We all must be replaced sooner or later and I am sorry that my time has come, but I am positive that Marilyn Woodling, along with Jane Del-Kanic, will carry on the column in fine fashion.

Mariyn is a junior. Her fine work as News Editor for the school newspaper has made us aware of her capabilities. I wish beth girls best of luck, I'm sure they will enjoy writing the school news for you as much as I have.

It has been my pleasure to report our school news to you during the past five years. But time passes, so it is that next week this column will appear written by Marilyn and her assistant, Jane.
