Wayne Moss, will leave soon to attend Officer's Training School at Lackland Airforce Base, Texas.

Rev. and Mrs. Hugh G. Klinetob, and daughter, Elaine, Nanticoke, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn C. Klinetob and daughter, Susan, Middleport, N. Y., were guests Tuesday of their aunt, Bess Klinetob. The evening was spent in observance of Lynn's birthday and was then observed with a family dinner at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Klinetob, Afton, N. Y. Prior to visiting here the Lynn Klinetob family spent time with Mr. and Mrs. Arle Klinetob, at Hilltown. They were joined in Afton by Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Klinetob, Endicott. Former local residents, Rev. Hugh, Lynn, Arle and Lacey are the sons of Rev. and Mrs. Corey B. Klinetob, Afton. This was the first in several years that the four brothers were able to visit with each other.

Mrs. Edith Ross and daughters, Barbara and Phyllis, Broadway, are enjoying an extended tour of the Southern states. Barbara and Phyllis are students at Lake Lehman, and Mrs. Ross is employed in the School cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Udyke and sons, Merwin, Allan, Duane and Bryan, have returned from a camping trip, taking them through West Virginia, Maryland, Virginia and Carolina. The family camped at the Blue Ridge Parkway, Big Meadows, Shenandoah National Park, Peaks of Otter, Daughton Park, and Crofters Meadows. A highlight of the trip was a tour of the McKinley mines and Luray Caverns. The Cyrus McCormick Farms and the Mabrey Griss mill, rides, movies and talks given by Rangers were enjoyed each night. The Udykes only daughter, one year old, Jonine Louise, was the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Udyke, while the other members of the family were away.

Richard N. Stroud, Mooretown, is home after being a patient at Nanticoke State Hospital.

Rev. and Mrs. James Garrahan and sons, Timmy, Tommy, Stevie and Johnny have returned to their home at Pikes Creek after two weeks at World's End, where they had rented a farm home. While there, they had as guests for one week, Rev. and Mrs. John Garrahan and daughters, Kathy and Ruthie, Puckahoe, New Jersey, and Craig Bond, Springville, N. Y. Rev. James Garrahan won a trophy for the main event at the Hughesville Cart and quarter midget track, July 29.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gilman, Wilkes-Barre spent a few days last week with their son-in-law and daughter, Pastor and Mrs. William G. Hughes.

Little League picnic will be held August 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans, Broadway.

Mt. Zion

Early Sunday morning the Edward Miles family returned from their fishing trip in Canada. Our girls reported that they attended church at Mt. Zion and the cooler with Billy Miles' fish still in it was in the car, and our girls saw the fish. They reported that they were huge things — so-o-o long, you know. And they reported, too, that Billy had learned to water-ski and now wants a boat and skis! (He could use our pond when it fills up again!)

We were pleased to have Marian Parrish of Beaumont drive in Sunday afternoon for a visit. She had visited her former home in Carverton, and George Parrishes, Russell and Blanche Lewis, Mrs. Frieda Krum and then us.

I missed hearing my young friend Charles Johns preach at Mt. Zion last Sunday. Reports were that it was another good sermon, well delivered. You see, I was preaching at Larksville and Plymouth last Sunday. At Plymouth I was asked by the Men's Sunday School Class to tell them about Valley Crest from a chaplain's eye view. Which I was happy to do.

On Sunday our road had considerable travel, probably by people who were to see how it was getting along. We made the trip ourselves the other evening after the workmen had left. It is beginning to take shape. Quite a lot of sluices and ditches yet to be built, but not too much scraping and filling I guess. A few rocks yet to be blasted out. We are glad that the blacktop is completed from Sandsdale Farm up to Howard Crum's.

Probably the people who travel a short distance on this road of ours more than anybody else are the Leon Emanuels. They are moving a little bit at a time to their other home where the Greenlands used to live, across from Wesley Lewis'. Jean Emanuel says she's going to get everything in the other house all done to suit them before moving in. Well, must be things are getting done, for they take a few things up every few days — or minutes!

Mrs. Mildred James, a Pittston friend now working for a family in Wyoming, dropped in for a few minutes last Sunday. She wanted to get a few of Catherine's flowers to take to her sick lady.

Last week the Charles Banks family were up for another of their good visits. Charles and Edna and daughter Christine. What a household of fun and good common sense they are!

Also, the Charles Collins family from Wyoming were up for a visit. Charles and Mildred and four lovely children. Collins needs to get out for a friendly drive once in a while. His work in connection with the Wyoming Valley Council of Churches and also the Tri-county Migrant Council keep him on the go.

Our neighbor, Harold Harris, was out wheeling his young grandchild, one-and-a-half year old bouncer Jeffrey Harris from Delaware. This seems to be full of "git-up-and-git" and is sure to give his grandparents plenty of excitement.

At the Orange church last week the W. S. C. S. presented to the church for use on the Pulpit Bible a beautiful red cloth with hand work embroidered on it, letters IHS, done by Mrs. Paula Horan.

Also it should be noted that the amplifier system at the Orange church has been repaired and is in use again.

Well, I was going by Ernie Gay's house and saw a lot of cars there. So I called up to see if they didn't think sister Jean would like to know what had been going on. It seems that the Bards and Gays were having a cook-out and Ernie was doing the honors. Nothing got burnt! Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gay were over from across the street.

Birthday greetings this week to Mrs. Ralph Davis, Mrs. Byron

And from Kingston there was Mrs. John R. Hughes; and from up the road Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird, Barry, Marjorie and Arthur. It is safe to assume they all had a glorious time together.

Mary L. Lewis Bible Class held its monthly class party at Mrs. Ray Mullison's. The business meeting was conducted by president Mrs. Ezra Rozelle. Plans for a bake sale in the Fall were discussed.

Present were: Ida Monhennett, Jennie Smith, Muriel Rozelle, Mary Lewis, Lucy Howell, Evadne Decker, Sallie VanTuyke, Emma Masters, Frieda Krum, Blanche Lewis, Gertrude Perry, Becky Monk, Ida Mullison.

Mrs. Howard Krum up at our corner tells me that her cousin, Mrs. Frances Aldrup, a retired oral school teacher of Omaha, Nebraska spent a week with her not long ago.

Last week Tuesday morning Dorothy and I finally got her overseas luggage packed, crated and shipped by express to New York, six heavy pieces. Howard Dymond trucked it to Wilkes-Barre.

Last Tuesday afternoon we had a pleasant time when friends from Maine, N. Y., drove down to see us, especially to see Dorothy again before her departure. They were Mr. and Mrs. Coburn Young, Mrs. W. B. Tymeson and Mrs. Ethel Steinberg.

OUR ROAD

I will not be responsible for anything that happens to anybody who attempts to drive the full length of our road! It's rough, getting rougher before it will get smoother. Yes, it's "open" in a general sort of way. Be patient, we say to ourselves, it's going to be wonderful when it is done. The road from Sandsdale Farms up to our corner is getting right ready — and by the time of publication may be receiving its blacktop. The road from the parsonage over to the Russell Lewis place I'm not prepared to describe, just progressing!
