Back Mountain Memorial Library Holds Weekend Open House

Sunday and Monday were Open House days at Back Mountain Memorial Library, when beautifully dressed members of the Book Club welcomed residents to the newly renovated and remodelled main Library and to the Annex, where tea and party cookies were offered.

The spontaneous comment was, "How much more space there is, and isn't it attractive?"

Never, since the Library started to grow, has there been adequate space on the main floor. With removal of children's books to the Annex, and shunting of meetings to the Annex, the pressure was relieved, but not completely. Stacks still hindered the borrower from easy access.

With remodeling of the upstairs rooms, and utilization of this space, the downstairs is once more airy and uncluttered, as it was in the beginning.

Mrs. Mitchell Jenkins, Book Club president, collaborated with hairmen Mrs. Herman Thorpe and Mrs. Emil Bauman in making guests welcome, and Mrs. Prosper Witt, newly installed librarian, was at her desk.

Presiding at a tea table festive with spring flowers and tall ivory tapers on Sunday, were Mrs. George Gregson and Mrs. Charles Gates, relieved by committee members Mrs. Ornan Lamb, Mrs. George Montgomery, Mrs. Willard Seaman, Mrs. Edgar Brace, Mrs. Dana Crump, Mrs. Lloyd Kear and Mrs. Robert Bachman.

On Monday, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Jenkins were assisted in serving by Mrs. M. J. Brown, Mrs. J. P. DeWitt, Mrs. Florence Crump, Mrs. J. F. Sallada, Mrs. John C. Phillips, Mrs. Warren Unger, and Mrs. Stanley Davies.
