Married Fifty-Five Years

Helen Virginia Morgan Wed To William R. Steinhauer

At a candlelight service on Saturday evening, August 25, 7:30, Helen Virginia Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Morgan, RD 1, Dallas, and William R. Steinhauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Steinhauer, RD 1, Dallas, were united in marriage in the Orange Methodist Church.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. William W. Reid. Mrs. Samuel Gardner were Nancy Hess, Dallas and Edwina Morgan, sister of the bride. Victoria Esker, Wilmington, Del., was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Charles Morgan, brother of the bride, and James Steinhauer, the bridegroom's brother. Ring bearer was Scott Steinhauer of Kingston, cousin of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white silk organza with a full chapel train. The bodice was trimmed with Chantilly lace and styled with a scoop, scalloped neckline and short sleeves. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with hand-clipped lace appliques centered with dainty blossoms. Her bouffant veil of English illusion was attached to a pearl and crystal coronet. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias. Maid of honor wore a ballerina length gown of turquoise silk organza styled with scoop neckline, short sleeves and a full flared skirt. A matching circlet of leaves with a veil complemented her outfit. Bridesmaids wore ballerina-length gowns of aqua and turquoise silk organza. They were fashioned with scoop necklines, short sleeves and full flared skirts which featured cascades of ruffles down the back. Their headresses were matching circlets of leaves with a veil. Attendants carried cascade bouquets of white and turquoise carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Morgan selected beige lace dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose blue, corsages were of white roses.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple went to Cape May, N. J., on a wedding trip. After today they will reside at 113 Orchard Road, Newark, Del.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of Westmoreland High School and will return to the University of Delaware, where they are seniors.

The former Miss Morgan was honored at a shower given by Nancy Hess on June 14. The bridegroom's parents entertained at Irem Temple Country Club following wedding rehearsal.

Mrs. Mary Ann Ashton To Be Seventy On September 15

Mrs. Mary Ann Ashton, Jackson Township, will celebrate her seventieth birthday anniversary on Saturday, September 15, with open house at her home from 1 until 5 p.m. Host and hostess will be her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ashton.

Mrs. Ashton's mother, the late Susan Ann Truscott, came to America from England, along with fourteen other Truscott emigrants, back in 1887 to join her husband, Francis who had settled in Nanticoke to work in the mines. The little group marched up Market Street to the hundredth block on East Church St. where they made their home. Within a year, Worthy John Cumberland arrived in the New York Harbor alone. He was met by the older Truscotts, taken to Nanticoke where in 1917 he married their daughter, Susan Ann.

The Cumberland's first home was in Nanticoke where William and John were born only to die within two weeks of each other as infants, afflicted with scarlet fever, then a deadly and ravaging disease. Later Mary Ann, the third child was born, also in Nanticoke, just before the family moved to a farm in Hunlock Township. There seven more children were born.

In 1917, Mary Ann married the late Washington Irving Ashton. There are six children, all living: Gladys, Irvington, N.J.; Irving, Ceastown, Jessie, Norristown, Audrey, Dallas, Albert, Jackson Township and William, Kingston; also twelve grandchildren. Mr. Ashton died in 1948.

Well and active, in spite of her seventy years, Mrs. Ashton sets a rigid pace for Charlotte and Albert who make their home with her. Daily during school months, she walks her grandchildren, Sandy and Donna, to the school bus, and is on hand again to take them home. She plants and weeds a huge vegetable garden, gathers the harvest, and cans and freezes it. She runs down to let the chickens and pigs out in the morning, feeds them, and closes the pens at dusk.

She has made beautiful quilts for all her children and also the grandchildren. She is an active member of the Jackson Methodist Church, having served as treasurer of the W.S.C.B. for fifteen years. She thoroughly loves the activity around the Jackson Fire Hall and is the first woman to report to the kitchen when they serve a turkey supper. She is no rocking chair grandma! Happy birthday, Mrs. Ashton!

Tuesday, September 11, Mr. and Mrs. Orrison Kocher, celebrated their fifty fifth wedding anniversary quietly at their home in Ruggles where they have lived their entire lives, remembering when the railroad and saw mill were active there.

Mrs. Kocher is the former Myrtle Kocher, daughter of the late Louis and Louise Major Kocher. Mr. Kocher is son of the late Marshall and Elnora Hunsinger Kocher, all of Ruggles. The couple was married in Kingston by the late Rev. L. C. Murdock, district superintendent of Wyoming Conference, and went to housekeeping on the farm where they live. Retired, they busy themselves now with a small vegetable garden and berry patch, though Mr. Kocher still carries on his duties as caretaker of Kocher Cemetery.

Both the Kochers have been avid readers of the Dallas Post for many years and through its pages have followed old timers through their entire lives.

They are members of the Lehman Grange, 819, Mr. Kocher, eighty-one on August 11, has been a member of I.O.O.F. Lodge, Lehman 712, for over fifty years, and has his gold pin. Mrs. Kocher is a member of Lady Toby Lodge of Rebekah 514, Trucksville. She is seventy-four today.

Though the Kochers have not been too well and didn't plan a wedding celebration, they did enjoy the many cards they received and the friends and neighbors who dropped in to wish them many more years of happiness together.

Mrs. Robert Huey, Wyoming Avenue, entertained at a farewell Koffe Klatch for Mrs. Robert Addison who is moving to Gausvoort, N. Y. Mrs. Addison was presented with a pin from her neighbors, Mesdames Stephen Hartman, Thomas Longmore, William Hanna, William Cutter, Wil-ard Whalen, Kenneth Cosgrove, Larry Lefko and Robert Huey. John Shortz, Newark, N. J., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Arja Brown, Shavertown.

Mrs. Joseph Adametz, Jackson Street, spent Labor Day in Atlantic City.
