

LAKE-LEHMAN HIGH SCHOOL

MARILY WOODLING, EDITOR

Pat Zbick, Lake-Lehman senior, spoke Wednesday to Shickshinny Women's Club on the effects of smoking and drinking. This was the first of many such speeches Pat will be making for the Cancer Society.

PRINCIPAL AT CONVENTION
October 10 and 11, Mr. Anthony Marchakitus, principal, attended the North East District Convention P.S.-E.A. at East Stroudsburg State College.

JUNIORS BIG MOMENT
It was a big moment for the Juniors when Mr. Thomas of the Diges and Clust Company arrived at the school last week to show the new class rings and take orders. It will be a few months before the rings arrive and before any late orders will be sent out, still, the excitement will not lessen during that time.

CHOOSING SCHOOLS
Seniors are busy applying to the different colleges, business schools, and hospitals of their choice. Mr. Edwin Johnson and Mrs. Carrie Rood, guidance teachers, have been quite busy helping those who are undecided to make a right choice for their life career.

SELECT INVITATIONS
Senior Class officers selected their class invitations and name cards last week.

Tuesday started the annual 10-day magazine campaign. During that time students will be working for prizes to be given them according to the number of magazine subscriptions sold.

CRUSADER OUT NOVEMBER 1
First edition of the Lake-Lehman newspaper, the Crusader, will be sold November 1. This year's staff are: co-ordinator, Alana Matter; editor, Linda Gosart; managing editor, Pat Kanasky; associate editor, Sue Fielding; humor, Helen Dugan; feature, Jane Del Kanick; girl's sports, Sharon Farver; boy's sports, Jay Ruckel; distribution, Carolyn Keris; photography, Karl Squier; copy, Chip Landis; art, Howard Ellsworth; exchange, Irene Martin; business and ads, Jim Worth.

Last week branch editors of the Crusader chose the new Column assistants. Assistant for the Dallas Post will be Mary Ann Kuchemba. Pat Kanasky, editor for Lake-Lehman News in the Sunday Independent will be assisted by Jay Ruckel.

A school magazine will be organized this year. Editor, Janice Niezgodz, and assistant-editor, Edward Hollis, have begun working to make this publication a success. It will be a variety of feature stories written by persons within the school.

PRINCIPALS NAMED

The Lake-Lehman School Board has approved the following teachers as Elementary Building Principals: At Lake Building, Mrs. Grace Martin; at Lehman Building, Miss Lillian Burgess; at Noxen Building, Miss Janet Turner, and at Ross Building, Mr. Myron Moss.

Three Lake-Lehman teachers who did graduate work at College Misericordia this summer were: Mrs. Janet Reynolds, educational guidance; Mrs. Ruth C. Patton, elementary work, and Miss Bettie Sullivan, secondary education.

On October 6, 1962, fourteen elementary teachers attended the Bloomsburg Conference. These teachers represented each of the four elementary schools within the Lake-Lehman area.

JUNIOR DANCE
Tomorrow night the Juniors will hold their dance in Lake-Lehman cafeteria.

BAND OFFICERS
Lake-Lehman Band has elected its new officers for this year. They are: President, Eunice Oney; vice-president, Jay Ruckel; secretary, Kenny Ellsworth; treasurer, Howard Ellsworth, and publicity agent, Jane Del Kanick.

Three Names Omitted

Names of three registered nurses who assisted in the recent Bloodmobile Day at Shavertown YMCA, were inadvertently omitted by the Dallas Post in last week's issue. They are: Mrs. Frank Wadas, Mrs. John Blase, and Mrs. Nelson Nelson. Our apologies.

Dallas Senior High News

GLORIA DOLBEAR

NEW STUDENTS

Many new students are attending Senior High this year. Each week we will try to let you know a little bit about a few of them.

Thomas Borthwick, who joined us from Wyoming Seminary, is a college preparatory senior. He is particularly interested in wrestling, and likes golf and hunting very much. He thinks we have "a cool school."

Another addition is Thomas Szela. He was attending West Side Central Catholic until this year. His favorite sports are hunting, fishing, and boating. He feels we have a very nice school.

Charles Morgan, a college preparatory sophomore, attended Dallas from fourth to seventh grade. We are glad to have him back this year. His favorite sport is hunting. He likes our school very much.

DEPARTMENT DISPLAYS

Every two weeks, each teaching department is responsible for decorating a display case. For the past two weeks our halls have been very attractive. The science department set up an appropriate display for those students just starting out in chemistry, physics, general science, and biology. Different types of equipment were filled with colored solutions, adding various colors to the arrangement. The case was very interesting and helpful.

The Home-Economics Department entitled its case "What Is Home-Making?" Each phase of home-making was shown by something typical. This idea was interesting and attractive.

The Art Department display was made up of three still-life pictures in pastels by John Dana, Carl Daurbert, and Marian Olenick. The pictures were very well done.

SENIORS GET RINGS

Last week many seniors received their class rings. These rings were ordered last June and have been anxiously awaited by the seniors.

SELL SWEAT SHIRTS

Sweatshirts were sold by the school a few days last week. These were

Miniature Poodles, Move Over, Please

Country Kennels, after a lengthy spell of specializing in miniature silver poodles, has again acquired a Blue Velton English setter, the same breed that the Tom Robinsons started raising 27 years ago.

Tom, judging a show in Scranton on Sunday, came back with a three and one half month pup wriggling in his arms. Peg says she hopes he will grow up to his nose eventually, that it looks enormous after the button noses of the miniature poodles.

A triple blessed event two weeks ago, again made Gigi and Robinstar Crickert proud parents. Gigi has been living with Mr. and Mrs. Austin K. Howard on Sutton Road, came home to mother for the accouchement. Three Little Women, Meg, Jo and Amy, microscopic miniatures, are doing fine.

Appointments Made

George Jacobs, Shavertown, and John Dana, Carverton, were appointed to the Kingston Township planning commission at the Board of Supervisors meeting, October 10.

Dallas Directors To Discuss Reorganization

An adjourned meeting for discussing Luzerne County school reorganization plans will take place November 5 in Dallas Senior High School library. The matter was discussed informally at the October 9 school board meeting.

Cub Pack 155 Friday

Cub Scout Pack 155 will meet Friday night at 8 in the Trucksville Fire Hall. Each cub must be accompanied by a parent. Robert H. Kugler is Packmaster.
