Married At Loyalville

MR. AND MRS. WARREN R. LONG

At a lovely candle light service, Della Marie Steinruck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Steinruck, Loyalville, recently became the bride of Warren Robert Long, son of Mrs. Florence Long, Shavertown, and the late Warren Long, Rev. James Garrahan performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, ferns and bouquets of white snapdragons, in Loyalville Methodist Church. Mrs. Kenneth King presided at the organ, Treva Traver was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore floor length gown of white chiffon over tulle fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeved jacket of Chantilly lace and overskirt edged with pearls. Her double tiered veil of French illusion was arranged on a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She carried a white embroidered handkerchief that her great grandmother carried at her wedding 107 years ago.

Sharon Stuart of Fernbrook was maid of honor. She chose carnation pink nylon waltz length gown; rhinestone tiara, and pink nose veil. She carried a nose gay of pink, blue and yellow carnations. Bridesmaids were Beverly Hoppes and Rita Kijek, cousin of the bride. They selected waltz length gowns of shrimp and cerise respectively, matching veils, and carried nosegays of tinted blue carnations. Flower girls were Terri Lyn Swire, cousin of the bride, and Terri Lyn Kintner, niece of the bridegroom. They wore melon and lime green dresses and carried nosegays. David Lord, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man was William Stuart, Fernbrook, and ushers, Cliford Stuart and Charles McCuen of Carverton.

The bride's mother wore turquoise blue dress; pink accessories; and shoulder bouquet of pink orchids, and the bridegroom's mother, black dress, white accessories and pink orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social rooms followed by a dance in the Lehman Fire Hall.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Corning N.Y.; going away the bride wore light blue suit and white accessories.

Mrs. Long attended Lake Noxen High School. Mr. Long graduated from Westmoreland High School. He is employed by the Ray Major Sunoco Service Station in Kingston. The couple will reside in Shavertown.

Joan Warmouth Becomes Bride Of William White On Saturday

At a very pretty wedding, Saturday, at 2 p.m., Joan Warmouth, daughter of Mrs. Elva Warmouth, Huntsville, became the bride of William White, son of Mr. and Mrs. James White of Wilkes-Barre. Rev. C. H. Frick performed the double ring ceremony, assisted by Rev. Franklin Payne, cousin of the bridegroom of Pittsburgh.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dale, wore floor length gown of white satin and Chantilly lace styled with boat neckline, tight bodice with long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist and full skirt with train. Her finger tip veil fell from a bell boy cap trimmed with pearls and she carried a heart shaped bouquet of white and blue carnations.

Mrs. Harold Weaver, matron of honor, chose street length dress of white embroidered with blue; low neckline and three quarter length sleeves. She carried blue and white African daisies.

Little flower girls Melinda and Renae Warmouth, nieces of the bride, wore blue nylon embroidered organza over taffeta and carried baskets of blue and white flowers.

Mrs. Warmouth, mother of the bride, selected street dress of champagne lace white accessories and snouder bouquet of white orchids, and Mrs. White, mother of bride, blue lace, matching accessories and white orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors and the couple left for Virginia. On their return they will reside with the bride's mother at Huntsville.

Entertain For Departing Instructor

Saturday a Dallas resident who served as an instructor in Wilkes College Art Department this past year was the surprised guest of honor at a fare well party held by a few of admiring students. Kent Kirby, Machell Ave., accompanied by his wife Lynn, and two children, is leaving Wilkes to accept another position at Alma College, Alma, Michigan.

The Kirby's were presented with an electric coffee pot with an inscription which will never let him forget his friends and students at Wilkes. The inscription reads, "A primed canvas, a cup of coffee, and thee." Mr. Kirby, one of the most popular instructors among the students, will be greatly missed, to say the least along with "Bug", his great dane, who accompanied him to classes.

Seven Who Will Get Their Diplomas In Denver

These are the seven members of the graduating class of Dallas Senior High School who will not be present for the annual Commencement exercises because they will be with the Key Club Drill Team in Denver where they will appear at

Tuesday night they were at a special Commencement program in the school auditorium where Rev. Jule Ayers, of First Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre spoke. Rev. Robert Yost of Shavertown Methodist Church gave the Invocation and Benediction. The boys marched into the Auditorium past an honor guard composed of Keyettes. They were similarly honored as they marched out.

Members of the faculty, class advisors and representatives of Kiwanis Club and School Board were seated on the platform during the services. The boys will be given their diplomas in Denver.
