Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts Are Married Fifty-six Years

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts, Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown, celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary quietly at their home on Wednesday, April 25. Last year, their fifty-fifth anniversary, they enjoyed a family dinner.

Mrs. Roberts is the former Mina Honeywell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Butler Honeywell, farmers who lived on the site of the present Dallas Junior High School. The family later purchased and moved to a farm where the Dallas Free Methodist Camp Grounds are located. Mr. Roberts is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roberts, prosperous Falls farmers.

The couple was married at the home of the bride, April 25, 1906, and went to housekeeping in Wilkes-Barre. They later moved to the Roberts home at Falls, then to the home they were married in at Demunds. Forty-one years ago they gave up farming and moved to the house they now occupy, Mr. Roberts working for the traction company, then for Sordoni Construction Company. He retired nine years ago.

There were four children, three boys, now deceased, and a daughter, Mrs. Lester Creasy of Lewisburg; also two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The Roberts are members of Shavertown Methodist Church.
