Mrs. Catherine Lemke To Be Ninety-one On Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday will mark Mrs. Catherine Lemke's 91st birthday celebration. Plans were to have a large affair, with relatives from many places attending Open House at the Spring Street, Shavertown, home where Mrs. Lemke lives with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Florence Kast, but a quiet gathering has now been arranged, with a small family dinner.

Mrs. Lemke was not feeling well last week, and her sister, Mrs. Anna Dentz, of Detroit, was advised to come to Shavertown. Mrs. Lemke is greatly improved, and Mrs. Lentz plans to fly back to Detroit Easter Monday. Here for the occasion will be Mrs. Lemke's niece, Mrs. Willard

Crouse, who with her husband will be here for Easter, and Mrs. Lentz's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meissner of Fort Wayne, Ind.

Mrs. Lemke may be feeling her age a little, but she is as mentally alert as ever, enjoys her television programs, and welcomes visitors.

When she was a child of ten, she came with her parents, the late Jacob and Elizabeth Bandner, from Bavaria to this country. The family settled in the vicinity of Taylor. For the past thirty years, she has lived in this area. She is a charter member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, established a year after she came to Shavertown.
