Fifty Senior Business Students Visit Three Dallas Institutions

See Changes Made In Banking, Printing And Communications By Electronics

Fifty members of Dallas High School Senior Business Education Office Practice Class, divided into three groups, visited three Dallas business institutions on Wednesday afternoon and saw in each the most modern applications of electronics as applied to banking, communications and printing.

Establishments visited were Commonwealth Telephone Company, Dallas Branch of Miners Bank and The Dallas Post.

Dallas Branch of Miners National Bank the saw how automation has simplified many banking procedures through the use of I.B.M. machines in the main office at Wilkes-Barre. The accounting department of Miners National Bank is one of the most attractive automatic in the State.

At Commonwealth Telephone Company they saw how electronics speeds up not only accounting and billing but also the completion of calls through automatic dialing.

At The Dallas Post they saw how electronic type setting and photolithography is changing the whole completion of the printing industry.

Both store and bank were destroyed by fire in September 1961.

The Wyoming National Bank is pleased to display its faith in the economic future of the Back Mountain area with its new and larger facilities and invites everyone to visit the new office and to utilize any or all of the bank services. All modern banking services of the Wilkes-Barre office are available at the Shavertown office.

Lake Little League Candidates Asked To Register On Saturday

Darrell Loomis will manage Harveys Lake Little League through the 1962 season. Loomis succeeds Calvin Strohl who had to resign due to his working conditions.

Manager Loomis would like all boys who wish to try out this year to register on Saturday April 7 at Elwood Davis's home, pole 142, Harveys Lake at 2 p.m.

Each boy must be accompanied by at least one parent or guardian and should have with him his birth certificate or other proof of age. All boys 8 to 12 are eligible as long as they are not 13 before August 1, 1962.

Harveys Lake Lions Club, sponsors of the team ask all parents to give Manager Loomis full cooperation.

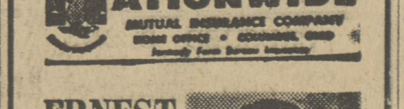

A mothers' organization will be formed in the near future for the purpose of aiding the boys. They will control game collections and refreshment sales.

The team will play on the diamond across from Lake School this year.

Work has begun to get the field in good playing condition. Elwood Davis is in charge of this project
