

EIGHT NEW TEACHERS ADDED TO LAKE-LEHMAN FACULTY

Lake-Lehman faculty has eight new teachers. Seven former teachers have left to accept positions elsewhere.

New teachers are Agnes Biscotti, Lois DelKanic, Mrs. Ruth Patton, Mrs. Nancy Smartt, Mrs. Jane Cornell, Dolores Nardone, Kenneth Maciak, and Mary Ann Foley. Three are local girls.

Lois DelKanic, Harveys Lake, graduate of Lake-Noxen and Bloomsburg State College, will teach fifth grade at Ross.

Mrs. Ruth Patton, Noxen, graduate of Lake-Noxen and Mansfield State College, will teach first and second grades at Noxen elementary school.

Mrs. Jane Cornell, Sweet Valley, graduate of Kingston High School and Kutztown State College, with a degree in Art Education, will teach art at Lake-Lehman High School.

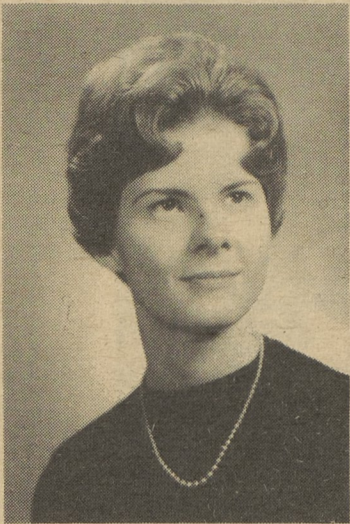

Dolores Nardone, Wilkes-Barre, a graduate of Meyers High School and College Misericordia, a member of Sigma Phi Sigma National Honor Society, will teach commercial courses at senior high school.

Kenneth Joseph Maciak, Clark Summit, a graduate of Newton-Ransom joint school and East Stroudsburg State College, will teach boy's health and physical education.

Mary Ann Foley, Kingston, a graduate of Kingston High School and Wilkes College, will teach senior high school English.

Agnes Biscotti, Springfield, Mass., graduate from the Classical High School and New England Conservatory in Boston, will be the elementary supervisor in music.

Mrs. Nancy Smartt, West Pittston, graduate of Whitingham High School and Castleton Teachers College in Vermont, will teach first grade at Ross Elementary.
