Bowlers Entertain Families At Montrose

Shavertown A team, Church Bowling League, and their families were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mannear at their summer home, in South Montrose. In the group were: Captain and Mrs. "Bill" Rood, Peggy, Pam and Pat, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thomas, Bobby and Jo Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Faye Hopkins and Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Jim Risky, Tom Heslop, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fritzes, David, Gerald, Larry Bonnie and twins Diane and Donald, Billie Kingsburg, Johnny and Charlene Mannear, and the host and hostess.

Saturday afternoon, the mothers and daughters attended an auction at Camptown, where they made several purchases, and in the evening the fathers and sons motored to Five Mile Point, N.Y., to see the stock car races.

A covered dish supper was served Saturday and a cook-out Sunday was climaxed with a softball game between the fathers and sons.

The young people enjoyed a full day mow and three lovely riding horses.

Irem Women Golfers

Mrs. George Dean made a clean sweep of the weekly women's golf events at Irem Temple Country Club Friday by winning the "Flag Tournament" and the Putting Prize.

A "Member Member" Tournament will be played this Friday. Those wishing to participate are to register for the event.

On Sunday Mrs. George Dean sank her approach shot on the 18th hole for a birdie. This hole is a long par 4.

Solicitation For Library Auction Launched In Earnest

The Library Auction solicitation committee shifted into high gear this week, at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Carlton Davies, general solicitation chairman. Theme for this year's Auction is "Bigger and Better Than Ever", and the committees, are determined to really launch this 16th Auction into orbit!

Twenty-six area charmen and workers were entertained by Mrs. Davies and her co-chairman on Thursday, June 7th. Plans were made to blanket the Back Mt. from Trucksville to Sweet Valley with posters and solicitors, in an all out effort to fill Howard Risley's barn to capacity with Auction material.

The Sweet Valley Area is being covered by Mrs. Edward Speary, who informs us that the area has not been canvassed before. We are delighted to have them participate, and will be most happy to assist them in house cleaning their attic's and sampling their culinary arts.

Weeks of solicitation has been designated from June 18th to 23rd. Items to be solicited will be well advertised. Donors are requested to make their own deliveries to the Auction grounds, and Risley's barn whenever possible. All books are to be taken to the Library, there to be screened and approved. Pick up of large articles will be handled again this year by Mr. Kravitz of the Commonwealth Telephone Co., and by Bill Berti. It is requested that all truck pick ups be made from June 25th to 30th if possible.

Information on solicitation may be obtained by contacting the following chairmen: Mrs. Carlton Davies, Mrs. L. W. Hauck, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Mitchell Jenkins, Mrs. J. D. Houlette, Mrs. Carl Freibel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph James, Nevel Hollow; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bonning, Canton, N.Y.; Fred Carl, Toledo Ohio; Eddie Turner, Jan's Ann Cooper, Chase; Albert Smith, and William Smith and daughter Wendy.

Hours For Reception Of New Goods At The Barn

James Alexander, chairman of New Goods for the Library Auction, announces times when the locked stall in the Barn on Lehman Avenue will be open for reception of goods: This Saturday, noon to 5 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, June 22 and 23, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Friday and Saturday June 29 and 30, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.
