Delegates To Model U. N. Assembly To Speak To Dallas Rotary March 15 The United Nations in miniature was held in our State Capital this past weekend. The 7th Biennial Pennsylvania State YMCA-sponsored United Nations Model Assembly took place in the Forum of the State Educational Building March 2 and 3. Four hundred and twenty-five delegates from local Tri-Hi-Y Clubs and their advisors, from all sections of the state, participated in this colorful event in costume, as they have done every other year since 1947. Delegates from this area included Kay Williams and Sandra Yellitz of the Lake-Noxen Tri-Hi-Y Club, and Mary Ann Morningstar and Carol Owens of the Lehman Tri-Hi-Y Club. They represented the Nation of Afghanistan. Miss Williams also served as a chaplain for the Assembly. This year approximately 100 Nations were represented at the Model Assembly. Nearly all of the delegates were in costumes made by the girls themselves. Proposals based on world problems were prepared in local Tri-Hi-Y Clubs and in District United Nations Assemblies in the Fall. Chairman was Mrs. Jeanne Shelby Mosier, Professor of Psychology and Education for the Uniontown Center of Waynesburg College. The International Banquet held at the Penn Harris Hotel on Friday evening, March 2, featured J. Benjamin Schmoker, Executive Secretary of the Committee on Friendly Relations among Foreign Students, which makes its headquarters in New York and is responsible for the reception at ports of entry of all foreign students. Girls who served as delegates to the Assembly traveled to Harrisburg by chartered bus. In the near future they will speak to school and community groups on their new understanding of the workings of the United Nations. Their first appearance will be at the Dallas Rotary Club on Thursday, March 15. The Rotary Club shared in this project by contributing generously to the expenses of the delegates. Funeral Services For Mrs. Mattie Straley Mrs. Mattie Straley, 68, died last Wednesday at her home on Dallas RD 1. She was buried Saturday afternoon in Marsh Cemetery, following services conducted by Rev. Ronald Woodall from a Tunkhannock funeral home. Home Through The Storm To Family Cemetery Mrs. Anna Jane Whispell, long-time resident of Kunkle, will be buried in Beaumont Cemetery, following services conducted at 2 from the Nulton Funeral Home. Mrs. Whispell came home through the storm on Tuesday, to her last resting place. She died early Monday morning, twenty minutes after admission to Dover General Hospital, Dover, N. J. Her granddaughter, Mrs. David Weaver, of Succasunna, N. J., with whom she had made her home for the past four years, says that Mrs. Whispell was marvelously healthy in spite of approaching old age. She would have been 82 March 28th. The heart attack came on very suddenly. She had thoroughly enjoyed the four grandchildren in the Weaver household. Mrs. Weaver is the former Jane Whispell, once secretary to Raymond Kuhnert at Dallas Township School. Mrs. Whispell lost her husband Irvin W. Whispell in June of 1941. She was a native of Houser Mills, daughter of the late Louis and Melvina VanHorn Younkins, but spent the major part of her life in Kunkle, where she belonged to Kunkle Methodist Church. Ten years ago she moved to New Jersey. She is survived by her son Sheldon, of Wallington, N. J.; two grandchildren and six great-grandchildren; sisters: Mrs. Myrtle Cleveland, Long Island; and Miss Theresa Younkins, Brooklyn, N. Y.; several nieces and nephews. Cancer Film Monday At St. Paul's "Time and Two Women," a film on uterine cancer will be shown at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown on Monday evening, March 12 at 8 p.m. It will be sponsored by the combined circles of the Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's, Dr. Richard Crompton will comment. The public is invited.
