

Honored

DONALD F. STOCK

Donald F. Stock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stock, Main Street, Dallas, was made a Fellow of the American Ceramic Society recently at a dinner given in Pittsburgh.

A graduate of Kingston Township High School in the Class of 1941.

Mr. Stock is with Harbison-Walker Refractories Co. in Pittsburgh. He is a member of the Refractories Division and the National Institute of Ceramic Engineers.

Mr. Stock attended Pennsylvania State University and received a B.S. degree in ceramic technology in 1949. After graduation he joined Harbison-Walker as a research engineer. He was named administrative assistant to the director of research in 1951 and laboratory manager of the company's Hays Laboratory in 1954.

Mr. Stock, who has held the position of laboratory manager of the Garber Research Center since 1958, supervises the work of a staff of 70.

His certificate reads as follows: "The American Ceramic Society upon the recommendation of the Fellows and the action of the Board of Trustees has conferred upon DONALD F. STOCK in recognition of productive scholarship in ceramic science and notable contributions to the ceramic arts and industry the title of FELLOW OF THE SOCIETY with all the honors and privileges pertaining thereto."

After his graduation from Kingston Township High School where he was an outstanding student, Mr. Stock spent one and a half years at Pennsylvania State University. His student career, interrupted by World War II, he became a First Lieutenant in the Army Air Corps, serving for four years and one month as an instructor on highly technical work.

After the war he completed his education at Pennsylvania State. He has since taken advanced work. He is married to an Ohio girl. They have no children.

Mrs. Fred Howell
Loses Her Brother

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Fred Howell, secretary of Back Mountain Memorial Library Association, whose brother Ripley Carey Smith, 71, 2172 Chestnut Street, Carlsbad, Cal., died Wednesday at the Naval Hospital in San Diego.

Born in Scranton, he grew up in West Pittston, and Wilkes-Barre, and for many years was a certified public accountant in Scranton.

He was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and Hamilton College and for a time taught science at the Peddie School in New Jersey.

He was a direct descendant of Eleazer Cary, a Revolutionary soldier of West Bridgewater, Mass., who settled in Wilkes-Barre in 1769 and was entitled to land laid out by the Susquehanna Company. His two sons were in the Battle of Wyoming.

Mr. Smith was a World War I veteran, past commander Scranton Commandery, Knights Templar and a member of Irem Temple.

Besides his wife the former Helen Huff, Dunmore, he leaves a son Sheldon Field Smith, Vista, Cal., three grandchildren and his sister Mrs. Howell.
