Throng Attend Bank's Opening

Open House Continues Through This Month

Somewhere between 7 and 10 thousand people came and saw - and liked what they saw - at the Open House Days held by the Wyoming National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the new Shavertown Office. The affair opened with an impressive ribbon cutting ceremony in which Judge W. A. Valentine, chairman of the board, and Albert M. Bossard, bank president, were the chief participants; Franklin D. Coslett was master of ceremonies. All three men took part in the dedication ceremony when the original Back Mountain Office was opened 7 years ago. Many other bank directors, personnel and the Advisory Committee of the Back Mountain office were present; in addition to hundreds of area well-wishers.

A flag raising ceremony was presented by Daddow-Isaacs Post American Legion, with call to colors and The Star Spangled Banner by Bob Baird and his band.

Following the serious part of the program, the throngs quickly reacted to the air of festivity which prevailed and participated wholeheartedly in the open house.

Thousands of men, women and children walked through the bank lobby, admired the lovely floral arrangements, examined the premiums, studied the photographs of the September fire, sipped coffee, munched doughnuts and sniffed the spicy carnations which were given away.

Visitors came from as far as Hazleton, Tunkhannock, Plymouth, Towanda, Montrose, Scranton, and Marysville in Western Pennsylvania.

Nearly 100 gallons of punch and coffee were consumed in the three days; 1100 children enjoyed ice-cream cones and 1000, chocolate milk. Thousands of souvenir gifts were presented to visitors and the premiums offered with savings accounts were enthusiastically accepted by many.

Former Dallas Man, 73, Dies In Rhode Island

The funeral of a former Dallas resident John Leonard Sullivan, who died early Tuesday morning at Rhode Island Hospital, will be held Saturday morning from the Disque Funeral Home.

Mr. Sullivan, 73, was a former Dallas Postmaster, serving from 1914 to 1918. He was also proprietor of the Meridian Restaurant on Main Street, and owned Dallas Thrift and Loan Company.

He was a communicant of St. Therese's Church while living here, belonged to St. Francis' in Providence.

His wife, the former Minnie Hoyt of Beaumont, died in 1957. The family moved from this area to Rhode Island the last year of World War 2.

Mr. Sullivan's parents were the late Daniel and Mary Sheridan Sullivan of Miners Mills.

He leaves these children: Mrs. Anna May Estus, Pawtucket, Conn.; Mrs. Madeline Sheridan, LeRoy, N.Y.; Gerald, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Helen Shultz, Cranston, N. J.; Mrs. Dorothy Velletri, Providence; Allen Sullivan, stepchildren: Raymond Harris, Maryland, and Jason Harris, Washington; Mrs. George Stolarick, Lehman; thirty grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; a sister Augustia Sullivan, Madison, Wisconsin; and a brother Daniel, Harrisburg.

announces that the premiums will be offered at the Back Mountain Office all during the month of April. He said the aluminum lawn chairs, with saran webbing, offered with a savings of $300 or more, proved to be one of the most popular premiums.

Many comments were overheard on the unbelievable renovation job done on the one-time Acme building which transformed it into the lovely, light bank office that it is today.

Men in particular seemed to like the luminous ceiling and the spaciousness; women examined the lovely off-white draperies and visualized the harmonious shades of yellow and gold wall tones in their own home. Architects were Foster and McGlynn Associates.

Advertising, publicity and promotional work was done by Dorothy Major Baker, Major Advertising.

Copies Of Last Week's Dallas Post Are Being Distributed Nationally

Copies of last week's Dallas Post will be distributed throughout the United States by 99 salesmen of the American Type Founders.

Tuesday morning shortly after the Philadelphia Branch office of American Type had received three copies of the Post, Branch Manager Carl Nelson called the Post: "This is one of the most attractive issues we have ever seen produced by phototypesetting and lithography. The girls in my office are delighted with that page of poems and the robins. They want extra copies, too."

Mr. Nelson then ordered as many copies as the Post had on hand to be forwarded to his firm's main office in Elizabeth, N. J. for distribution to all of the company's sales representatives throughout the United States.

American Type Founders Co. is one of the oldest and most respected names in the printing industry, manufacturing printing presses and printing equipment.

They are pioneers in the development of phototype setting as they were in the manufacture of beautiful foundry types.

"But, Inspector, why didn't you tell me you were sending a plain-clothes man to reconstruct the burglary?"
