Andrew Sholtis Dies After Being Helped From Stopped Car

Dying within minutes after suffering a fatal heart attack, Andrew Sholtis last conscious thought was to get the car stopped and safely off the road, for the protection of his daughter Peggy, 11, who was in the car with him when he was stricken.
 Mr. Sholtis stopped the car on Church Street, next to the Whit-taker property, so gently that it did not bruise the trees. He was breathing his last when Ames Swisher helped him from the car and called Dallas Community ambulance and Dr. H. G. Gallagher.
 He had made the long grade uphill on Church Street, and was leveling off near the Center Hill Road intersection, on the way back from Gate of Heaven Church Sunday night at 9, to his home on Upper Demands Road.
 He will be buried this morning at Mt. Olivet, following a High Mass of Requiem at Gate of Heaven.
 A native of Exeter, Mr. Sholtis had been resident of Dallas for the past thirteen years, for ten acting as Maintenance man at Natona Mills. He belonged to Gate of Heaven Church and its Holy Name Society. Before joining Natona forces, he had been a self employed contractor.
 He is survived by his widow, the former Mary Zorostek; his mother Mrs. Susan Chismar, Exeter; sons, Andrew and Paul, at home; daughters, Mary Ann and Barbara, at home; foster-children, Peggy and Eleanor Adamitis, at home; sisters, Mrs. Mary Kozich, Dallas; Mrs. Michael Yanchick, and Mrs. John Fedorchak, Wyoming; Mrs. Al Chorb and Mrs. David Ligi, Exeter; Mrs. William Maslowski, York.
 A brother, Michael, died in May 1959.
