Married In Church Ceremony

The apostolic blessing of Pope John XIII was bestowed last Saturday at 11 on the marriage of Miss Rozanne Marie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip F. Jones, 35 Circle Dr., College Manor, Dallas, and James Francis Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Walsh, 325 Clark St., Clark's Green.

The Rev. Francis P. McNelis, uncle of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony, celebrated the nuptial mass and bestowed the blessing on the couple in Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas. The altar was adorned with white carnations and palms. Following the ceremony, the bride presented a bouquet to the altar of the Blessed Mother.

Mrs. John D. Heller, Arlington, Va., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank E. Kane, Mount Holly, N. J., sister of the bride, and Ann Bradley, Philadelphia, cousin of the bride. Jacqueline Jones, Dallas, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Edward Walsh, Clark's Green, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Daniel P. Jones, Mount Holly, N. J., brother of the bride; William Spear and Joseph Walsh, Jr., brother of the bridegroom, both of Clark's Green.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore full-length gown of ivory bridal satin featuring a bateau neckline edged with Belgian lace, fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. The chapel-length train fell from a full skirt styled with unpressed pleats. Her embroidered mantilla of Belgian lace fell softly over her waistline. She carried an arm bouquet of white calla lilies.

The bride wore two piece oyster shell brocade suit, white pillbox hat and veil. Her shoulder bouquet was of white chrysanthemums. Maid of honor selected black and white wool dress, white accessories and white astors.

Mrs. Bachman, mother of the bride chose green suit with white accessories and Mrs. Coombs, mother of the bridegroom, light blue dress with navy accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Luzerne High School, class of 1960. The bridegroom was graduated from Lake-Lehman High School, class of 1958 and attended Texas Western while in the U.S. Army. A veteran of Korea, he is employed by the Monroe Calculating Company, Wilkes-Barre.

Attendants were Mary Ann Siviniski, cousin of the bride, and Lewis Bains. A reception was held at the home of the bride for members of the immediate families.

Philharmonic Opens Membership Drive

Family membership campaign for Wilkes-Barre Philharmonic Orchestra is in full swing locally, with Mrs. Earl Phillips as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ray Turner, Mrs. Stanley S. Davies, Mrs. Jerome Gardner, Mrs. Edward Eyerman III, Mrs. Reese Pelton, Mrs. Fred Maier and Mrs. Edward Scanlon.

The orchestra will present three concerts in its regular subscription series, with Ferdinand Liva as conductor. The November 19 concert will feature Beethoven's Seventh Symphony and, as soloist, Lena Feretti Soloman, soprano. Highlights of the February concert will include Symphony No. 40 by Mozart and Renata Tarrago, virtuoso of the Spanish guitar.

Family memberships, a tradition with the Wilkes-Barre Philharmonic, admit two adults and one child to all three concerts. Single season subscriptions may also be obtained from Mrs. Phillips or the members of her committee. This is the Philharmonic's twelfth season, an accomplishment due in no small part to the orchestra's many patrons and family members who live in the Back Mountain area.
