Record Crowd Attends Tea Of Gate Of Heaven Society

Over two hundred guests attended the Birthday Tea Party held by Gate of Heaven Altar and Rosary Society in the school auditorium recently, when sixteen tables, beautifully decorated for the twelve months and four seasons were filled.

Mrs. George Arzente presided at a brief business meeting at which reports were submitted by Mrs. Gerald Johns, secretary; Mrs. A. A. Mascali, treasurer, and Mrs. John Kupstas, financial secretary.

Mrs. William Wallo, chairman, introduced Diane Myers, soloist for the evening. Miss Myers chose, as her program, appropriate selections of the four seasons: "Autumn Leaves," "The Sleigh," "Summer-time" and "Spring in My Heart." She encored with "I Could Have Danced All Night." Fern Coldren accompanied her.

Hostesses and table decorations were as follows: January—Mrs. George Arzente; Centerpiece was a Hallmark "Father time," complimented by garnet colored candles.

February—Mrs. Joseph Katyl and Mrs. Samuel Stiles. Centerpiece, a log cabin representing Lincoln's birthday. Violets, the flower of the month, also adorned the table.

March—Mrs. Robert Fallon and Mrs. Edward McDade. Centerpiece, array of greens mixed with white flowers for St. Patrick's Day.

April—Mrs. Philip Moore and Mrs. Matthew Evans. Centerpiece, a religious theme for Easter, consisted of a cake in the form of a cross, surrounded by Calla Lilies and greens.

May—Mrs. Jeff Guida and Mrs. Joseph Wentzel. Centerpiece, a Maypole encircled with blue Forget-me-nots and Lilies of the Valley. Blue and white streamers extended to each place setting.

June—Mrs. John Kaschak and Mrs. John Halpin. Centerpiece, a statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, surrounded by wreath of white roses, Lilies of the Valley and red vigil lights.

July—Mrs. Robert Young and Mrs. Ignatius Gallagher. Centerpiece, a patriotic theme, consisted of red geraniums in milk glasses, accented with Flag Blue candles.

August—Mrs. George Ruckno and Mary Weir. Centerpiece, a religious theme, consisted of a Statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary banked with roses, snapdragons and daisies.

September—Mrs. Joseph O'Donnell and Mrs. William Stewart. Centerpiece, Harvest Time, consisted of a farmer and his cart filled with produce.

October—Mrs. William Gallagher and Mrs. Donald McCrea. Centerpiece, a cornucopia surrounded with fall leaves and pumpkins.

November—Mrs. John Chesnovitch and Mrs. Francis Fertal. Centerpiece, brass candelabra with gold tapers filled with gold mums and greens, accented by gold cornucopias filled with fresh fruit.

December—Mrs. Ralph Daley and Mrs. Martin McEnroe. Centerpiece, a church and outdoor manger scene, accented by white candles in a base of poinsettia.

Spring—Mrs. Louis Rubino and Mrs. Philip Jones. Centerpiece, a huge basket of cut garden flowers, accented by gardener's work tools, jumpromps and jacks.

Summer—Mrs. Philip Heycock and Mrs. Emerson Steele. Centerpiece, a blue and white styrofoam cabin cruiser set on a mirror and white flowers for St. Patrick's Day.

Fall—Mrs. Walter Black and Mrs. John Kupstas. Centerpiece, driftwood filled with Autumn foliage and flowers such as pine, ferns, and tiger lilies.

Winter—Mrs. Ted Popielarz and Mrs. Gerald Johns. Centerpiece, figures of ice skating and skiing on a silvery lake, surrounded by evergreen trees and snowy mountains.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Next regular meeting will be held on June 4 at which time the nine past presidents of Altar and Rosary will be honored.
