Senior And Junior High Students To Have Separate Canteen At Y

Starting Saturday, April 7 a new policy will be put into effect at the Teen Canteen sponsored by the Back Mountain YMCA. Two Saturday evenings a month will be devoted exclusively to the senior high school students and two to the junior high students. The first and third Saturdays of each month will be open to senior high students only with the second and fourth Saturday evenings being reserved for junior high students. The Canteen is held at the Y

Headquarters Building in Shavertown. The hours for the senior high nights will be 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. and on junior high nights 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. In addition to dancing to the latest records, billiards, table tennis and shuffleboard and other table games such as checkers and chess may be enjoyed by the participants. There is a snack bar for the purchase of refreshments. There is a small fee for non-members of the Back Mountain Y.

Albert Parrish Dies Suddenly Suffers Heart Attack Early Thursday A. M.

Albert Hay Parrish, identified for many years with the growth of Dallas Borough, suffered a fatal heart attack early Thursday morning, dying in the house where he and his wife started housekeeping many years ago. Mr. Parrish, 64, had not been ill. He may have overexerted while raking leaves in the yard Wednesday afternoon.

Told by his daughter, Mrs. Ray Titus, that Key Club boys were coming the following day to groom the yard, he said he wanted to be out in the spring sunshine, and was enjoying gathering the debris of winter.

He was buried Saturday afternoon in Warden Cemetery, following services conducted from the home on Huntsville Road by Rev. William R. Heapps and Rev. Russell Lawry, past and present ministers of Dallas Methodist Church.

Born in East Dallas, he was son of the late Elmer D. and Rose Hildebrand Parrish, whose home on Main Street is now the Library Annex. The Parrish farm was cut up for building lots and real estate development, Albert cooperating with his father in the real estate business. By trade he was a carpenter, keeping the family holdings in condition. His wife Emily died in October of 1953, after a lingering illness.

He was a member of Dallas Methodist Church. Surviving are two children: Arthur G. Parrish, Noken; and Mrs. Elizabeth Titus, instructor in physical education, coach of athletic teams at College Misericordia. Arrangements by Disque.

Bible Church Ladies

Ladies of Shavertown Bible Church held their monthly Missionary Meeting last Monday, evening, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Bell, Shaver Ave. Speakers were Mrs. Russell Edmondson, and Mrs. William Burket. Present were Mesdames Claud Button, Russell Edmondson, Ernest Bell, James Brace, Dayton Garnett, Oscar Culp, Donald Easton, William McNeel, Donald Nulton, William Burket, Grace Moore, Mabel Bell, Samuel Keast, John Allen, Carl Remley, Corey Meade, and Miss Erma Garnett.

"Let's learn from the mistakes of others, because we can't live long enough to make all of them ourselves," is one rather perceptive comment that we noticed recently in the Olypbant (Pennsylvania) Gazette.
