minimally, 45 minutes. Having been in this country only a little time, Nancy does not know yet what to expect. She receives advice and itineraries from everyone she meets. America, like her native Australia, is a very big parcel to digest in just a little time. Already signs of brother-sister palaver pop out when she and the Lacy children talk. Carolyn Lacy will attend Wyoming Seminary this fall, so the young folk will travel back and forth together. Mr. Lacy is an architect, and his home is both beautiful and imaginative, so Nancy will enjoy fine surroundings. On her return trip next year, she hopes to stop in England and, may-be, France. This is her first time out of Australia, but Nancy has always wanted to visit France. Her mother studied there for some

In the meantime, the Back Mountain welcomes this fine young visitor with all its heart.

Many youngsters are required to show birth certificates to verify their age before they can play on Little League teams. The need for birth certificates for obtaining passports for travel abroad and for obtaining new employment were given as other possible major factors in the June rise. Dr. Bailey said that approximately 322,000 certified copies were issued during fiscal 1961, ending June 30an increase of more than 10 per cent over the number requested in fiscal 1960.
