Seminares Male Quartet To Sing At Monroe Baptist Church Friday

At Monroe Baptist Church tomorrow night, the public is invited to hear the Seminares, a quartet of four young men representing the Baptist Seminary in Johnson City, who have sung from coast to coast, and have appeared over TV, on radio, in Bible conferences, churches, and high schools assemblies.
 Don Ellsworth, whose mother is the former Bernice Kelly of Center Moreland, organized the Seminares in 1959. He is presently enrolled in the music department of Itasca College. He not only sings, but plays the trumpet.

Autographed Table Cloth Nearly Completed For Family Project

A white linen tablecloth embroidered in nine-inch squares with autographs of a number of notables as well as names of many Gate of Heaven parishioners, is in its final stages, and will, upon completion, be donated to the Parent-Teacher Guild for use on festive occasions.

When the Guild decided to forego the annual smorgasbord which has for several years been staged as a money-making program, it embarked upon a family program of lesser individual extent, but more widely diversified, with each family responsible for raising by its own efforts a certain sum.

Mrs. Paul Bomberger's project was named. She enlisted some of her friends, and the sum of $140 was realized. Eight yards of fine Irish linen was purchased, cut into squares, and widely distributed. As the squares were sent back, along with the requested donation, Mrs. Bomberger, Mrs. Emerson Steele and Mrs. Ed Skalinsky, embroidered signatures. Mrs. Joseph O'Donnell is sewing the squares.

Dallas Methodist Senior And Chancel Choirs Conclude Services For Season

Dallas Methodist Church Senior and Chancel Choirs concluded their joint services last Sunday.
 Fern Coldren, organist and director, completed on May 27 an extensive winter and Spring schedule which included outstanding choir arrangements of major composers.

The Senior Choir will continue its services until June 10th.
 A summer schedule of solos by Miss Diane Myers, soprano and Richard Oliver, tenor, has been arranged.
 Miss Coldren paid tribute to members of both choirs, but especially to the Chancel group, ranging in age from 12 to 18, for attendance and teamwork and, following in the footsteps of the Senior Choir, for showing a spirit of real dedication to their church.

Present in the Chancel Choir were Donna Smith, Susan Moore, Miriam Moore, Pam Baker, Cathy Reese, Gail Rumbaugh, Susan Fleming, Janice Hanna, Jean Fleming, Shirley

Major J. Brown, 68 Dies After Illness

Major Joseph Brown, 68, resident of the Roushey Plot for many years, died Sunday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lillian Fuller, also of the Roushey Plot. Burial services were held on Wednesday.

Born in Mahanoy City she was daughter of the late Michael and Susan Sosh Chesock. She attended public schools in Lopez.
 Surviving are: her husband Marbel; children, Mrs. Geraldine Edwards and William, Lehman; brothers: Joseph Chesock, Tonawanda; Michael, Dushore; John, Lopez; two grandchildren.

Russell P. Griffiths Was Minister 34 Years

Russell P. Griffiths, lower Main Road, Dallas, died Friday night at South Lansing, N. Y. where he was attending courses in advanced ministry. He had been a minister of Jehovah's Witnesses for 34 years, serving the Wilkes-Barre congregation for 18 as presiding minister.

Burial was at Oak Lawn, following services conducted Tuesday morning by Earl K. Stewart.
 Mr. Griffiths, 63, was a self-employed accountant. Scranton and Kingston, he moved to Dallas 17 years ago.
 He leaves his widow, the former Anne Morgan of Old Forge; two daughters, Marjorie and Ann Louise, at home; two sons: Morgan, New York; Joseph, Albany, N. Y.; two grandchildren; two brothers, John Buffalo; and William, New Jersey.

Camp Registration Is Extended To June 15

Deadline for Back Mountain YMCA Day Camp registration is extended to June 15. This action was taken because a recreation program conducted by Dallas School District in 1961 will not be continued this summer.

Therefore, registration has been extended to enable parents to take advantage of the opportunity to send their boys and girls to the Camp, conducted three days a week, from July 2 to six weeks. It is open to boys and girls through age fourteen. Complete information is available at the Back Mountain YMCA.

Rev. John Gordon Leaves Alderson Goes To Ashley, And Stahl Comes To Lake

One week after conference closed and ministerial assignments for the Wyoming Methodist Conference had been made, a former Dallas minister was transferred from Wyoming Conference to the New York Conference.
 One week after that, Rev. John Gordon, pastor of Alderson Methodist Church, was assigned to fill the vacancy at Ashley caused by transfer of Rev. William Heaps; and a newly ordained minister, Rev. John Stahl, was given the Alderson charge pulpit for the summer months.

Changes were made by Bishop Fred Pierce Corson.
 Rev. Heaps, who replaced Rev. Frederick Reinfurt several years ago in Dallas, and was himself replaced by Rev. Russell Lawry, the present minister, had been at Ashley as a replacement since late May of last year. He goes to Port Byron, near Syracuse.

Rev. Gordon was entering upon his sixth year as pastor at the Alderson charge, following conference, and had no inkling of any change.
 He and his wife both like the Back Mountain, and regret leaving it.

Rev. Gordon will take the Ashley pulpit this Sunday, and Rev. Stahl, of Shavertown, ordained at Wyoming Conference, will take the Alderson charge pulpit. The Gordons will move as soon as practical.

The Ashley Methodist Church is a single church, not a charge.
 The departing minister and his wife were given a surprise party Sunday night, following the evening service at Kunkle Methodist Church. Other farewell parties have been planned.

Adalthe Mahler, Grace Fleming, Wilma Weidner Lansberry, Alberta Cross.
 Absent from Senior Choir: James Darling, Bruce Davies, Edith Shaffer, Shirley Weidner, Myrl Young, Shirley Weidner, Myrl Young.

Senior Choir: Ivah M. Mitchell, Arthur Miller, Donald Williams, Bud Nelson, Dr. David Kunkle, Mary Reese, Alma Drake, Mildred Smith, Shirley Goode, Richard Oliver, Robert W. Brown, Diane Myers.
