BOWLING NEWS

BY DORIS MALLIN

CONGRATULATIONS, CHARLIE!

CHARLIE WILLIAMS has done it again, winning the sixth annual All Star tournament at Jimmy's Central Lanes, Sunday night. Charlie (Chill) was Wyoming Valley All Star champion two years ago. Doc O'Connell took over last year.

Charlie, holding third place upon starting the final eight games Sunday, opened up with a big 247 to take first place, but Pat Gavigan, in second place, hit 232 in the 10th game to take over the lead by 15 pins.

Pat held the lead when the evening session began, but lost ground from the very beginning of final four games. Chill continued going strong, winning his four games, beating Gavigan in the final game, 237 to 189. Chill's four game series was 830. Butch Williams lost 3 in the afternoon and could not overtake the leaders even though he came back to win 3 in the evening.

Phil and Charlie fought for the fourth spot with Phil beating his brother by 25 pins. Charlie and the champ were the only bowlers to maintain 200 or better average for 16 games.

Chill Williams will represent the area in state tourney at New York next month. Top scorers there will go to nationals at Kansas City in January. Doc O'Connell, defending Valley champion, finished far down on 5-11 record while the new winner had 12-4 record.

Final standings were: C. Williams

76.48 points, 208 average; P. Gavigan 73.04, 198; Butch Williams 72.41, 199; P. Gelso 72.30, 198; C. Gelso 72.25, 200; B. Bavitz 71.13, 194; A. Finarelli 71.22; 192; J. West 70.04, 194; H. Bavitz 68.23, 182; J. Taylor 67.39, 189.

WEEKLY HIGH

Dick Finnegan beat Don Bolton's single high 262 when he hit 268 in Shupp League, Monday, October 22, Charlie Williams hit 267 (641) for West Side in Major League, but could not knock out Nick Stredny's original 669 series. Marie Ritts finished off Evelyn Roberts' 575 with 580 rolled for Harveys Lake Women and Kay Kalafsky hit 232 to top Evelyn's 218. Marie's series included 216 and Kay's series totalled 532.

Evelyn came back with 212 (571) for Crown Imperial Women and Anita Pascavage hit 223 (511) for the same team to post high series and single this week, but Marie and Kay still hold top position.

This week's honors go to Al Ciccarelli rolling 192-224-216 (632) for Gosart's (Majors) and to Amby Vida hitting 244 for Sunset Bingo (Travellers). Stredny and Finnegan still lead with 669 and 268.

MAJOR LEAGUE

Two teams are tied for first place of Imperial Majors after Dallas Nursery (leaders) lost 3 to Birth's Esso and Dallas Shopping Center (third placers) took 4 from Jim-Jon. Nurserymen and Shoppers have 21½, each, while (second place) Dallas Dairy stays there with 21 points after splitting with Monk Plumbing & Heating. Gosart's Appliances is third with 19 and West Side Novelty has 18. Shavertown Lumber and Birth's are tied with 17.

Taking honors for the "majors" Friday was Al Ciccarelli with 632 (192-224-216) for Gosart's. Jack Birnstock posted a 236 for West Side. Jack also rolled 203-188 for a nice 627 series. Tony Pineno chalked up 195-227-208 (630) for Dallas Shopping.

Posting high games were Frank Kardell 234, Bob Disque 231-201 (558); Lewis Reese 197-225 (585); Steve DeBarry 202-191 (574); Marty Panunti 222 (568); Jack Trudnak 221 (565); Dave Eddy 206-206 (584); Harold Bennett 212-200 (578); Amby Vida 198-200-190 (588); Bill Weaver 196-220 (565); Bonomo (T.) 190, Roan 200, E. Yankoski 206 (553); Joe Klass 195-210 (559); Jess Day 204 (550); Carey 191, Ambrose 198, Kriel 198, L. Yankoski 201, Rudick 190, Nafus 199, Myers 205-196, Bonomo (S.) 190 (550), Stair 199, Rich Bonomo 208, Kundrat 193, Andy Matte 193-191 (555), P. Kamont 558.

High team honors went to American Legion with 1016 (2742). Charles Williams topped last week's scoring with 232-267 (641) for W. S. while Leo Yankoski was hitting 199-245 (603) for Dallas Dairy. Al Ciccarelli rolled 214-210 (601) for Gosart's and Kundrat hit 207-234

608) for Legion.

Nice scores were turned in by Shoemaker 202-206, Day 209, Nafus 202, Reese 211, Bonomo 200, Bill Allabaugh 214, Kardell 202, Stevens 203, D. Bolton 209, F. Kamont 203, D. Bolton 209, P. Kamont 202, Oravitz 203.

Top series for their respective teams were rolled by Bruce Varner 220-201 (581) Jim-Jon; Marty Panunti 200-210 (582) Bob Moore 227 (573), Births; Bill Weaver 212-193 (572), Phillips; Panky Stolarick 210-217 (588), Gosarts; Harold Bennett 246-193 (584), Parry; Mike Gorey 206-207 (583).

TRAVELLERS

Sunset and Casino took 2 points from its opponent, none other than its own neighboring team, Castellani and Bruno. The "well-dressed" C & B team "crashed through" with 1 point, the second game by 2 pins. (I say, they certainly are a well-dressed team—and they can bowl.) Bob Moore, 190-202 (571) led C & B, Nick Stredny hitting 205-193 (568) while Amby Vida took the lead for S & C with 244 (596); Rich Bonomo hit 201-204 (582) Tony Bonomo had 204 and Tony Pineno, 192.

Weaver and Madar took 3 from Junta's Pharmacy as Paul Kamont led the scoring with 212-200-203 (615). Jack Trudnak posted 201-200 (581), Andy Matte 211-196 (564) and Bill Weaver 192. Pat Gavigan battled for opponents with 204-202-194 (600). Pat is the bowler who fought it out against Chill Williams Sunday night, during the final series of All-Star Tournament, when Chill took the championship.

As the Sportsmen Bar Boys say, "Lispi Wreckers were wrecked!" And I guess they were! Not even a score for the opposing team on the sheet I received. Were they that bad?! Sid Fielding led Sportsmen with 229-196 (591); George Yadick hit 198-207 (586); Buck Roberts had 193 and Tom Cress, 196. (These scores aren't special!)

Addy Asphalt copped 3 points from Jimmy's Lanes with Charlie Williams hitting 218 (573) and Marty Panunti rolling 192-192 (568). Ed Yankoski had 198 (554) and Leo Yankoski posted 191-196.

Crown Imperial Women took 2 out of 3 points from Phillips Sea Food as Evelyn Roberts scattered 571 pins and Bernie Pape spilled 570. Evelyn's series included 168-191-212 games and Bernie's 199-211-160.

Anita Pascavage had a beautiful 223 game. She finished with 163, 511 series. Ginger Gosart had 166 and Dink Costello 184. The girls lost second game by only 15 pins.

BACK MT. NEIGHBORHOOD

Dodson's Market and Stonehurst Cottages are still tied after each team took 3 points from Sheldon's Lunch and Shady Side Dairy respectively. Robinson's Kennels took 4 from Titman's Market.

J. Robinson took honors for high single when he led "kennelmen" with 233-192 (570); Ted Henness hit 191-212 (563). J. Gagliotti posted 203-211 (598) for Merle's S/S and J. Navich 232-203 (597) for Stonehurst. Leading Payne's Printery was George Shupp, 210 (570) and Klass Motors, T. Plata 212 (554). Dave Zimmerman hit 199 (599) for Bob & Don's.

Robinson's Kennels had a beautiful series of 2951 (922-1012-1017) and Shady Side scored 1010 for second game. High single honors went to Dodson's Market with 1019, first game.

Others with good scores were Roan 190, Smith 199-206, Rogers 194, Klass 192, Williams 190, Lohman 200, L. Yankoski 191, Burr 192, Gaylord 205, Shoes 192, Titman 207, Henness 191, Dodson 206.

Last week's top scorers were A. Vanderhoff, 214 (597); L. Yankoski 222 (586); Dave Zimmerman 213 (586); J. Lohman 235 (562); T. Bonomo 212 (559); J. Barbore 232; W. Phillips 221; N. Stredny 207; M. Corgan 203 and N. Buynak 202.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Arch Austin topped high scores last Monday with 193-201-246 (630) for Mercury Motors, as they copped 4 from Ben Franklin. The "motormen" set new league records with 932 single and 2647 total pins.

Guyette's holds 18½ points after winning 4 from Boyd White's. V. Makar was top scorer with 208 (569). Pete Ambrose rolled 220-190 (569) for White's. Shem Harter topped Besecker's scoring with 200-192 (567) as they took 3 from Orchard Farm.

Other top scores were posted by Lawler 213, Peterson 201, Lefko 213, Bolton 198.

Last week's top names were Schalm 201, Harter 203, Peterson 195 (552), Corbett 212, Austin 225, Pryor 190-195 (564), Guyette 210, Makar 239.

COUNTRY LEAGUE GIRLS

Sorely neglected for the past three weeks has been Country Girls. AND, they are not to be overlooked! Here, this season, are gathered some of the finest women bowlers of Crown and many are those who, after bowling with this league for the past few years, are showing signs of being very good bowlers.

Leading scorer for these last weeks is Evelyn Roberts, rolling 169-173-187 (529) and 181-214 (546). Bernie Pape goes on record with 187 (475); 206 (524). (Oh, that second week!) Lila Lozo turned in 191-171 (621) last week. Grace Sickler posted 167 (479) and (last week) 199-174-163 (536). Evelyn Kamont has improved noticeably this year and posted 176-164-173 (513); 187 (461); 165-180 (499).

Rolling top-notch games is Marie Bellas, piling up 177-188 (522), 163 (461) and Mary Shook hitting 188 (486), 185-173 (503). Mary Dimmick had 202 (505); 171-166 (455). Helen Bonomo and Ginger Gosart have their share of top scores. Helen scored 174-186 (464), 165-161-165 (491). Ginger rolled 161-180 (491), 164-171 (481).

Other scores well-worth noting are Diane Myers 168-178 (457), Doris Mallin 179, Liz Weale 172 (482), Eleanor McShea 175, Rose Novroski 175 (467), B. Egliskis 166 (472), Jean Agnew 196, Della Belles 162, Tooties Denmon 196; Kate Gansel 175; Anita Pascavage (substitute) hit 173 (464).

Chase Dairy and Bernie's Pizza are tied up in top place with 19 each. Joe's Pizza is second with 17 and Casterline has 16. Forty Fort Lumber and Bocar Manufacturing have 14 each.

Kiwanis Hears Wise, Plans Saturday Ball

Sudden snow showers last Wednesday afternoon were followed on Friday by the real McCoy, soft wet snow blanketing the trees but melting on the blacktop roads. Not too unusual for October 26, after fine Indian Summer weather.

Dallas Kiwanis heard Rev. Irwin Wise describe his trip to the Far East and comment on conditions in thirteen counties as he found them, at a recent meeting at Irem Temple Country Club.

Kiwanis also nominated officers for the coming year, and discussed plans for Saturday's Harvest Moon Ball.

Thirty members in attendance observed the birthday of John Henninger, Jr., and the gift was won by Leon Emmanuel.

Seven members of Wilkes-Barre Kiwanis and two from Forty Fort - Kingston Club were guests.
