Trinity United Presbyterian To Mark Birthday With Dedication

This week The Trinity United Presbyterian Church will mark its first year of Services on Sunday with Dr. Peter K. Emmons preaching and Reverend Robert R. Smyrl taking part.

The first formal Church Service was held on September 24, 1961 with Reverend Peter K. Emmons, D.D., Pastor Emeritus, Westminster Presbyterian Church, Scranton, preaching. He continued to minister to the congregation for several months, after which Rev. Robert R. Smyrl, Executive Secretary of Lackawanna Presbytery, served as Pastor until the Organizing Minister was called in March, 1962.

Appropriately, Dr. Emmons and Rev. Smyrl will return on Sunday. To mark the occasion the newly acquired property of the Trinity Church will be dedicated. The property is located along the Country Club Road adjacent to Dallas Junior High School, and comprises approximately seven acres. No immediate plans for a building are in the making, but the congregation hopes that a building will be a project in the near future.

Trinity Church is the dream of a few Presbyterians residing in the Back Mountain Area who felt that there was a need for a Presbyterian Church here, since there was no Presbyterian Church between Luzerne and Tunkhannock. A small group began meeting in October, 1960 and by February, 1961 was able to present to the Lackawanna Presbytery a petition of 151 names. A Commission of Presbytery studied the situation and recommended that a Church be founded. Reverend Andrew Pillarella was called in March, 1962 to be the Organizing Minister, and Trinity was formally organized on June 10, with 121 members.
