JACKSON TOWNSHIP

The good wishes of our community go with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lashford when they leave to take residence near Philadelphia. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lashford will be greatly missed. Both were active in church and community affairs. For nine years he was President of Lake-Lehman Jackson School Board and also a member of Jackson Township School Board. Mrs. Lashford was active in Huntsville Methodist Church as well as in church affairs in general.

Mrs. Earl Balliett, Earline Balliett of Chase Road and Mabel Balliett of Wilkes Barre traveled with a group from St. Stephan's Episcopal Church to 'Freedom Land U.S.A.' in New York followed by dinner at 'Catherine Murphy's' at Winchester, N. Y., one of the most famous of restaurants on the East Coast. This restaurant has its own unique flower garden and hot house besides serving delicious meals.

Mr. and Mrs. James Driscoll and Mrs. Charles Cigarski are home from a week's vacation at Miami Beach. On their return trip they picked up, Charles Cigarski, Jr., at Fort Gordon in Georgia. He will spend a fourteen-day leave here after which he will return to Columbia, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Balliett will move to their newly purchased home on the Steele Road before the end of this month. Mrs. Balliett celebrated her birthday on Monday, July 16.

Chief of Police and Mrs. Robert Cooper have returned from a vacation trip having visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Piccini of Cleveland Heights, Ohio and other points of interest in Ohio, Virginia and West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jeffery have laid out their farmland adjacent to Chase Manor in building lots.

This correspondent had a lively experience on the way to work last week when a bee entered the car window and made his presence known with a lot of dive bombing. Managed to get the car stopped and was fortunate that there were no cars coming in the opposite direction as I did some zig zagging before I was able to dispose of the bee. I escaped unscathed.

Jane, Susan and Paul, Jr., children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Salansky are recovering from the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Gable had a house full of company for Sunday dinner, when their children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gable, of Johnstown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gable of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. George Gable of Fernbrook, with their children were their guests.

BETTER CONSERVE IT

The slight rainfall of the weekend, while welcomed did very little to relieve the drought in our area. Trees on the Chase side of Larksville Mountain are changing color prematurely. Common sense dictates that those who are dependent upon well water, conserve it as much as possible, because the old saying "You don't miss the water until the well goes dry" is not idle talk. Here the innocent as well as the guilty suffer equally.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes, Chase Manor, announce the birth of a grandson to Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Carpenter at Mississippi Baptist Hospital, Jackson, Miss. on July 2. Kenneth Charles weighed 7 lbs. 12 oz. Kenneth has three brothers, Jeffery, David and Timothy. Mrs. Carpenter is the former Dorothy L. Hughes, a registered nurse, graduate of General Hospital. Mr. Carpenter is on the legal staff of California Oil Company, with offices in Jackson, Mississippi. Mrs. Hughes has been with her daughter since the third week in June.

School Millage in Ross Township has been raised from 65 to 90 Mills. When the final approval of the Lake-Lehman Budget came up for a vote, three directors from Ross voted against it.

Lake-Lehman Board has gone on record as favoring a standard classing for all future classes. This will save much student and teacher time each year in making selections. In all instances the student deals directly with the representative of the ring company furnishing the rings and the ring company is wholly responsible for collecting for the purchase.

Harry Moat, Jr., C.P.A. has been appointed to audit the books of Lake-Lehman School for the fiscal year 1961-62.

Mrs. Elva Elston has been hired as High School Secretary at a salary of $2200.00 per year.

'Everts Reunion' was held at Rummages Grove on Sunday with 75 persons in attendance. Hendrick Cease, age 86, received the prize for oldest man and Mrs. Alfred Everts, 77, Corning, N. Y., the prize for oldest woman. During the reunion, a near-drowning almost occurred when a young man sank in the pool and was pulled out by his father who jumped in fully clothed to rescue him.

After some fast work on the part of an off-duty State trooper using his first aid knowledge he was revived, placed in a car, and rushed to the hospital. A call had been placed with the Schickshinny ambulance but it arrived right after the car left.
