

SHAVERTOWN

Mrs. Scranton Is Charming Visitor

Shavertown Shopping Center customers were pleasantly surprised on Thursday afternoon to be greeted by Mary Scranton, wife of the Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania.

A most gracious and sincere lady, Mrs. Scranton is her husband's greatest asset. Her firm handclasp denotes her intense interest in the people of this state.

She was accompanied by Audrey Kelley, a real neighborly and wholesome individual who mails from nearby Montrose. A candidate for the office of Secretary of Internal Affairs, Mrs. Kelley is the mother of five, a leader in every civic and charitable project in her community and an able lawyer. She impresses one as a woman who always gets things done.

40th Anniversary

We were sorry to note that the fifty fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Howell, Roushey street on October 28 was not remembered. This grand couple have been residents of the area for many years.

Mrs. Howell is the former Maisie Hess of Kunkle but spent much of her girlhood in Trucksville with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess. Mr. Hess was at that time postmaster at Trucksville. Mr. Howell is the brother of the late Dr. G. L. Howell, physician and friend to many in the Back Mountain area.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. Geraldine Pope, Shavertown. There are two grandchildren, Richard and Carol Pope.

Pastor and Mrs. Fredrick Eidam, Mt. street spent several days in Allentown and Philadelphia last week in celebration of the former's birthday.

Mrs. Walter Shaver, Pioneer Avenue is recuperating at her home following injuries suffered in a fall over way home from church. Mrs. Shaver broke several bones in her nose and bruised her face quite badly.

Mrs. Wellington Shaver, of Niagara Falls with daughter, Mrs. Robert Crawford and granddaughter, Cindy came down to spend some time with her mother-in-law.

Mrs. Alice Ruth, a guest at the Shaver home for the past two weeks, has returned to her home in Rochester.

Bert Riley, Center street is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital where he underwent surgery last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck and daughters, Marilyn and Beverly attended the Muhlenburg-King's football game at Allentown on Saturday. They also visited daughter, Dorothy, who is a student nurse at Allentown State Hospital. Marilyn was home from Susquehanna College for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pierce, Pioneer Avenue, left Monday to spend the winter at Fort Lauderdale. Mrs. Ava Altemus, long time resident of Shavertown, has sold her home and moved to Orwigsburg, Penna. She is residing with her son, Milton, and would be happy to hear from her old friends and neighbors. Her address is R.D. 1, Orwigsburg, Pa., in care of Milton Altemus.

Preaching Mission

Over one hundred persons attended the first session of "The Preaching Mission as part of the Methodist Challenge for Christ" at Shavertown Methodist Church Sunday evening. These services will continue all this week with Rev. Kenneth Booher in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Schultz, Perrin avenue, are lullabying a new baby boy, born October 29.

Mrs. Margaret Dig, Main street, mother of Mrs. Ted Woodbert, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Mack in Jersey City.

Mrs. John Clause, Pioneer avenue, has been ill at her home. Altar and Rosary Society of St. Therese's Church will hold a Birthday Tea on November 11 at 8 p.m. in the church parlors.

Neighbor Passes

Neighbors and friends of Mrs. Jessie Jones, Sunset avenue, were saddened on Saturday evening to hear of her passing from this life at Carpenter Nursing Home, Harvey's Lake. She was a devoted companion of her brother, C. L. Hartwell for many years. Mr. Hartwell is also a patient at the nursing home.

Mrs. William Pethick, Pioneer avenue was pleasantly surprised last week when informed that she had won a $25.00 charge account prize in the Boston Store Founders Day Contest.

Mrs. Charles Sieber, Main street, is convalescing at her home following surgery at Nesbitt Hospital.

It was a happy sight to see Mrs. Anna Dressel once again seated in the family pew at St. Paul's on Sunday. One of the most respected and beloved ladies of our community she is steadily progressing following a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monka, Pioneer avenue are the proud parents of a new baby girl, born October 30.

Mrs. Mary Karl, Mt. Airy road was taken to Nesbitt Hospital Sunday evening in Kingston Township Ambulance. Just having returned from a visit to Altoona, she was stricken with a stroke on Saturday.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rogers, Franklin street, who are the parents of a new baby daughter. There is another little daughter, Linda, 2.

Mrs. Robert McDowell, Perrin avenue, is a patient in General Hospital.

A. J. Moreck, Pioneer avenue, lost a lovely lilac bush when the heavy snowfall Saturday broke it off at its base.

Storm Stalls Bus

Mrs. Emma Stahl, Pioneer avenue had an upsetting experience on Saturday evening when the Dallas bus on which she was a passenger was unable to proceed from Mt. Greenwood Road where heavy snow and slippery highway prevented it from navigating the hill. The bus skidded and the rear end balanced over the side of the steep incline. It could have been a tragedy.

A call to the highway department brought no relief and the traction company truck was unable to rectify the situation. John Stahl went to his mother's aid and delivered both her and several passengers to their homes safely. It took over three hours to arrive at Shavertown from Wilkes-Barre.

Crisis Curtails Stay in Florida

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wagner, Ferguson avenue, and Mrs. Leroy Troxell, Main street, are back home after setting out two weeks ago for Florida where they expected to spend the winter.

They reached Jacksonville after passing many convoys loaded with troops and supplies. The city was a beehive of activity. They were urged by the military to return north and decided to help relieve the confusion by returning home until the situation cleared up.

Clara Troxell, driving alone, chucked up two thousand and thirty-four miles in five days.

We were all glad to see Wallie Gosart take a little time out to go hunting the past two Saturdays. Father-in-law, Walter Gerloch took over in the meat department at the Market. Wallie is out this year with Walter, Jr., teaching him the fundamentals of the sport.

A busy man who takes time to chum with his son, reaps a rich reward.

Mrs. Elsie Schneider formerly of Mt. Airy Road recently celebrated her ninety-third birthday at Valley Crest Home.

Until next week, take a few moments each day to remember someone who is ill in your community or needs a helping hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Shagbark Drive, entertained the following at dinner Sunday celebrating their son Bobby's fifth birthday: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Williams and Tommy, Lehman; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norton, Sandra and Thomas, Wilkes-Barre; and Judy, Glenn, Bobby Lewis and the host and hostess.

Last evening Mrs. Robert Lewis entertained her card club: Mesdames Thomas Norton, Raymond Carey, Ralph Yarnell, Leo Morton, Robert Pierson, Wilkes-Barre; John Evans and George Barker, Kingston, James Jolley, Trucksville, and the hostess.

Doris Britt, Center Street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Britt celebrated her (sixth) birthday Sunday. She received many lovely gifts from her guests who were: Linda Flock, Helen Orloski, Sandra Sax, Donna Sax, Theresa Gluzinski, Joey Gluzinski, Carol Britt, Elaine Williams, Kathy Williams, Debra, Donna and Ricky Britt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eicke, Evergreen Street, had a special reason for celebrating over the week-end. Mrs. Erma Eicke and daughter, Lanna, had birthdays on Sunday. Their family plus Grandma and Grandpa Eicke of Kingston went out for dinner.

Mrs. William Brown, Jr., Perrin Avenue, has returned after being a patient at Geisinger Hospital.

Verna Miers, Perrin Avenue, has been ill. She expects to resume her studies at Dallas High School this week.

A number from Shavertown attended the Penn State-Maryland game on Saturday. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deeble, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeWitt, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dillaway and Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Chadwick, Larry Newhart and Lou Spaciano.

Mark Spaciano, Division Street, is a patient at Nesbitt Hospital. He is to undergo a tonsillectomy.
