Bids Opened At Meeting Of Dallas Directors

Extension Sought Of Bus Route In Carverton Region

Prior to opening of bids by Dallas school directors Tuesday evening, a number of residents of Church Road, Carverton, inquired about a possible extension of bus service to eliminate walking from homes to a central point for pick-up.

Appearing were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Szczechowicz, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vasello, S. Hilstolsky, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cybulski, and Mr. and Mrs. William Richards.

Superintendent Dr. Robert A. Mellman explained that one such bending of the rules governing bus transportation would lead to further relaxation as other groups of parents brought pressure to bear.

Tight bus schedules forbid any extension, said Dr. Mellman, but the matter would be referred to the transportation committee.

The superintendent recommended that Lake-Lehman be permitted to use Dallas High School athletic field for its football games September 29, October 20 and 27, and November 3. Lake-Lehman field will not be ready for use this fall.

Routine business was cut to the bone to permit opening of bids for purchase of supplies and services.

Thomas E. Reese was low bidder for coal, rice $11.35; buckwheat $11.60; pea $12.60.

Kenneth Koehler was low for removal of garbage from Dallas Senior High School, Berti and Sons for hauling of ashes from all buildings except Senior High School.

Paul Shaver was low for classroom lighting at Westmoreland with his bid of $1,672.60 for six rooms. J. A. Singer was low with $300 bid for cleaning of septic tanks.

Remington-Rand got the contract for servicing of thirty-eight typewriters at the Junior High School, $218.15.

Purchase of a pick-up truck, bringing widely divergent bids, was referred to a committee.

Activities accounts of Dallas School District showed a balance of $2,164.95; of Dallas Senior High $3,002.90; Dallas Junior High School, $2,768.70. Teachers Association showed a balance of $477.79.

Treasurer's Report, submitted by W. B. Jeter as of August 1, showed $6,756.97 balance.

Oscar Whitesell's Classmates Help Him Celebrate Birthday

The family of Oscar Whitesell, Hunlock Creek, R. D. helped him celebrate his seventieth birthday anniversary Saturday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wright Bencosoter.

Oscar was called by phone to the Bencosoter home and upon arriving, was greeted with, "Happy Birthday". He recognized familiar voices, those of former Overbrook school mates, Grant Longenecker, Lansing, Mich., Charles Timperlake, York, and Percy Berringer, Wilkes-Barre.

The party table was attractive with centerpiece of pink and white mums and tall pink tapers. A delightful evening of reminiscing was enjoyed.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Grant Longenecker, Mrs. Robert Kitch, Danny, Susan, Ellen and Jimmy, Lansing; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Timperlake, York; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Whitesell, Bobby, Goodloe, the Whitesells and the Bencosoters.

Soon after guests arrived, Jacob Bausch, a former teacher of Philadelphia, ill at the time, called, sang greetings and visited with all the boys. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hienneball and son of Wilkes-Barre, dropped in on Sunday and had lunch with the crowd. Mr. Henneball is a talented musician, organist and choir leader in St. Leo's Church, Ashley for over forty years. Oscar is busy pursuing his piano tuning profession.

Out of town guests are staying with the Whitesells and Bencosoters.

Border Collies Thrill Spectators At Tunkhannock's Sheep Field Day

BY CHARLES HEMENWAY

Annual Sheep Field Day was held Saturday at Tunkhannock on N.E. P.A. grounds.

It has been the privilege of the writer to attend all of the Field Days of the Sheep men and women and children of the North Eastern Area of the State and this was most interesting of them all.

About 200 interested people including breeders were present, coming from five counties and bordering New York counties. One new feature is the Health Rule. All sheep exhibited must be certified by the Bureau of Animal Industry to be free of disease. This can be done through the local veterinarian but must be done at least thirty days before the show.

There were approximately 75 sheep shown from eight breeds.

Some of the interesting features included a demonstration of market lamb grading by a professional market grader with a question and answer period.

A demonstration on how to fit and show sheep by Carroll Shaffner, shepherd at Penn State University, who judged the show, was the crowning feature of the day. There was a demonstration by Mr. Shaffner's Border Collie dogs in controlling a flock of sheep. These three dogs, Ray Lassie, Queenie, all imported from Scotland, have been showing in demonstrations over the United States at fairs and exhibits and can be seen working at the Farms of Penn State University at State College.

A new feature at Tunkhannock was a lunch bar where lamb sandwiches and coffee, milk and soft drinks could be had. The lamb was roasted and delicious.

Even if you don't have sheep, plan to attend the Field Day next year for a good time.

Players List Biggest Thrills

Monday and Tuesday the Little League All-Stars were having a take-it-easy practice at the field on Church Street. Manager Bill Sponseller said: "Practically everyone of these guys is a potential hitter. That's what we're working on today and tomorrow, just hitting. The infield can take care of itself."

At practice the boys were in good spirits, and not nervous about today's game at Medford. When asked how many felt like going on to the major leagues, there wasn't a "no" in the bunch.

Comments:

Question: How are you looking forward to the game against Massachusetts?

Cook: "We're gonna scob 'em."

Kern: "Two more games won."

Morris: "I think we'll win."

Question: What did you think of the parade the Back Mountain gave you Saturday after the game?

Burkhardt: "The parade was real neat."

Szela: "It was great."

Jenkins: "I liked riding on the fire engine."

Parry: "It was a lot more than I expected."

Question: What was your greatest thrill in Little League baseball this year?

Dubil: "The Kingston game, when I hit a homer, bottom of the 6th, 2 outs and a full count."

Townsend: "My slide at second base against Phoenixville."

Jones: "Pulling Lewistown's homer out of the air, bottom of the 6th."

Fox: "Catching the fly at Old Forge in the 6th."

Long: "When we won the championship Saturday."

Martin: "When Ed and I had the only hits against Phoenixville."

Sponseller: "Coaching third base, when Kingston passed a ball, and I sent Jones home."

Power Interrupted

Interruptions of power in Shavertown Tuesday morning affected a considerable area of Dallas. The first occurred at 6:30, lasted for 53 minutes. The second came at 8 a.m. and lasted eleven minutes. Electric clocks, set buzzing again after the first stoppage, stopped so briefly the second time the interruption was not noticed, and many residents were behind schedule all day. United Gas Improvement reports the cause as storm damage.

Have You Heard about Mortgage Protection Insurance?

When there's a mortgage on your home, one of your chief duties is to see that those important monthly installments are paid on time. When you're disabled (maybe for months) and CANT EARN, who's going to make those mortgage payments for you? In such an emergency, wouldn't it be a comfort to have your insurance company "pick up the tab" for your monthly installments during the time when you're disabled? Our Disability Income policy can provide monthly benefits which are equal to the amount of your mortgage installments. May we explain just how this plan works?
