

"All that Mankind has done, thought, gained or been it is lying as in magic preservation in the pages of Books. They are the chosen possession of men."

— CARLYLE —

Shown above is a good crowd bidding for items at last year's Auction. Ours is truly "a library built on an auction block" since the bulk of all operating monies to keep the library functioning is acquired through this annual auction. The Sixteenth Library Auction will be held July 5, 6 and 7 so plan to attend and bring your friends.

The late Ray Shiber, one of this area's most expert Civil War scholars, enjoys reading more about the activities of the famed Pennsylvania Bucktails in the newly decorated Pennsylvania Room of the library. This picture was taken just a week before his death.

YOUR LIBRARY boasts of 38,911 books on its shelves

Another new room in the library is the pleasant adult fiction room where all the latest in good fiction can be found. Very few libraries, in communities of this size, can boast of such a fine selection of books.

For the first time since the library has been in existence the young people, from seventh grade through high school, have a room of their own at the library. This lovely room has a wealth of modern volumes on its shelves.

YOUR LIBRARY circulates 53,000 books in this area yearly

Local mystery readers are thrilled when they find all their latest "who-dun-its" in new surroundings . . . a beautiful new Mystery Room completely dedicated to the latest in murder and suspense.

The Children's Library in the Annex is swamped daily with avid young readers who find all the best in the wonderful world of children's books. Shown here is Mrs. Dana Crump, assistant librarian, who handles this department Tuesday nights and on busy Saturdays.
