Rick Davis, Surprised At Birthday Hayride

Ricky Davis, Parrish Street, anticipating a big day last Friday when he would enter his teens and probably own his own "410," experienced a rather quiet day. That is until early evening when his dad loaded him and two friends into the jeep and drove to an uncle's farm in Noxen, hoping to get permission to hunt there. Following plans made earlier by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis, they drove to Mohawk Riding Academy, where a hay-wagon and eight more friends greeted them with shouts of Happy Birthday. After the hayride, refreshments were served at Ricky's home to Donna Long, Jillian Caruthers, Donna Hontz, Ruth Higgins, Shirley Evans, Vincent Hudak, Paul Elston, Jimmy LaBar, Jimmy Coburn, Bruce Davies 3rd, Brother Jim, Bob Long, and the guest of honor, who incidentally got his 410 although he had assumed half the cost.
