Friday Mrs. Jean Hronich entertained in honor of her son, Mike, on his 7th birthday. Right after school the following guests gathered at Mike's house for games, such as football, baseball, with much running and shouting: David Emanuel, Mark VanTuyle, Rickie King, Rickie Dymond, Mrs. Hronich was assisted by Jackie VanTuyle and Karen Hronich, and all sat down to a delicious birthday supper, during which time they were all quite enough so I could get their names and what they were doing over the telephone. They yelled "yes" when Mrs. Hronich asked them if they wanted their names in the paper!

THE KING CRUSADERS

Wednesday night the King's Crusaders class met with the following members present: Emma Miles, Clara Gonsler, Jean Earl, Mildred Krum, Madge Smith, Alice Daniels, Jane Lloyd, Peggy Thomas, Thelma George, Marion Thomas, Mae Lewis, Marie LaBar, Audrey Earl, Janet Dymond. The committee for the evening was composed of Marjorie Seiple, Alice Lamoreaux, Joan King and Jean Emanuel.

The devotional theme included scripture, two readings and prayers. "What is a Family?"

The business meeting included discussions of the chicken supper on May 5. On May 4 My Fellowship Luncheon for United Church Women.

May 26th there will be a spaghetti supper by the MYF; also a bake sale. There was some recruiting of vacation Bible School teachers for the week of June 18.

The May meeting will be a week earlier, (May 23) because of Memorial Day.

Unique games were played and enjoyed, especially the one being to identify a class member by some item donated from each. Among items were, lovely oil painting by Catherine Gilbert; a walnut by Alice Lamoreaux; a bee for busy-bee Marjorie Seiple; diapers, Peggy Thomas etc. Prizes were won by Emma Miles, Jane Lloyd, Marion Thomas.

Refreshments were served in the upper room because new doors were being installed downstairs. Table theme: Victorian mirrors, ladies-who-lost their newborn son born on April 26 at General Hospital.

head vases filled with spring arrangements. In the fellowship conversation which followed these items were gleaned over the "grapevine": Mrs. Mullison fell and hurt her leg so she could not attend Easter service. Later reports were that it was not broken.

Add Woodbert, Jr., has been hospitalized for tests and returned home. Later report on him was that he had two severe heart attacks Thursday morning and had to be rushed to the hospital by ambulance, in critical condition. Reported a good night on Thursday night.

Joan King and Jean Emanuel went over to the church to decorate for the class meeting. While there Janice King and Jeffrey Emanuel had a perfectly lovely time wading in the creek with their shoes on. You don't hurt your feet on the stones when you keep your shoes on!

G. C. (Cleve) LaBar on the Kitchentown Road is in bed with some circulatory trouble. Hope he will be out soon.

ON A HOT TIN ROOF

Well, I had a little throat trouble, doctor looked in, saw a cyst there. Gave me medicine to get rid of infection then I went back to him. He in turn called up a doctor in Wilkes-Barre and told him I would be in to see him. Warned him I was like a "cat on a hot tin roof" — which pretty well described my near attempt to land my breakfast in his lap during examination. So to Wilkes-Barre I went and reported to the receptionist, "Tell the doctor the cat on a hot tin roof is here". By and by he took a look and called up the first doctor to discuss whether the "thing" should come out. Then he asked me, "Do you want me to cut it open and scrape it?"

I answered, "Not particularly". So he shook hands with me and we parted good friends. Two doctors and I — that's three experts! — agreed to "let it ride". And the cat on a hot tin roof — well, the second doctor said I wasn't so bad after all.

The following persons were received into membership at Mt. Zion Church Sunday: Nettie Parrish (from First Methodist, Wilkes-Barre), Mrs. Ruth Earl, George Hurrey.

Further word from Cleve LaBar is to the effect that he was taken by ambulance to Nesbitt Hospital.

ONE O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING!

Yes, it's late hours for us, but we're just back from listening to the oratorio presented in Scranton, Haydn's "The Seasons" you've heard about. Of course we've been hearing Cathy's bits and snatches for weeks and now we heard it all put together, complete with orchestra. You must hear it when it is sung again in St. Stephen's, Wilkes-Barre, May 20. Super! Spine tingling! When Paul Balshaw sings solo parts its enough to lift you up. Then when the horns, trumpets and kettle-drums (tympani) come booming, well, that's what makes my skin break out around my ears, and salt water ooze from my eyes. Clifford Balshaw is tops as a conductor. Don't miss it.

Jackson Twp.

Henry Ziminski has returned from Nesbitt Hospital where he had been a surgical patient for the past week.

Miss Estelle O'Donnell, commercial teacher at Lehman Building has been granted a Sabbatical leave beginning April 5, for the balance of the school term. She has been a patient at the Mercy Hospital for the past four weeks.

Jesse Rogers resigned as School Custodian April 30.
