Any Dog Can Have His Day At Giant's Big Kiddie Dog Show

Youngsters and their dogs will have their days Friday afternoon when Giant Markets holds a Kiddies Dog Show on its big parking lot in Luzerne between 4:30 and 5:30, in conjunction with the Ken-L-Ration Division of the Quaker Oats Company.

There will be prizes in the various classes and any child can enter his pet no matter what its breeding. Entry blanks may be obtained now or at the time of the show from the cashier at the Market. There are no entry fees.

The show has been planned so that parents can bring their children with their pets and have plenty of time to reach home in time for dinner.

The three judges will be Bert Husband, mayor of Kingston; Donald Seebold, assistant cashier, Luzerne National Bank, and Mrs. Richard Post, Dallas.

son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bottoms and infant son, Jimmie, Plains will move into their summer residence next week.

Mrs. Anna Hudak, Pikes Creek, has returned home after being a patient at Nesbitt Hospital last week. Mrs. Hudak's grandson, Pvt. George Stockage, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stockage, Pikes Creek, spent last week-end at his home, on leave from Fort Monmouth, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lamoreaux daughter, Susan Anomes Lamoreaux's father, Corey Smith spent last weekend in Alexandria, Va., with Mrs. Lamoreaux's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Braca.

Donald Case, Pearl River, N.Y., has returned home after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Case. Visitors at the Case home this week also included Mrs. Richard Jones and Mrs. William Martin, Edwardsville, and Mr. and Mrs. William Bradbury, Luzerne.

Mrs. Fred Witesell, Fades, has been confined to her home with pneumonia. The Witesell's son, John, a student at Bacon University, Bacon, Oklahoma, will arrive home June 1. Accompanying him will be his brother-in-law and sister, Sgt. and Mrs. Ronald Grabowski, and son Mark Allan, Peru, Indiana.

Bess Klinetob, spent Tuesday with Mrs. Roscoe Lee, Dallas.

Mrs. James Lord, Huntsville, a medical patient at Nesbitt Hospital. A sister to Mrs. Andrew Adams, she is a member of First Christian Church.

Items of interest for this column will be appreciated. Phone GR 7-3271.

Citizens Committee Meeting
Second Citizens Committee Meeting was held on Tuesday evening, May 22, at Dallas Senior High School auditorium, instead of the proposed date of May 23. The change was due to conflicting schedules.

The panels resumed answering questions, asked by Mr. J. Warren Yarnal, chief psychiatric social worker at the Children's Service Center of Wilkes-Barre.

Among the topics discussed were smoking, religion in the student's life, and self-discipline.

In the adult group, Mrs. Earl Mr. William Wright were present. Barbara Tag, Dale Mosier, Marleen Futch, and John Dana were on the student panel.

Class Trip
On Wednesday the Seniors will leave on their trip at 7:45 a.m. Their destination will be Monomonoock in the Poconos. They will
