Locals Seek Third Win Against West Wyoming

Dallas Senior High School gridgers go after victory number "3" Saturday afternoon at the Senior High field when it hosts the West Wyoming Cowboys. Game time is 2 p.m.

West Wyoming (1-2) on the season under new head-coach Nick Anzelmi, Old Forge native and former high school star, and George Washington U. gridder, has the material to cause plenty of upsets in the conference before the season's over.

Always a scrappy ball club, win, lose or draw the Cowboys have had three coaching changes in the last five years which does not necessarily help the team since no three coaches emphasize the same type football.

Returnees from last season include Gatti, Schultz, Banko, Noto, Froncek, Roberts, Winans, Leoni, Mulesky, Dennis, Gibbons, Armone, Tomsak, Richards, Stoesser, Atherholt, Belza, Korpusik, Eshelman, Gregorio.

Not all of these boys saw much action last season but fans can be assured that these fellows along with a few newcomers will cause plenty of headaches come next season.

Dallas Edges By Forty-Fort 14-12

A fired-up Forty-Fort eleven threw a scare into Dallas' hopes of any championship Friday night when it forced the local aggregation to come from behind to eke out a 14-12 win on a muddy, rain-soaked gridiron before some 2,000 onlookers.

Dallas grabbed a quick 7-0 lead before the game was a minute old on a recovered fumble on the kick-off return on their own 40-yard stripe.

After Noon picked up four, Dallas caught the Forty-Fort defense flat-footed by not huddling and pulled off a halfback passplay from Farley to Kaschenbach that reeled off 51 yards to the Flyers 3 from where he was hauled down from behind. Noon again got the call and responded with a burst into the endzone for the score. Farley sliced off-tackle for the extra point.

Flyers Take Lead

Forty-Fort narrowed the lead to 7-6 early in the second period to wind up a 64-yard march which started after the Dallas touchdown.

With backs, Antinnes, McGurk and Lamoreaux grinding out yardage along with good blocking by the forward wall the Flyers proved they were not going to be any push-over.

Later in the period Noon, fumbled while in punt formation and Forty-Fort recovered at the Dallas 37.

Again the trio of hard running backs, Antinnes, McGurk and Lamoreaux began shredding the Dallas interior line and moved into paydirt with Lamoreaux hitting in from the five-yard strip. Once again the Dallas line rose to the occasion to stop a running play for the extra point and in the end these two defensive performances were the difference in the outcome.

Farley Scores

A grim, determined Dallas eleven refused to call it quits after these two Forty-Fort scores and took the ensuing kick-off and marched downfield for the winning marker.

Siket continuing to display his poise under pressure called upon Noon and Farley to carry the mail and the pair of fleet-footed backs aided by good blocking in the front line were sprung loose for big gains to setup the touchdown.

After reaching the 20, Noon reeled off 16 yards to the 4 from where Farley carried it over. Kaschen-

Halfback Problem

Coach Eddie Brominski is faced with grooming someone for left-halfback since he lost his number one and two men by injuries in the first two contests.

Andrews suffered a fractured foot in the Lake-Lehman game, while Farley came out of the Forty-Fort fray with a broken nose.

Both of these boys are speed merchants and their absence will be felt greatly.

Andrews will probably be out from four to five weeks while Farley is expected to miss the West Wyoming game but it is hoped he will be back for Exeter the following week.

As of now the Exeter encounter looms as a "big one" and Dallas knows what the Panthers did last season.

Bob Neckrasz will probably get the nod at half for Saturday since he also has considerable speed. Others capable of breaking in are Alan Harris and Harold Dymond, but neither has too much experience. Neckrasz has seen considerable action on defense, but this will be his first crack on offense.

Except for these two major injuries the rest of the team seems to be in good physical condition.

back scored the extra point on a running play.

Highlights

The victory was rather a costly one for coach Eddie Brominski who just the week before lost one halfback, Don Andrews with a fractured bone in his left foot. Friday night the other left-half John Farley suffered a fractured nose and will probably be out of action for a week or two. Andrews will probably be lost to the ball club from four to five weeks.

While the interior line of Smith, Platt, Ashman, McMichael, Brominski and Swartwood looked shoddy at times on defense these boys did open the holes for their backs on the offense.

Lockhard, Jones, Paltrineri and Bullock played a bang-up game on defense to help the Demons to victory.

Noon again turned in an impressive game from the fullback slot, and when Farley was injured, switched to halfback with Kerpovich moving in at fullback.

Dallas lost another score in the first period when the officials ruled Mike Jones did not have possession of a pass in the endzone and a heated discussion followed.

New Executive For Boy Scouts

Clifford David Mansley, new Boy Scout executive for Wyoming Valley, is moving to Dallas this week, taking up residence at 52 Wyoming Street. He assumed duties of his office in Kingston September 1, the date when resignation of Calvin Hall, former executive, took effect.

Mr. Mansley has been in the Boy Scout field professionally since 1951, when he graduated from University of Pennsylvania, and immediately was assigned to training school at Schiff Scout Reservation, Mendham, N. J. for basic schooling.

Prior to this, he had been a volunteer worker in Boy Scouting. During his college years he belonged to the Boy Scout fraternity Alpha Phi Omega, and the National honor fraternity Beta Gamma Sigma. In the Order of the Arrow, a camping society, he attained Vigil Honors. He served as president of Zeta chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

His dossier relating to his years in Philadelphia is too long to include in a brief biographical sketch. Education in the Scout field, he explains, goes on and on, one train-

LOCAL BOYS HELP COLLEGE TEAMS TO UPSET VICTORIES

Wyoming Valley had three former high school gridgers help their respective College teams to produce upsets in Saturday action.

Saturday afternoon on a nationally televised game over ABC Notre Dame upset Oklahoma 13-7 with Kingston's Ed Rutkoski scoring the first touchdown of the game and also booted one extra point. Rutkoski also played a vital role on defense.

George Bednar, Shavertown resident and former West Side Central star, also saw action with the second team and turned in some fine defensive work.

And from down South, Joe Lopasky again supplied the punch as he scored his teams only TD in the final three minutes to help Houston upset Texas A/M 6-3. It was the second week in a row for Houston to spring an upset.

This week Notre Dame meets Purdue and Houston takes on Mississippi.

Knights Subdue Northwest, 39-0 Six Players Score In 39-0 Victory

A host of Lake-Lehman backs had a field day Saturday afternoon as the "mighty" Knights soundly trounced a "mild" Northwest eleven 39-0 on a rather muddy gridiron.

Coach Eddie Edwards had his second and third stringers in action before half time as Lake-Lehman ran up a 19-0 lead before intermission.

Lake-Lehman cleared its bench in the final period with two of the smallest men in the conference, Ray Scott a 5' 5" sophomore tipping the scales at 120 lbs. along with Don Crispell, freshmen, all of 5' and weighing 100 lbs. "soaking wet" seeing action. Scott came up with an interception shortly before the game ended to almost set up another Lake-Lehman score.

Rogers, Ellsworth and Lettie had a field day via the airplanes hitting the backs and ends on 10 of 15 aeriels; while Palmer, Brown, Ellsworth and Rogers ate up chunks of yardage on the ground.

The deepest penetration Northwest made was to the Lake-Lehman 45 early in the opening period. Safetyman Bob Rogers thought he could catch the Northwest defense napping when he tried to scoop up a slippery pigskin which had almost rolled dead but was hit hard with Killian recovering for the Rangers on their own 43.

Brown, Snyder Score

Following the fumble recovery, Northwest signal-caller, Cavilini hit Shoemaker with a pass at the Knights 45, but on the proceeding play a bad pass from center went over Cavilini's head with Squier recovering on the Rangers 28 to set up the first score.

A pass and a running play moved the ball to the 22 but a penalty placed the ball at the 11 as Northwest was guilty of mask-tackling. Rogers then with a beautiful fake rolled out to the left and reached the 2 from where Brown smashed over for the score. Ellsworth kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Later in the period Lopasky came up with the first of four Lake-Lehman interceptions at the 34 to set up the next TD.

With a fourth down and six situation, Rogers hit Snyder at the 5 from where he raced in for the tally. Ellsworth's kick went wide.

Ellsworth To Landis

Early in the second quarter the Knights hung up its third score of the game following a Northwest punt when Ellsworth took a pitch-out from Rogers and on the halfback pass found Landis in the open at the 10 and he carried it over for a 19-0 lead. The play covered 41 yards.

Lake-Lehman missed another score later in the period after it marched from its own 38 to the Northwest 1 before a fumble halted the drive with Noss making the recovery.

Maintain Possession

Although the Knights only hung up one touchdown in the third period they did maintain possession of the ball throughout as Northwest had it but for four plays from scrimmage.

Taking the second half kick-off and putting it in play on its own 45, Lake-Lehman marched 55 yards in ten plays with Rogers passing 9 yards to Evans for the tally. Ellsworth booted the extra point. Score 26-0.

Pass-Lateral Play

Lake-Lehman started a drive from its own 38 later in the period and reached the Ranger 35 before the quarter ended.

The first play of the final period was an incomplete pass, but on second down, Rogers tossed a "quickie" to Landis who pitched to Palmer trailing the play at the 28 and Palmer raced over untouched while Landis was being swarmed under. The kick failed.

Lake-Lehman just off an easy 39-0 romp over Northwest moves into Wyoming Saturday afternoon at 2 to take on the Wyoming Redskins, last years conference champs.

Lake-Lehman (3-1) for the season rates the edge over the Redskins (1-2).

Coach Pete Podwika was hit hard through graduation and the reserves of last season with a few holdovers have not been able to jell.

Wyoming lost a tough opener to a supposedly strong St. John's eleven by 2-0, bounced back with a 19-6 win over a mediocre Luzerne team and last Saturday suffered a 12-0 setback at the hands of Edwardsville in an upset.

Players with the most experience include Frank Ragentesi, a guard, who was one of the outstanding linemen in the conference last season; Rich Goryl, a wingman who saw considerable service last year. Backs include Turchetti, Sova and Shulde. None of the backs were starters last year, but all saw considerable action.

Coach Eddie Edwards was able to give his second and third string linemen a work out last Saturday. The team had little trouble overwhelming a small, inexperienced Northwest squad.

Bob Margellina was one of the reserves who looked impressive in his first varsity game.

Lettie Intercepts

Reserve quarterback, Larry Lettie set up the final TD with the third interception in the game at the Northwest 49 and then proceeded to direct the team in for the score with Ellsworth cracking over for the 1. Ellsworth picked up 18 yards in the drive while Lettie hit Landis on 29-yard pass play at the 16.

Scott Intercepts

Sophomore Ray Scott came up with the final interception of the afternoon at the midfield stripe and Lake-Lehman almost scored on the final play of the contest when Lopasky hauled in a pass and was brought down at the 25.

Statistics

Lake-Lehman not only dominated the game in the scoring department but completely outplayed the visitors in all categories.

First downs showed Lake-Lehman 13, Northwest 5.

Passing, Lake-Lehman completed 10 of 15 and had none intercepted while netting 182 yards, on the other side of the ledger, Northwest hit on 3 of 11 but had four picked off by Lake-Lehman defend-
