Captains Named For YWCA Drive

Mrs. Krimmel And Mrs. Lull Generals

Mrs. William Krimmel, Overbrook Avenue, and Mrs. Lyman Lull, College Manor, Generals of the Back Mountain area of the Membership Drive of Wilkes-Barre YMCA, announce the following Captains and their territories:

Dallas Borough — Mrs. Charles Maxwell, Circle Drive; Dallas Township—Elmcrest, Mrs. James Aikens, Elmcrest Drive; New Goss Manor — Mrs. Ted Maxwell, 36 Grandview Ave., Dallas; Old Goss Manor, Mrs. Jack Stanley, 131 E. Center Hill Road, Dallas; Overbrook and Huntsville Roads and Chase Corners — Mrs. Paul Mulvey, Overbrook Ave., Dallas; Oak Hill — Mrs. Thomas Smith, Oak Hill, Idetown; Shavertown — Mrs. Franklin Dymond, 52 Perrin Ave.; Shavertown and Trucksville — Mrs. Richard Mathers, 112 Carverton Road, Trucksville.

The 1962-63 Enrollment Drive is personalized by these women who will call for membership renewals and who will be inviting others in this community to join the YWCA. Many persons in the Back Mountain area have heard of the Homemakers' Holiday Program held in the Town and Country YMCA Building and Shavertown Methodist Church every Tuesday morning from September to May. Any newcomers to the community who wish information should feel free to contact any of the women who are participating in the Membership Drive. The Membership Enrollment Drive will be completed September 18, which is the first day of Program for Homemakers' Holiday.

Brent Stanley Post Guest At Birthday Party

Brent Stanley Post, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Post, Main Road, Sweet Valley, was guest, August 22, on his third birthday. Nancy Drapiewski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Drapiewski, baked a birthday cake in the form of a large rocking horse, complete with chocolate saddle and licorice tail. Helping with Brent's celebration were his brother, Henry, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ray and children, Barry, Kevin, Brooke and Graceann, Brent and his parents.

Deborah Lynne Belles

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belles, Jr., 96 Zoa Ave., Johnson City, announce the birth of a daughter, Deborah Lynne, August 2 in General Hospital. She weighed 7 lbs and 7 oz.

Mrs. Belles is the former Lynne Carol Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Watkins, Kingston. Mr. Belles is son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Belles, Roushey St., Fernbrook. The baby is the first grandchild on both sides.

First Year At Nesbitt

Embarking upon nurses training Thursday at Nesbitt Hospital were five local girls: Joan Fielding, of Shavertown; Carol Toluba and Donna Wright, Dallas; Donna Lord and Dorothy Niezegoda, Hunlock Creek.

Rebecca Jayne Cragle Marries Edward Lech Of Schickshinny

Rebecca Jayne Cragle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cragle, Hunlock Creek, married Edward Lech, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lech, Sr., Schickshinny, at the home of Leonard Harvey, Woodlawn Drive, August 25 at 1 p. m.

The bride chose lace and nylon street length dress with shoulder veil attached to crown of iridescents and pearls. She wore a white orchid. Linda Cragle was her sister's maid of honor. She selected embroidered beige sheath dress with matching accessories. Her shoulder bouquet was of green carnations.

Writer Benscoter, Jr., was best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Benscoter home where supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Arden McMichael, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols, Mrs. George Wesley, Dorinda, Mrs. Herman Fink and family, Mrs. John Hardiman and family, Mr. and Mrs. William John Lech, Sr., Stella, Mr. and Mrs. John Lech, Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lech, Ozzie, Mrs. Cecil Lech, Mrs. Helen Lech, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cragle and family, Denise Whitesell, Mr. and Mrs. Benscoter and the bride and groom. The bridegroom is employed at the Country Cousins Shoe, Inc., Mocaqua.

E. Sandel Hunt Of California, Formerly Of Dallas To Marry

E. Sandel Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sandel C. Hunt, LaHabra, Calif., formerly of Dallas, will be married September 9 to Peggy Hardesty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hardesty, Yorba Linda Blvd., California. Miss Hardesty is a graduate of Verna Miller's School of Modeling, in Santa Ana, Cal. She was Miss Princess Telephone in the 1960 Silverade Day parade, Buena Park, and was contestant in the Miss Yorba Linda beauty contest in 1961 Pioneer Day celebration. She is presently employed as secretary for-

American Electronics, Incorporated, in Fullerton, Calif.

Mr. Hunt is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and Dean School of Business. He majored in Electrical Engineering at the University of Arizona, where he was a member of the Junior Men's Honor Society and was president of Arcadia Fraternity. He received his Bachelor of Law degree at LaSalle University in Chicago and is employed at American Electronics as a Reliability Engineer.

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Duda and sons, Ted and David, Prince George, Va., spent last week in Dallas visiting Mr. Duda's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Duda, Pine View Ave., his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Duda, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Steele and Mrs. Frank Howatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dwyer, Clearwater, Florida, are spending two weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bulford, Sutton Road, Trucksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fitch, Huntsville Road, spent the weekend at Cape Cod as neighbors of the Harry Smiths, vacationing there.

Mrs. Arthur Keefer, Machel Avenue, submitted to surgery at General Hospital over the weekend. She will not be in her beauty shop for a while.

Mrs. Alice Snyder and children Bobby, Jacqueline, Larry and Susan, Church St., Dalean, have returned after spending two weeks visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. James Kern and family at Fort Meade, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Culp, Huntsville spent the weekend with the Kerns, bringing the Snyder's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Eggleston, Vernon, entertained members of their club and families at a picnic at their Harveys Lake summer home recently. There were 28 guests.
