; the Juniors took the National Merit Scholarship Test.

ALMA MATER SELECTED

Lake-Lehman now has an official Alma Mater. Two lyrics were written; the assembled student body voted for their choice after hearing and staging both versions.

TEACHER ILL

Mrs. Florence Worth, physical education teacher at Lake building, has been ill for several weeks. Mrs. Jones is substituting in her absence.

wrestling meets. At the top of the Knights' squad are Edward Newell who took first place in 112 class and Fred Schultz who took second in 103 class. Both these boys are seniors. Ed will compete in the regionals. The entire squad placed third.

SWEETHEART CROWNED

Fay Shaw, a senior vocational homemaker student, was crowned by Howard Piatt as FFA Sweetheart for Blue Ridge Chapter of the FFA at the annual "Three F" Dance sponsored by FFA, F.H.A. and F.T.A.

JUNIORS PLAN PLAY

On March 30 the Junior class, under the direction of Arthur Nuss, will present "Beauty and the Beast." This three-act comedy has the most hilarious results.

VOGUE CONTEST AT LAKE

Vogue Contest, sponsored by Harveys Lake Women's Club was held March 1. Sharyn Montross, who fashioned a slim satin dress with a lace overskirt, was the winner. Others participating were Bonny Gennets, Rose Marie Jones, Irene Wolfe, Marguerite Hacking and Marlene Patton.

ASSEMBLIES

In our last two assembly programs we were entertained by the talented musicians of our school. In the first one the "Star-Fires" performed for us. They are made up of Fred Kirkendall and Roger Griffith on the guitars, Bob Gardner on the sax, and Rich Gumbrecht on the drums. Their lead singer is Harold Harris and they are managed by Robert Wileman. They have played for the Penn State Exchange students party in the Poconos.

GUIDANCE INFORMATION

Juniors who are applying to colleges this fall should take the college entrance examinations in May. Apply now and you will not have to pay a penalty fee. Booklets and applications cards are available in the Guidance office.

GYM EXHIBITION

Yesterday the East Stroudsburg State College Gymnastic Team put on an exhibition for the students and faculty in the afternoon and for the public at night. They were served dinner in the cafeteria by the cooks and the Mothers of the Senior girl basketball players. The exhibition was a great success and we thank all of you for coming.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council's different committees are busy. A School Pamphlet containing important facts about the school such as; the members of the school board, members of the faculty, the honor roll system, the academic and commercial courses, the band, the student council, school activities, and awards is being compiled by one of the committees.

The Code of Ethics Committee is preparing a list of rules for students to follow at school and at all school functions.

Student Council announces that the deadline for the essay contest on "Why I'd Rather be Dead Than Red" is March 15. The first prize winner will not only receive $5.00 but he will have the honor of having his picture appear in the DALLAS POST.

P. T. A. DANCE

P.T.A. sponsored a record hop for the members of Dallas Junior High School on March 2. The disc jockey was Mrs. Johnny Foster substituting for her husband Johnny Foster of W-I-L-K. Mrs. Robert Bayer was chairman of the dance and Mrs. Covert was in charge of refreshments. Chaperones were members of P.T.A. and of Dallas Junior High School faculty.
