MT. ZION

It was a delight to see Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jenkins and little girl visiting and attending church at Mt. Zion. Mrs. Jenkins was the former Mary Jane Thomas.

Paul and Myrtle Smith were back for a visit. Myrtle says she enjoys reading the Dallas Post all about everything going on. Says she likes this Mt. Zion column.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Cain, Easton, formerly Orange, dropped by for a chat. Don't know whether I've seen them inside of twenty years or not.

Our girls' quartet sang on Sunday: Sharon LaBar, Nadine VanTuytle, Susan LaBar, Karen Hronich, at Mt. Zion church. Then in the afternoon the girls went with our family over to Valley Crest. It fell to me to pinch-hit for a church that couldn't take the afternoon service and it was good to have some singers to help out. Dorothy played the organ. Ruth and Catherine and the girls helped with the wheel chairs.

Richard Davis, Trucksville, a member of the Navy Band in Washington D. C. sang The Lord is My Shepherd at Mt. Zion church Sunday. Although a baritone, Dick sang some high notes that made me think he was a tenor! He used to sing in the Oratorio chorus before he went into the service. It was a beautiful solo.

There was an infant baptism at the service. Cynthia Lee Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sharp was the little lady. Her mother is the former Noreen VanTuytle. There were relatives of both sides of the house on hand. Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp, David and Ann Sharp. And on the VanTuytle side beside Leon and Mildred (baby's grandparents) there was Mrs. Minnie VanTuytle, and Nadeen VanTuytle the baby's aunt, and Glenn VanTuytle the youthful uncle. Baby Cynthia smiled over Daddy's shoulder at the whole crowd.

We've been back and forth to Nesbitt Hospital this past week. Dorothy was a surgical patient for a few days.

OUR ROAD

It's getting along. The fine gravel extends now quite a ways down the road.

Mrs. Clara Gonsler began work as a nursing assistant at Valley Crest this week. I am sure she will be well received by the patients and the staff.

While calling on Dottie at Nesbitt I found Bud Perry of Mt. Zion a patient with slivers of aluminum in his arm. Coming.

CARVERTON

Last Thursday night Jack Scoble's Sunday School class put on a variety program at Valley Crest. They were delighted when I told them they would be expected to wheel the wheel chair patients to the auditorium. "That's just what we wanted to do," exclaimed Elfrida Hefft.

Jack Scoble acted as master of ceremonies and one of the patients told me afterward, "That man gave an awful good talk!" Elfrida Hefft sang, Donna Rischel did some twirling. Chuck Johns and Carol Sutton played organ and piano duet. Chuck played the flute and his friend Bob Kundreskas of Kingston the Clarinet. Others who went were Earl Wall, David Lar-mouth and Lynn McCarty. I talked with the patients the next day and they expressed themselves as much pleased with the whole performance and I was proud to tell the patients that most of them were in my church when I was pastor.

Well, last Sunday Carol Sutton played there. The people at Valley Crest were happy to see her and she helped again with the wheel chairs.
