Mt. Zion

This road we live on is now completely black-topped from the river road at Harding to Howard Krum's on the Wyoming to Mt. Zion road. There is much to be done along the edges, and the highway department has yet to install guard fences along the dangerous places.

Do be careful; I know it's nice and smooth down these wide sweeping curves, and it's down hill most of the way to the river. There are deep gullies along some of the edges. Please don't anybody go rushing down to death on this highway. Wait for the Lord to call you; don't hurry Him!

It seemed good to see the faces of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Drake from Pottstown at Mt. Zion Church last Sunday. Mrs. Drake was Kate Parrish. I didn't bother to try to find out which of the Parrish dining room tables the Drakes would be sitting down at. I assumed that before they went back home they would be seeing sister Emma Parrish Niles, Blanche Parrish Lewis, and Mae Parrish Lewis. And Nettie Parrish was there too.

Mrs. Charles VanTuyle was at church. She gets up from Abington once in awhile.

And Harriet Howell home from Philadelphia for a visit.

For that matter Willard Peck remarked that he was glad to see me there for a change!

ADDRESSES MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

There were seventy-six men attending the Three-Point Men's Supper at Mt. Zion Saturday night when Dr. Alfred C. Kraft, Medical Director of Luzerne County Home at Valley Crest spoke.

The W.S.C.S. of Mt. Zion Church

prepared the ham supper for the men coming from Carverton, Orange and Mt. Zion Churches. Charles Johns was at the piano and Malcolm Baird led the group singing.

Harry Spare of Carverton, chairman of the fellowship, introduced Jack Scoble who gave a resume and history of this men's group which has been in existence since 1944. Pastor William Reid gave the invocation.

Harry Spare asked Chaplain Gilbert to introduce Dr. Kraft. He pointed out the modern need for adequate care for the aging, and especially for those who because of retirement or illness or both have been removed from the mainstream of life. He described much of the former care of the aged as like a concentration camp in the midst of society. It is serious to become old in an increasing population unprepared to take care of the aging. Then he described what they are trying to do at Valley Crest in caring for those who need medical care and cannot get it elsewhere. He described the physical facilities at Valley Crest as the finest in America. The address was enthusiastically received and many gathered about the speaker to ask questions and make comments. Those attending were: Charles Johns, Malcolm Baird, Charles Marcy, Thomas Marcy, Bill Larmout, William Perry, Joseph Perry, Howard Coolbaugh, J. W. Perry, Louis Bedford, George Berlew, Richard Berlew, Bert Coon, Donald Searfoss, LaRoy Ziegler, Edgar Sutton, Harry Smith, John W. Coon, David Sutton, George Sutton, Nelson Y. Lewis, William Reid, Harry Spare, A. C. Kraft, M. D. John T. Scoble, N. B. Mosteller, T. Lamoreaux, R. E. King, George Henderson, Art Baird, Bill Hughes, L. Stanley Jones, Henry Hess, Coray B. Ransom, John Lewis, Ernest Gay, Alden Earl, Thomas W. Earl, Joseph Perry, Almon C. Atlemus, William Piatt, Herman Coon, Richard Bowen, James Derr, W. Brainerd Daniels, C. W. Draper, William Richards, Byron Kester, William Hoover, Willard Smith, Richard Dymond, Richard Prynn, Dale Prynn, Russell Lewis, John Parrish, Lloyd Drake, Harold Seiple, Ernie Gay, Robert Krum, Joseph Bruno, Roy J. Thomas, Spencer Holmgren, Edward H. Miles, George H. Sutter, Ernest Sutter, Utey Holshuh, Cornelius Hastie, Harold J. Harris, William I. Hawkins, Donald Daniels, Billy Miles, Herbert Knorr, Thomas Loyd, Gerald Shaffer, Charles H. Gilbert.

There was one man we missed from this fellowship supper—Wesley

Lewis. It was suggested that we send him the cardboard of signatures of the above men along with a get-well card expressing unambiguously our wish for his speedy recovery. This was done, and after church Sunday I took the signatures and card to him. He was real pleased. He is restricted to the upstairs rooms of his home but is feeling much better.

I suppose since I frequently report about hospital patients I should report that our Tuffy has spent the past week in Dr. George Flack's hospital in Trucksville. By the time of publication I expect he will be home with us again.

Last Sunday afternoon to celebrate Ruth's birthday (which was the day before) we took her out to dinner. Then we all went to Lanesboro to visit her sister, Mrs. Jennie Congdon. It looked like a good chance also for Dorothy to see her aunt before leaving for Africa.

While waiting for her surgeon to give her the go signal Dorothy has kept busy here and there as a volunteer in State Child Health conferences and at the Red Cross blood bank in Wilkes-Barre. Incidentally she has picked up considerable experience and friendly contacts. It will probably not be long before she can take off for Leopoldville, Africa.

Fernbrook

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Alt, Main Road spent Sunday visiting friends in Kutztown.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Karweta, E. Overbrook Ave., on the death of Mr. Karweta's mother, Mrs. Anthony Karweta, Wilkes-Barre. She died in General Hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stanton and Bobby and Carl, Roushey St. visited Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bloomer and family in West Chester over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dymond, 178 E. Overbrook Ave, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Price Knarr, Donald and Florence in Upper Greenwood Lake, N. J.

Roy Bloom, Main St. is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital. He was taken there Friday night by ambulance.

Mrs. John Fowler, Jr. and daughter, Margaret, E. Overbrook Ave., returned early Sunday after spending five days with Mrs. Fowler's son, Jack, at Parris Island, S. C. and Camp Le Jeune, N. C., his present base.

Mrs. Sarah Moss, Shaver Ave., and her daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Leitch, Detroit, Mich. have returned after a ten day, 2000 mile trip through the southern states, visiting relatives and friends. The Leitch's spent the weekend with Mrs. Moss, returning home on Sunday.

Lehman

Mrs. H. G. Bland has returned to her home in James Store, Virginia after visiting her brother, Burton Major. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Major, Ft. Grange, Illinois are spending some time with Burton Major.

Lehman Methodist Church members and friends are urged to attend the Evangelistic services at Shavertown Methodist Church from November 4 through 8. Services will be scheduled nightly with Rev. Kenneth Bookar preaching. Lehman choir will sing on Tuesday evening, November 6th. Wednesday is youth night. All persons are asked to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elston and son, Tommy were recent guests of Mrs. Alice Elston. Walt and Gloria attended "Homecoming" at Wilkes College.
