Student Council Purchases Ping-Pong Table

Lehman Student Council has purchased a metal ping-pong table. For many years ping-pong at noon has been a favorite of some students during the winter months and the new table should renew interest in the sport.

Chaperons Announced

The chaperons for the Senior Washington trip May 9, 10 and 11 will be Mr. Stanley Gulbush, Miss Mary Lamoreaux, Mr. John Zaleskas and Mrs. Mildred Scrutsky.

Prom Excitement In The Air

Juniors are preparing decorations while the Seniors just sit back and wait for the evening of May 4. Reservations for the gala evening started April 12. The theme for this year's Junior-Senior Prom is "Rainbow Fantasy."

Class Night Plans Underway

The Senior Class at the Lehman building has begun work on "Seniorama," their class night program. As part of this program, the seniors voted for those fellow students who are considered outstanding in various areas such as, best all around girl and boy student, most intellectual boy and girl student and various other categories.

Seniors Vote For Class Gift

Lake and Lehman sections of the Senior Class have voted to buy a scoreboard for the new building as their class gift. Arrangements must be made with school authorities for the wiring, while the building is still under construction. This is the first class since the jointure to leave one joint class gift.

PROM EXCITEMENT

Tomorrow evening is the long awaited Junior-Senior Prom, "Rainbow Fantasy." In the past, seniors have planned and decorated for this gala event, but this year everything has been done by the Juniors to honor the Seniors.

The girls are more excited than the boys, but this is probably because the girls will be wearing gowns.

With the surroundings, atmosphere, and music of Jack Meltons' band, everyone will be off in a dream world for that evening of evenings.

EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION

Recently, Lehman Building received a new set of American Encyclopedias. With this edition, all students will have more up to date information available.

MAY DAY FESTIVITIES

More excitement for the girls—May Day on May 15. The Queens have been selected by the student body and the underclassmen are preparing their dances and routines. More information about this next week.

STUDENTS ATTEND CONTEST

Ruth Zorzi, Edward Hollis, and Jane DelKanic attended the Math Contest at Wilkes College. A standard math test was given to Junior and Senior students.

PARTY HELD

A party for the winners of Dress-Up Day was sponsored by the Lake Building Student Council. Honored were SA, 9B, and the Sophomore girls.

Elfrieda Hefft Plans To Study At Geisinger

She And Sally Moyer Have Handled Dallas School News Together
BY CHARLES GILBERT

Dallas Post readers are acquainted with Elfrieda Marie Hefft whose name and picture along with her chum Sally Moyer head the Dallas Senior High School column. After three years of working up through an apprenticeship in reporting school news these girls this year are the official correspondents.

Elfrieda Hefft has passed all examinations and tests and has been accepted as a student by the Geisinger Medical Center where she will begin her nursing studies this Fall. Her school activities have included membership for two years in the newspaper club, and on the staff of the Year Book. She has taken part in the Junior and Senior Class plays. Laughingly Elfrieda tells that her part to be memorized in this year's play consists of "Two-hundred ninety-nine lines!" She has been a member of the Girls' Chorus since she was in 7th grade. She belongs to the Keyettes, a marching unit.

Elfrieda won a beautiful wardrobe when she represented her school in the Miss Seventeen Contest. She took part in the Junior Miss Pageant and was chosen Miss Seventeen of Wyoming Valley.

Three centers of interest hold the loyalty of this charming and talented student; her school with its diversified opportunities and channels of expression; her church, the Carverton Methodist, where she sings in the choir and assists in the primary department of the Sunday School, and her home. She is the oldest of the four children of Sherman and Marie Hefft of Carverton Road. They live in the house built by Sherman's father, the late Jacob Hefft, just at the edge of what is soon to become the new Pennsylvania State Park and Flood Control project.

The younger sister Gretchen in the 6th grade plays clarinet in the Elementary Band and recently performed in the quartet at their concert. Younger sister Lenchen in 3rd grade can hardly wait until she can begin lessons on the trumpet. Little brother Milton will enter kindergarten in the Fall. You will be hearing from him later on. At present he looks like promising material for the football squad, class president and player of the big bass horn! When one visits in the home, it is evident that the Hefft family is close-knit, each member proudly supporting the activities of the others. Mother and children look forward to husband and father's return home. Sherman Hefft totes new cars by trailer/truck, sometimes long distances. For this family, the word "Togetherness" is no trite and empty term but a genuine expression of the spirit that unites the seven in mutual concern.

form of a personally-signed letter and the autographed photo. In the letter, Mr. Glenn thanked Ruth for her interest and explained that it was not only he who was responsible for the successful orbit, but all of the thousands of people who are connected with the project in one aspect or another. It is something Ruth will treasure for a long time to come.

being taken at Edward Mackin School VA 2-6131 and Pennsylvania State Employment Office VA 2-7121. The course will extend over a twelve month period.

Summer Typing Classes

Beginning June 18 and continuing through August 10, Wilkes-Barre Business College will conduct typing classes for all young people who are interested in advancing themselves. There will be both morning and afternoon sessions with allowances made for absences due to camp attendance or trips. Enrollment is strictly limited, so if you are interested, either write Wilkes-Barre Business College, 69 Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., or Phone VA 3-3123, Remember, act now.

A member of our Senior Class was recently the recipient of an autographed picture of John H. Glenn. Ruth Miller, a Dallas resident, began a scrap book a short time ago of all articles concerning Mr. Glenn with the intention of sending it to him upon completion. Last week she received a reply in the
