

Haymarket Antiques Show And Sale On Tunkhannock Highway Saturday

Third Annual Haymarket Antiques Show and Sale is scheduled for Saturday, 10 a. m. to 6 p. m., at Evans Falls, in a level field just off Route 309, a little more than halfway between Dallas and Tunkhannock.

Station wagons with their freight of antiques will begin converging upon the field shortly after sun-up, to get wares arranged on tailboards and trestle tables well in advance of arrival of the first customers.

Attracted to the outdoor show each fall are many members of the Library Auction Antiques Committee, on the lookout for interesting pieces to buy for contribution to the July sale. One of the last outdoor sales of the season, the show always attracts a banner crowd.

Seven local dealers are among the thirty-three who will show their treasures. Schallenbergers will as usual have their favored position at the beginning of the line, directly opposite Robert Foote and Oliver Varner. Paul Cooilbaugh will have a good spot, also Bob Davis and Gene Hanley with materials from their recently face-lifted shop on the Tunkhannock Highway. (Silver Sleigh looks very nice, boys.)

Paul had half a dozen plank bottom half-back chairs displayed at Lutes Corners over the weekend. Schallenbergers will specialize in lamps, with hand painted shades, fired in Ollie's furnace.

Mr. Foote and Mr. Varner were working on some very nice round walnut tables with drop-leaves on Saturday, and Dale K. Myers, at whose place the show is located, has a lot of furniture.

Ann Parkhurst, whose Old Pine Shop is located in Trucksville, will have some nice things on display.

Kingston dealers include the Red Door, Tony Wideman, Betty Mihal, Bressler's Memory Shop, Mary Helen Hoffman, Beatrice Forve.

Frank Cooper from Wyalusing will be back again; Maynard and Olive Cole, from Sidney, N.Y.; Joselle Franck, and Magoevage Antiques, from Berwick; Gladys Davies, Ella Clancy, and Daley's of Clark's Summit.

Pauline Williams will show from Drexel Hill; Meda Randal from Sadsburyville; Norman Oakes, E. Stroudsburg; Martha Reynolds from Montrose; Doris Henderson from Philadelphia; Mrs. Pauline Fox, White Haven; Mrs. Harold Baker, Endicott; Mary Croll Moister, Norristown; Rhena L. Hintz, Reading; Mrs. Marjorie Smith, Nescopeck; Millbrook Antiques, Norwisch, N.Y.

There will be everything, from Early American furniture to miniature toys, glass, brass, burnished copper, silver, pewter, oval picture

Harold C. Giberson Stricken At Work

Harold C. Giberson, 53, was stricken with a fatal heart attack while filling a silo at Hayfield Farm Friday afternoon. He had been in apparent good health Friday morning, and up until the moment of his collapse.

He was buried Tuesday afternoon in Wyoming Cemetery, District Superintendent Herbert Olver Outlet Free Methodist pastor Rev. Emery Stokes, and Trucksville Free Methodist pastor Rev. Grove Armstrong conducting services from the Bronson Funeral Home.

His son David, with the U.S. Air Force in Germany, missed seeing his father by only a few hours, landing at Idlewild Saturday afternoon, after being alerted by the Red Cross.

Mr. Giberson had been farming for the past fifteen years. Prior to that he had lived in West Wyoming, where he was a councilman. A truck driver by occupation, he had served as president of the Teamsters Local.

His parents were the late Delmar and Maude Franklin Giberson of West Wyoming.

He was a member of Outlet Free Methodist Church and Lehman Fire Company.

He leaves his widow, the former Lilla Bonning; children: Franklin, West Nanticoke; David, Germany; William, Alice and Josie at home; Harry, Lehman; ten grandchildren; two brothers, Franklin and Robert, West Wyoming; a sister Josie Shoemaker, West Wyoming.

Leaves are turning already, and by Saturday there should be a riot of color on the hill forming the backdrop for the show. It's apt to be hot. Last year it was scorching, and everybody got sunburned. Wear a large shade hat.

In case of rain, the show will be held two weeks from Saturday, October 6, 1962.

A Thank-Offering Because Your Son Is Alive And In Abounding Health

A few months ago a young boy from Oak Hill died after a valiant struggle for life.

In the battle to save the life of eleven year old John Chesnovitch, who was suffering from a deficiency in the composition of his blood, forty pints of blood were given him by transfusion.

Forty pints means forty donors. At the time of John's extreme illness, a number of donors made the trip from the Back Mountain to Philadelphia, and more bottles of blood were earmarked for John, from other sources.

But the John Chesnovitch family is still in arrears, with a debt of twenty pints to the Red Cross Blood Bank.

Nobody can supply twenty pints of blood.

But twenty healthy people can supply one pint apiece, as a thank offering that their sons are living and in perfect health.

Pearl Gilroy is the person at the Red Cross to contact. A donation for this cause will be a real community service, underscoring that a man is indeed his brother's keeper, and that he has the rare privilege of doing something that nobody else can do, yielding up a pint of his own blood.

Gate Of Heaven Altar And Rosary Plans Card Party September 28

Altar and Rosary Society of Gate of Heaven Church will hold a Card Party in the School Auditorium, Friday evening, Sept. 28, at 8 P.M. Mrs. George Ruckno is chairman and Mrs. Paul Monahan co-chairman. Mrs. Ruckno states the Card Party is not limited to women. Men who enjoy a good game of cards are most welcome. All players must furnish their own cards.

On the committee are: Door Prizes, Mrs. Leon Chase and Mrs. Bruno Marascio; Table Prizes, Mrs. Gerald John; Tickets, Miss Mary Weir; Refreshments, Mrs. Leo Mohren; Door, Mrs. John Mulhern and

Mrs. J. Warren Yarnal.

Mrs. Louis Vitale has charge of the special award for the evening—a huge Basket of Cheer, filled to the brim with donations by members of the Society. There will also be many other prizes. Refreshments will be served.

The Gate of Heaven Altar and Rosary Society will sponsor Retreat at Our Lady of the Poconos the weekend of October 12-14. Reservations may be made with Mrs. John Elenchik, Overbrook Ave. before the first of October. Transportation to the Villa is available.

WCSA Hears Report Of Sky Lake Weekend

About thirty some women attended the meeting of Dallas Methodist Church W. S. C. S. at the church last week and heard reports by Jean Fleming and Richard Love on their Sky Lake trip. Mrs. Charles Hosler and Mrs. William Baker, Sr. talked on the Keystone School of Missions.

Committee chairmen announced by Mrs. Hosler are Mrs. David Evans, hostess, Mrs. William Baker Sr., publicity, Mrs. Stanley B. Davis, transportation, Mrs. John LaBerge, Board of Education.

Dates to Remember: October 4, Conference Meeting at Forty Fort; October 9, District Meeting, First Church, Pittston; Week of Prayer, October 25 to 31; Bazaar, November 1.

Next meeting October 9.

Old Fashioned Hymn-Sing Sunday P.M. At Hartsville

There will be an old-fashioned Hymn-Sing Sunday evening at Hartsville Christian Church, to which everybody is invited. David Joseph, song leader, is scouring the area to see which hymns are the most dearly beloved. He has a list of fifty, and asks each person to designate the ten top favorites.

Gordon James will lead devotions. The Wilkes-Barons Quartette will sing old-time favorites.

This is the first time Hartsville Christian Church has sponsored a community hymn-sing. If it is popular, there will be another hymn-sing in the future.

Mrs. Ida. Brumfield Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Ida Brumfield, 92, who for the past ten years has made her home in Idetown with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert A. Ward, died Sunday afternoon after a long illness. Services were conducted from the Ward home Tuesday evening, with burial on Wednesday at Rising Sun, Maryland. Officiating minister was Rev. Norman Tiffany.

A native of Rising Sun, she was daughter of the late James and Lydia Wilson Maxwell. She was a member of Nottingham Presbyterian Church at Coloma, Md., and while living at West Chester, attended West Chester Presbyterian Church, where she taught Sunday School.

She lost her husband, Howard, twenty years ago.

She leaves her daughter, Mrs. Ward, whose husband is manager of Dallas Acme Store; grandchildren: Mrs. Elizabeth Stritmatter and Arthur C. Ward of Wilkes-Barre; H. Allen Ward, Pen Argyl; and William, at home; seven great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Carl Cameron and Mrs. Mary Mahoney, Rising Sun.

Arrangements by Bronson.

L. E. Guyette Loses Mother

The community extends deepest sympathy to Leland Guyette, whose mother Mrs. Nellie E. Guyette, 81, was stricken with a fatal heart attack at her home in Washington, D. C., dying Sunday afternoon at the Casualty Hospital. She had been ill for the past year. She was buried on Wednesday at Maple Hill.
