

Junior-Senior Prom ... A Real Ball!

By Sally Moyer and Dale Mosier

The Prom is over! The gowns have been put away; the tux have been returned; and the corsages have wilted, but the memories will stay alive and fresh forever.

The blue and silver color scheme depicted in a heavenly arch at the entrance to the ballroom set us in the mood for our "Rendez-vous of the Stars." The ceiling was covered by blue streamers spattered with stars.

Bobby Baird selected his music to swing us through the glittering heavens. Twists and novelty dances, including the "Bunny Hop" and the "Polka" were in-

Just about this time everybody was in a romantic mood. Some of those you can spot are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Welsh, foreground, Jean Ide and Ralph Bellas, center, Mike Prokopchak and Harriet Sands, right center, Jean Connelly and Bob Wallace, far right.

Others are Bill Cooper and Susan Cheney, Bill Welsh, Judy Miller, Tim Gross, Diane Duffy, Barry Kennington, Sam Larish.
