BOWLING NEWS

CROWN MAJOR
Crown Major League closed out regular season Friday night with Monk Plumbing and Heating finishing 8 points ahead of second-place Dallas Legion who had 81 points, edging out Dallas Shopping Center by 1/2 point who finished with 80 1/2. Shavertown Lumber followed with 76. Parry's 75 and Dallas Nursery 73 1/2, to round out top 6 spots. Ambrose Vida did the "big scoring" for the night when he pounded the pins for 214-285-292 (451) series to help "lumbermen" cop everything from Jim-Jon. Amby had help from Rodda 199 (566), Roberts 192 (556) and Kriel 210. High scorers for respective teams were: Richards 193-202 (565), Garris 223 (582), Myers 218 (552), Lohman 190, MONK'S; Bellas 195, WEST SIDE NOVELTY; R. Bonomo 199-200-193 (592), Carey 207,

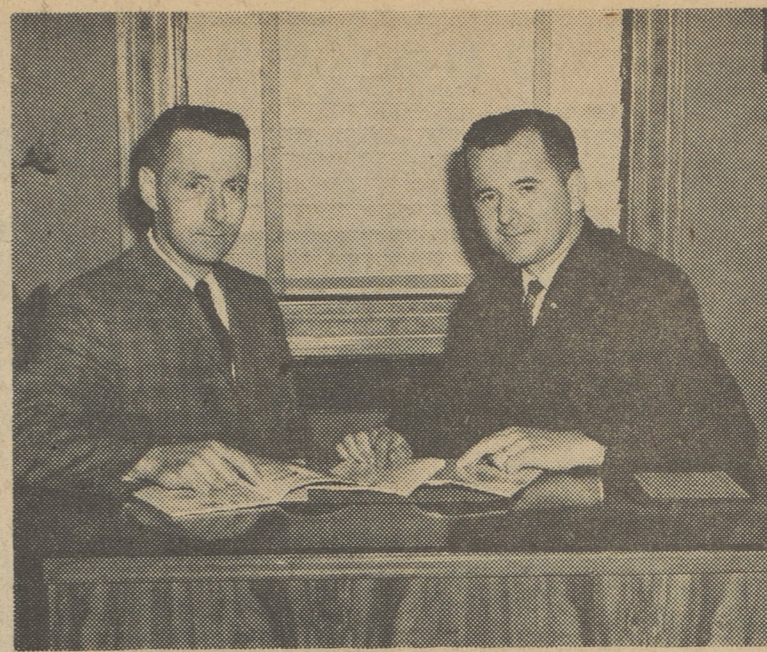

PHILLIPS; S. Bonomo 223-194 (576), Borey 196, PARRY'S; Williams 200-191, Kamont 192, SHOPPING CENTER; Nafus 201, Henness 206, Cross 193-198 (552), MATH-ERS; Birstock 198, Fallon 194, Williams 200-191, Kamont 192, SHOPPING CENTER; Nafus 201, Henness 206, Cross 193-198 (552), MATH-ERS; Birstock 198, Fallon 194, Wilson 219, BIRTH'S; Corgan 204 (560), E. Yankoski 203-190 (550), Hospador 192-206 (573), Hustey 201, GOSART'S; Molley 198 (560), P. Thomas 196, JIM-JON; Trudnak 216 (556), R. Wreckers rolling high team total for the night with 2729. Al Kalafsky sparked the "champs" on 178-203-178 (559) backed up by Monte 195-203 (553), Trudnak 530 and Amos 518. Fred Bonfig led Raiders scoring with 208 (538) followed by Gareis with 506. Wreckers by rolling 2729 total qualified for Proprietors Tourney along with Meade's Garage who rolled 2716. COMMUNITY SERVICE One more night of bowling in "Service" League and Boyd White's is out in front with 38.5 points, Mercury Motors following close behind with 37. Orchard Farm has 35 and Guyettes, 34. Winner of next week's match will bowl against Ben Franklin, first half winner. Top scorer was Williams with 223-191 (587) for Besecker's. Kostrohla led Orchard Farm with 201-200 (570) and Weichel had 195 (558) for Guyette's. Boyd White's suffered a setback when it lost 2 points to Mercury Motors, Orchard Farms lost 3 to Guyette's. Watch for an explosion next week! White's, Orchard, or Guyette's? MAC TOOLS CHAMPIONS In a pretty close match late Saturday night, Mac Tools took over championship in Country League from O'Connell's. Mac, first half champs, met the second half winners in a fight to the finish and Mac ran up three consistent games of 802-808-809. Everyone was surprised at the way the champions bowled! Their

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL
Marilyn Woodling, Editor
Jane Delkanic, Assistant
Last week our senior reporter turned in her pen as reporter and editor. My name is Marilyn Woodling. I will be your reporter for the remaining weeks of school and next year. I am a Junior academic student. I am a member of Quill and Scroll and a News Editor for the Crusader. As your reporter I would like to have your suggestions. STUDENT COUNCIL PARTY Tuesday directly after school Lake-Lehman student council left on their annual party at Holmes Cabin near Tunkhannock. Entertainment was under the direction of Lois Wesley. The students arrived at their destination about 5 p.m. and started home about 10 p.m. LEHMAN MAY DAY May Day celebrations were held Tuesday. Our Queen was Lovelle Briggs with Donna Lord as her Lady in Waiting. Others in the court were Marie Hardisky, Mary Ann Laskowski, Stella Rodriguez, and Fay Shaw. Grades 7 through 11 danced traditional dances of Pennsylvania for their Queen. ATHLETIC-BAND BANQUET The Athletic-Band Banquet was held last night in Lehman auditorium. The speaker was George Makis. After presentation of letters, the students ended a perfect evening by rolling up the carpets to dance. DANCE PLANNED Tomorrow evening the annual Yearbook Hop will be held in Lehman auditorium from 8 to 11. LAKE MAY-DAY Lake May Queen is Sandra Yellitz who is also Salutatorian of the Lake class of 1962. She is an officer in the Lake-Lehman Band, Tri-Hi-Y President and has been treasurer of her class for two years. Kay Williams Lake's Princess, has been class president for two years, Tri-Hi-Y vice-president, and a student Council Representative. She is also an officer in the Lake-Lehman Band. Ivor Williams was chosen as Lake's King and Bill Morris is Lake's Prince. Bill was also selected Mr. Senior of 1962.

$4,800 Damages To Walter S. Black
Walter S. Black was awarded damages of $4,800 for land taken by State Highways Department to reconstruct and straighten the highway leading from Huntsville Nursery to the State Correctional Institution. Black, losing a thirty-foot strip of land across a frontage of 433, says the right of way comes within four feet of his porch. Viewers Atty: J. Reuling Davis, Gilbert Jacobosky and Murray Veighton presented their findings to Judge Jacob Schiffman. "The reason adult westerns on TV seem so unrealistic is the cowpokes smoke kings and filter-tips instead of roof rolling their own out of Bull Durham with one hand."

Closes Barber Shop
Floyd Wells, who has operated a barbershop in Trucksville since 1926, has closed his shop in the Gregory Building. He will, however, take care of his old customers by appointment at his home 236 Elm Terrace. Mr. Wells, in semi-retirement, spent the winter in Florida. He had planned to reopen his shop this spring. He started in the barber business with the late Peter Oberst.
