

Dallas Junior High PTA Hears Principal Rosser

Dallas Junior High School PTA met at the Dallas Junior High School building, Mrs. Welton G. Farrar presiding. Mrs. Warren Taylor led the devotions stressing the need of friendship between teacher and parent, student and teacher. Mrs. Farrar then opened a brief meeting in which she stated "It is the hope of every new president to have the most successful year yet". We need 100% membership in every room and we need 100% attendance at each meeting. After welcoming the group of 200, she asked committee chairman for reports. She then introduced Principal John Rosser who explained the program, "Back to School Night" and dismissed parents to respective rooms to meet teachers and discuss the program. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria. New Executive Board members are: President, Mrs. Welton G. Farrar; Vice President, Ernest Gay; Secretary, Mrs. Donald Fossedal; Treasurer, Carl Kashenbaugh; Mem-

Bear Damage Slight In Back Mountain Area

Damage by marauding bears in Luzerne and Wyoming Counties has been slight, or non-existent, this summer, according to Stephen Kish, Publicity Director for Pennsylvania Game Commission. In Wayne County, on the other hand, several sheep were killed, and Monroe County had a number of beehives destroyed. In Columbia County, three beehives were smashed. Bear-damage in Monroe County was between Saylorsburg and Sciota. bership, Mrs. Harry Peiffer; Ways and Means, Mrs. Robert Bayer; Hospitality, Mrs. John Blaze; Budget, Mrs. Robert Block; PTA Advisor, John Rosser; Homeroom Mothers, Mrs. Donald Smith; Legislation, Mrs. Archer Mohr; PTA Magazine, Mrs. Phillip Haycock; Blood Bank, Mrs. Elwood Swingle; Delegate to Back Mt. Citations Given To Local Food-Growers

Three Back Mountain food packers and crew leaders have been awarded State citations for efforts in improving working and living conditions of migrant farm workers, one of them for the second time. At the fifth annual ceremony in Harrisburg, Dymond Brothers, Andrew Prebola, and Raymond Soria were among the 59 recipients of citations awarded by the Department of Labor and Industry. Both Dymond Brothers' and Prebola's camps are located between Orange and Centermoreland. Soria manages for Prebola. Dymond Brothers took their award this year for the second time. Both Dymond Brothers and Pre-

Martha Hadsel Is At International House

Martha Hadsel is now at International House, the first time she has been in one of the University of Chicago dormitories. Her sister, Mrs. Herbert Updyke of Trucksville, reports that Martha, working for her Masters Degree, is already teaching under supervision, and next year will conduct a regular class on a full time basis, also under critical supervision. When she obtains her masters, he will have had solid teaching experience. University of Chicago has a high school and an elementary school on the campus. Martha has been studying since June, expects to remain in classes all next summer as well as studying during the normal school year. She is majoring in English Literature. The dormitory, she reports, is like a hotel, with cafeteria and shops. Many foreign students are in residence.
