RICHARD H. DEMMY
Auction Chairman

David Schooley, host to Library Auction chairmen, pauses in a conversation with co-chairman Jack Conyngham to pose for his picture.

Demmy, general chairman, holds up a Library Auction poster designed by Paul Rodda and developed in red and white over a dimmed-out background of ancient newspaper. Atty. Robert Fleming and Jack Conyngham, co-chairmen, study another poster. And at the left, Mary Parkhurst, auction secretary, smiles approvingly.

Three Library Auction co-chairmen confer Friday evening at the last formal meeting of committee chairmen before the BIG DAYS, July 5, 6 and 7. Dick

At left, E. V. Chadwick, jots down a few ideas for his plant and produce booth; James Alexander wrestles with a knotty problem in New Goods. Mrs. J. D. Houlette looks on. At right, Eleanor Rodda down at the end has a ribbon around her hair. Next to her is Mrs. Archer Mohr, Bobby Smith. Mary Frantz, chairman of antiques is next. Barbara Harding, Mrs. T. M. Hicks, librarians, Mrs. Albert Jones and Mrs. Dana Crump, Mrs. Allen Mon-

tross and Mrs. Howard Wiley, Jr. Continuing clockwise around the table are Howard Wiley, Jr., Mrs. Richard O. Myers, Mrs. Ziba L. Smith, Sr., Mr. Smith, Stefan Hellersperk, Mrs. James Besecker, Jr., Nancy Kozemchak, Mrs. Dean Johnson, Philip vanBlarcom, Mrs. Homer Moyer, Mr. Moyer.
