Helen Long Becomes Bride Of David Blaine

The Assembly of God Church, Mooretown, was the setting Saturday afternoon, one o'clock for the marriage of Helen Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Long, Sweet Valley, to David Blaine, son of Mrs. Clara Blaine and the late Preece Blaine, Church Street, Nanticoke. Rev. Louis Trotta, Pastor, performed the ceremony. Violet Hardy was organist and Mrs. Jean Trotta, soloist.

Dorothy Long, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Betsy Winter and Jenny Long, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Marjorie Cotterman, cousin of the bride. Flower girl was another sister of the bride, nine year old Mary Jo Long. Frank Spock, Plymouth, served as Mr. Blaine's best man. Ushers were Silas Blaine and William Blaine, brothers of the bridegroom, and William Corbett, Newark, N.J. Robert Long, ten year old brother of the bride was ring bearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta, designed with fitted basque bodice, long tapered sleeves, scooped neckline of scalloped lace featuring sequins and pearl trim. The front of the bouffant skirt was offset with appliques of Alencon lace; tiers of ruffled tulle and lace formed the back skirt, which fell into a chapel sweep. She carried a Colonial bouquet of carnations and lilies of the valley.

The Maid of honor chose ice blue chiffon dress featuring long sleeves, jeweled neckline, and lace bodice. She carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations. Bridesmaids dresses were nylon cocktail gowns with scooped necklines, fitted bodice, and full skirts. Sleeves were puffed, and satin bows formed the belts. Colors chosen were pink, blue, and yellow, with each girl carrying a matching nosegay of carnations.

The attractive little flower girl wore dress of pink chiffon with re-embroidered lace trim. She carried a basket of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Simon Long, mother of the bride selected cocoa brown pressed jersey sheath, with brown and beige accessories, and corsage of yellow glhamias.

Mrs. Blaine, mother of the groom, chose blue silk dress with jeweled neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories were red and her corsage, white glhamias.

Following the ceremony a reception for approximately one hundred fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Blaine is a graduate of Huntington High School. Prior to her marriage she was employed at General Cigar Co., Kingston. Mr. Blaine is a graduate of Shickshinny High School. He is employed as a yardman for Arco Trucking Co. Union City, N.J.

The couple reside at 47 Thomas Street, Newark, New Jersey. A large variety shower was given on August 4, by Irene Lamoreaux, Dorothy Long, and Joan Harrison.
