

Library Auction Highlights

The little bean bag clown dollies that were so popular at Mrs. Arthur Newman's doll booth were made by Mrs. Emma L. Schweitzer of Wyoming R. D. 3. She brought two dozen of them to the Auction Committee, completely unsolicited, a few days before the auction opened.

Like Times Square, if a complete stranger stays at the Auction long enough he'll meet someone he knows. It was so with Ed Fisher, WNAK announcer, who has been in this territory only a short time. He met an old friend, Doc. Les Jordan whom he hadn't seen in seven years.

An interested front row bidder on Friday was Marla Gitterman, Hollywood, California, attending the Auction for the first time. Her husband is studio director for Dallas Studios. She is spending some time with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Peterson, at Harveys Lake. Mr. Peterson is the youngest representative of Lone Star Cement Company in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. James Healey made a special stop off for the Auction en route from Nova Scotia to Virginia. Jim was for a number of years foreman at L. L. Richardson's Dodge Agency. He and Mrs. Healey have been living in Nova Scotia for the past few years.

It was good to see Grace Lee back in the ticket booth once more. Grace and her husband, the late Charles Lee, were among the founders of the Library and the Auction. She was on the administrative staff of Mt. Vernon Seminary in Washington, D. C. last year.

Stalwart supporters of the Auction are Mrs. Lewis Buckman, Mrs. Alan Kirby, Miss Fannie Chase and Miss Patience Carr. They attended the session on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Samuel Warriner also came down from Montrose to take part in the bidding on Friday afternoon.

Old timers are saddened to recall that it was just ten years ago on the opening day of the Auction that the late beloved Dr. Sherman Schooley was stricken with a heart attack while calling on a patient within sight of the Auction. He was taken to General Hospital in an ambulance, protesting all the way: "I've gotta go to the Auction tonight." He died July 29, 1952, at the age of 53.

Up from Harrisburg as usual for the whole show was Mrs. Daniel Robinhold. Lola and her whole family served for so many years at the Refreshment Booth that Dan and Judy practically grew up there.

Keith Yeisley Wins Merited Promotion

Keith Yeisley, 24, youngest sales representative of the Lily Tulip Cup Corporation for twenty northeastern Pennsylvania counties, has been promoted on merit to sales representative in the Baltimore, Md. area and will move there with his family in September.

Grandson of Mrs. Maude and the late Warren Yeisley, Luzerne County Court Stenographer for many years, Keith is a graduate of Westmore-High School Class of 1956.

He has been active in community life serving as secretary and team manager in the Back Mountain Church League; team manager in Both will be married this year. Danny is now a second-year student at Johns Hopkins Medical School. As an undergraduate at Cornell he rowed on the famous crew that competed at the Thames Regatta in England.

Little League and manager of an Eighth Grade team of boys in the K of C. League. He is also active in the Toastmaster's Club.

Keith is married to the former Marilyn Conden of Dallas. They have three girls and two boys.

He has been with Lily Tulip Corporation for the past eight months. For a time he was employed by Evans Drug Store.

Consultant

JOHN L. KROGULSKI

Appointment of John L. Krogulski to the newly created position of communications consultant was announced today by Commonwealth

Telephone Company president, Andrew J. Sordani Jr.

In this post, Krogulski will be available as a consultant on more efficient telephone communications to all business subscribers in Commonwealth Telephone's ten district service area. As such, he will, upon request, study, engineer and recommend telephone facilities designed to meet the specific requirements of commercial, industrial and institutional users.

President Sordani said that Commonwealth's objective is to make known the technological advances telephony has to offer area business to handle today's highly competitive commerce faster, more efficiently and more profitably.

Mr. Krogulski's services are available to all subscribers in a continuing company-wide program directed to providing the type and quality of service desired, fully equal to its metropolitan counterpart.

His appointment follows several months of intensive training in all aspects of efficient internal and external business telephone communication systems.

Mr. Krogulski has been associated with Commonwealth since December 1948, first as a cable splicer, installer and, since, May 1957, as central office switchman in its Bangor district. Prior to this, he worked since April 1944 for Sordani Construction Company's Electric and Telephone Line Division as a lineman.

For two and one-half years Krogulski served as a Corporal in the U.S. Marines stationed a great part of this period in Hawaii. He returned to the Marines as a Sergeant for one year in September 1950.

At present, Mr. Krogulski, wife, Jennie, and children, Judith Ann and Kenneth, reside at Wind Gap.
