Lake Mail Carrier ON KING FOR A DAY PROGRAM ON CBS

King for a Day program on CBS last Thursday gave viewers in the Back Mountain a big thrill, when Warren Johnson, rural mail-carrier at Harveys Lake, appeared on the screen in Hollywood. Mr. Johnson travelling with his wife and five children, said he was running short of funds, and would appreciate being King for a Day, Object money.

His claim to being King was thrown out when another man appeared on the screen, asking for assistance for a friend.

Warren is president of the PTA and a member of Harveys Lake Fire Company. He managed the Little League baseball team, is treasurer of the County Rural Letter Carriers Association, and still finds time to cover 53 miles of mail route every day, servicing 800 boxes.

He has five children ranging in age from 11 to 15. Finding that the great open spaces were hard to fill with food (kids eat more when they are travelling) he got on the T-V program to try to make a fast buck.

He won no money, but he is bringing home with him an electric razor, a power window-lift, a U.S. Mail safety signal, fishing equipment, and four new tires.

Innovations In Fall Sessions Of YWCA Bk. Mt. Homemakers Holiday

Women who attend the Back Mountain Homemakers Holiday Open House next Tuesday morning at Shavertown Methodist Church at Shavertown, will find that something new has been added to the schedule for the eight weeks fall session. In addition to art, hat-making, sewing, golf, braille, decoration, aluminum-craft, lamp shades, and bowling, three subjects are taking a bow, beginning with the opening session on September 18.

"What is an Antique?" with Mrs. Jones Evans as coordinator, will feature a number of different instructors, winding up with a luncheon engagement at Windy Valley.

"Latin-Rhythms" will be taught by William Carver, affiliated formerly with a number of name studios, who has been responsible for the upsurge in adult dancing classes at the Wilkes-Barre YWCA.

Mr. Carver will teach adults Tuesday evenings at the Shavertown YWCA building, where classes of Back Mountain Homemakers Holiday take place. It is an advantage, says Mrs. Henry Ward, for couples to register together, but the class is not limited to couples. Membership in either YMCA or YWCA, however, is required.

"Musical Plays of Broadway" taught by records, will be a morning feature, instructor and Commentator to be announced.

Mrs. George Thomas, by popular demand, will again teach millinery, and Mrs. Leonard Adamscheck Della Robia and holiday decoration.

Mrs. Ruth Darbie, Luzerne County Extension homemaker, will teach sewing, assisted by Mrs. Warren Yarnell.

Teachers of aluminum-craft and lamp-shade making will be announced.

Marion Welza will teach bridge. Mrs. Kenneth Bayliss Braille. Mrs. John Vivian will again teach art, tailoring her subject to the wishes of her students.

Mrs. George Montgomery is scheduled to teach golf, Bowling at Crown Imperial Bowling Lanes, will again be given, instructor to be announced.

There will again be a nursery for pre-school children Tuesday mornings during the eight-weeks course. Early coffee hour will be a feature each Tuesday morning, in advance of the 10 a.m. starting hour. Classes end at noon unless otherwise announced.

George Jacobs, recently returned Rotary Exchange student, will show

Noxen Trail-Blazer

The first white man to find his way into what is now Monroe Township was Marcus Blair, a soldier in the French and Indian War, who got lost in route to Easton in 1757 and somehow found his way to Bowman's Creek near Still. When he reached Harvey's Lake, of which he is considered the discoverer, he slipped and broke his leg. Later he staked out the Outlet section for himself.

things he collected during his year in the Philippines at the Open House. Prospective students are urged to bring their friends to the Open House. Registration will take place, and courses get under way the following week.

In charge of Homemakers Holiday, working with Mrs. John R. Vivian, chairman, are Mesdames William King, Harry Conway, Donald Peterson, Loren Samsel, Carl Hontz, George Jacobs, Ward Jacquish and Thomas Smith.

Three Intruders Caught

After several chickens had disappeared from the hen house on the Newberry Estate, employees set traps and captured two red foxes. A third intruder, a raccoon, was also caught in the traps.

Makes Good Progress

John Henninger, Druid Hills, is making good progress after surgery at Nesbitt Hospital, and is hoping to return home this weekend.

Harveys Lake Data

Harveys Lake is a natural Lake of drainage area 7.2 square miles. Its capacity is 23,732 square feet, or 7,733, 000 gallons. At maximum depth the lake is 102 feet, prevailing depth at 50 feet.
