

Lake-Lehman Seeks 5th Win Against Exeter Here Saturday At 2

Dallas Overpowers Exeter 26-6 Behind Strong Defensive Work

Amidst this pile-up is Dallas quarterback Paul Siket after he had picked up 16 yards on a roll-out keeper-play late in fourth period to set up final Demon score. Alan Harris hit off tackle on the following play for the TD from the six-yard line.

Joe Noon was responsible for this score mainly on his 28-yard runback of an Exeter interception to reach the 22.

Dallas players identified are Harris (33) between (70 and 81) two Exeter linemen, Kaschenbach (21), Swartwood (28).

"Let's make hay while the sun shines" is exactly what the Demons of Dallas Senior High School did Saturday afternoon in overwhelming a supposedly strong Exeter eleven 26-6 before some 2,000 rabid grid fans at the Dallas field.

Displaying an alert, stout-hearted defense along with a diversified ground attack, Dallas moved for three second-half touchdowns after holding a slim 7-6 half-time margin to break the game wide open.

Joe Noon cracked over for the first two scores, one on a one-yard buck up the middle and his second in the third period when he took a hand-off from quarterback Paul Siket on a draw play up the middle good for seventeen yards and a TD. Tom Kerpovich, second-string fullback, scored the third tally by smashing over from the one to wind up a 37-yard drive, while Alan Harris scored from 6-yards out for the final tally.

Joe Fenner, smooth working Panther quarterback tallied the only Exeter touchdown on a keeper-play in the first period.

Following a Dallas punt early in the first period, an Exeter back was hit hard in trying to take a hand-off from Fenner and fumbled with Farley falling on the loose ball at the Exeter 13 to put Dallas in business.

After Farley picked up a yard, Siket rolled out for a six-yard gain to put the ball at the 6. Kerpovich then hit the middle for five-yards to reach the 1 from where Joe Noon bucked over for the score. Siket then completed his only pass of the afternoon by hitting Kerpovich in the endzone for the extra point, and at half-time the conversion looked big.

Fenner took the ensuing kick-off at his own 12 and moved to his own 42 before being hauled down.

On first down, Fenner hit wingman Andy Hudak with a quick pass over the line to reach the Dallas 46. Two running plays netted but two yards against the big interior line of the Demons but on third down Fenner completely baffled the Dallas defense by faking a hand-off to his half-back moving right as he moved to the weak side and picked up 11 yards without no blocking.

Again two running plays into the line failed and Fenner took to the air again to his favorite target, Hudak, and he made a great catch at the Dallas 5 to set up an Exeter score.

Mosolusky was stopped cold as he tried to sweep his right-end, but once again Fenner on the keeper-play rolled to his left and went over the final stripe untouched to close the gap to 7-6. A running play failed to pick up the necessary yardage and Dallas held on to its slim one-point margin until half-time.

Scoreless Period

Both teams battled on even terms throughout the second period.

Dallas did move from its own 21 to the Panthers 46 early in the second quarter before safetyman Fenner picked-off a Siket aerial at his own 27 to halt the drive.

Later in the quarter Noon got off a high punt against the wind and the ball bounced to the Dallas 32 to give Exeter an opportunity to go ahead before intermission, but the Dallas defense tossed Fenner for a six-yard loss on the first play then two passes overshoot the intended receivers before fourth down completed pass was stopped at the 28.

Great Blocking Up Front

After Exeter picked up a first down at its own 39 following the second half kick-off, the Panthers fumbled again with the ever alert Mike Jones grabbing the ball at the 40.

With Farley and Noon alternating on running plays, Dallas reached the 17. It was from here that Siket pulled the most beautiful fake of the season, he faked to Farley, then faded back as if to throw and in doing so handed to Noon on a draw play, and with great blocking in the forward wall, Noon raced untouched the final 17 yards. Harris then slid off-tackle for the extra point and a 14-6 lead.

After that it was a continual hard-charging line on the part of Dallas that broke the game wide open. They repeatedly stopped the ball carrier for no gain and put such a rush on Fenner that he had little time to get set to spot a receiver and thus two interceptions led to the final two Dallas touchdowns.

Lake-Lehman Edges Edwardsville 13-8 On Rogers 65-Yard Jaunt

Injury riddled Lake-Lehman rallied for a third period TD Saturday afternoon to turn back a stubborn Edwardsville eleven, 13-8 on the loser's field.

Lake-Lehman marched 80-yards for the opening score in the first period and then in the third quarter marched the length of field (yes 100-yards) after a punt was downed on the one-foot line. Bob Rogers, battered and bruised, raced 65-yards for the score.

Edwardsville on the other hand tallied its eight points in the second quarter after a pass interception with Gingo punching over from the five. Later in the period an interception by Lake-Lehman in the end zone resulted in a safety when the ball carrier tried to run it out. That gave Edwardsville an 8-6 lead at intermission.

The Knights took a 6-0 lead when fullback Stan Palmer capped an 80-yard march with a three-yard jaunt into paydirt. Palmer and Rogers did most of the gaining in the march downfield.

Edwardsville twice threatened in the opening period only to be halted on the great defensive play of safetyman Bob Rogers. Following a 23-yard run by Gingo to put the Eagles in scoring position, Rogers picked off an Edwardsville pass and later in the period hit Gingo with a smashing tackle that shook the ball loose with Lake-Lehman recovering.

Edwardsville finally hit paydirt in the second quarter following a pass interception. Gingo set up the score with a 24-yard jaunt and then cracked over from the five-yard line. The extra point failed.

Statistics

Lake-Lehman compiled 15 first downs compared to 11 for Edwardsville. The Knights totaled 264 yards rushing against 154 for the Eagles.

Edwardsville completed 5 of 13 passes while Lake-Lehman surprisingly only tossed four and had one completed. Lake-Lehman had one intercepted with that one setting up the Edwardsville TD.

Statistics

Quarterback Paul Siket mixed his plays all afternoon and with coach Eddie Brominski alternating his halfbacks and fullbacks, had the Exeter line guessing all afternoon who was going to carry next.

Noon, Farley and Siket each carried ten times while Kerpovich was called upon seven times and the remaining backs each had a few cracks.

Noon and Farley both netted 44 yards while Siket picked up 40 and Kerpovich 24.

Dallas led in first downs ten to seven. The Demons completed one of four passes and had one intercepted. Exeter meanwhile went to the air lanes 14 times, completing three and had three intercepted.

Dallas amassed 206 yards rushing and 2 yards passing. Exeter finding it tough to gain through the forward wall of the Demons netted 58 yards rushing and 41 passing.

Highlights

The Dallas forward alignment of Bullock, Brominski, Lockard, Platt, Paltrineri along with linebackers, Kerpovich, Jones, and Prokopchak deserve much of the credit for the victory, they were the fellows that made the breaks to give the Demons the pigskin by their hard-charging, hard tackling and alertness to pick off three passes. Siket called a flawless game and is improving with each game, watch for him to run the option play more often in future contest. Joe Fenner, Exeter signal-caller, is one of the top ranking quarterbacks in the WSC, he can run as well as pass. Ron Beatty, diminutive fullback of Exeter showed nothing against the big forward wall of Dallas, he like the other backs where being latched on to before they could get started. Something new, coach Eddie Brominski ran the ball club from the stands via walkie-talkie with Lou Palermo and George Dornbeck on the sidelines—it worked at least for this game. Both High

Edwardsville was on the move again before half, but again a pass interception halted the drive, but the Eagles got two-points when the safety man tried to run the interception and was nailed in the end-zone.

With this safety, Edwardsville went to the locker rooms with an 8-6 half-time advantage.

Deciding Tally

Lake-Lehman's winning drive started midway in the third period following an Edwardsville punt that was downed on the one-foot line.

With fullback Palmer and half-back Brown alternating on running plays the Knights moved to their own 35.

Coach Eddie Edwards called upon the injured Bob Rogers to come off the bench and Rogers responded, pulled leg muscle and all. Bob took the snap from center and faked two hand-offs to his backfield moving to the right and neatly hid the ball on his hip and rolled to the extreme side of the field and with a running limp moved 65 yards for the winning touchdown.

The final period although a scoreless one was one of the hard running of Stan Palmer against the passing game of Edwardsville, but the defensive units closed the gaps when needed.

Statistics

Lake-Lehman compiled 15 first downs compared to 11 for Edwardsville. The Knights totaled 264 yards rushing against 154 for the Eagles.

Edwardsville completed 5 of 13 passes while Lake-Lehman surprisingly only tossed four and had one completed. Lake-Lehman had one intercepted with that one setting up the Edwardsville TD.

School bands entertained the fans with a fine pre-game and half-time show.

Back Mountain will be the scene of another important West Side Conference contest Saturday when the Panthers of Exeter meet the Knights of Lake-Lehman on Dallas Junior High field at 2.

This is a must for both clubs since both still have an outside chance of catching Dallas, the loop leaders.

Dallas leads with 3 wins, 0 losses and a tie. Lake-Lehman is second with 4 wins against 1 loss, a 1/2 game ahead of Exeter with 3 wins and 1 loss.

Edwards Worried

Coach, Eddie Edwards, is quite concerned about his team for this encounter since the win over Edwardsville was rather costly player-wise.

Fred Brown, halfback was hospitalized with slight concussion and a whiplash of the neck; Bernie Snyder suffered a severe bone bruise and Bob Rogers, hampered by a bad knee all season, came up with an ankle injury.

It's almost definite Brown will not see action this Saturday but Edwards is hopeful that Snyder and Rogers respond to treatment and are ready for full time action against the Panthers.

Edwards figures maybe Dallas softened up Exeter and that his boys will be up for this one.

Dallas-Edwardsville

Dallas goes after victory number "4" Saturday afternoon when it travels to Edwardsville to meet the Eagles at 2 on the field behind the Edwardsville School.

Last week the Eagles threw a scare into Lake-Lehman before dropping a 13-8 verdict. Coach Frank Thorik will have his boys primed for this one in hopes of an upset.

Dallas' big line will have to stop a block-busting back by the name of Gingo who kept Lake-Lehman in constant hot-water with his "bull-like" rushes.

Coach Eddie Brominski is hopeful the first and second stringers can build a substantial lead so he can get his scrubs into action after the way they moved the ball against Exeter last week in the final minutes of the game.

LOCAL FOOTBALL STAR IMPROVING

Joe Lopasky, 1960 graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, who is a sophomore at Houston University and is majoring in physical education, called home on Sunday to reassure the folks at home, that his shoulder which was injured during the game with Texas A & M, is improving and that he played a short while in the game with Alabama on Saturday.
