

SHAVERTOWN

BIRDS AT FEEDERS

With the advent of brisk winds, cold breezes and snowy weather, our feathered friends are flocking to the bird feeders set out by thoughtful neighbors.

There is no pastime more designed to bring a bit of brightness into a drab day than to observe the company of our richly plumaged visitors, occasionally disturbed by the handsome but noisy jay.

Mrs. William Pethick, Pioneer Avenue, who has many feeders in her lovely yard, reports that juncos, titmouse and black capped chickadees have arrived.

She was highly disturbed several days ago to find the body of a downy woodpecker lying at the base of one of her stations covered with red cardinal feathers. She had never heard that the two were enemies and would appreciate the knowledge of experts as to the cause of an apparent battle.

During the coming blustery months, Mrs. Janet Engels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shaver, Shaver Avenue will recall with great pleasure her recent trip to the lovely islands of Hawaii. Janet had a marvelous time touring spots of interest there, having flown by jet from the United States and return. On her way home she stopped off in San Francisco.

Mrs. A. J. Moreck, Pioneer Avenue, left Monday for Washington, D.C. to spend a few days with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson and grandson, Russell, Jr. A thoughtful and kind mother, Mrs. Moreck wanted to be on hand for daughter, Jane's birthday on November 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Algert Antaintis, Mt. Airy Road had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Moore of New Castle, Delaware. The Moores are well known former residents of Demands Road. Mr. Moore having operated Truckville Feed Mill for many years.

Also visiting at the Antaintis home recently were Mr. and Mrs. Blaine and son, Brad, Jr. Mrs. Blaine, the former Peggy Antaintis, now resides in Schuykill Haven.

Little Carol Sheldon, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sheldon, Pioneer Avenue is a patient in General Hospital. She would appreciate cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Price are occupying the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Molley, Lehigh Street while Mr. Molley is taking a year's sabbatical leave from teaching at Pennsylvania State University for his doctor's degree.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, Perrin Avenue, had as weekend guests the former's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Todd Alexander and children, Toddie and Sandra, Berkley Heights, New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts, Pioneer Avenue, are ill at their home.

Mrs. Ross Bartleson and sons, Bryan and Bruce, have returned to Levittown after spending ten days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hinkle, Lincoln Drive.

Mrs. John Henninger, Mrs. Walter Cooke, Mrs. Ralph Dixon and Mrs. H. H. Rymer attended the Holiday Flower Arrangement Show at the homes of Bruce Payne and Mrs. Malcolm Burnside in Wilkes-Barre on Friday. They were delighted with the fascinating displays and lovely tea.

Mrs. Margaret Traver, Main Street, is seriously ill in Mercy Hospital and would appreciate cards to brighten her day.

Rev. John T. Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl, Pioneer Avenue, spent the weekend with his family. Rev. Stahl is studying for his master's degree at Boston University. He is married to the former Marcia Elston of Lehman. They are the parents of a daughter, Christine, 3.

Mrs. William Dungey, James Street, was admitted to Wyoming Valley Hospital on Saturday. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Joan Brobst and Mrs. Chester Nesbitt on winning awards at the Wyoming Valley Garden Club Holiday Show.

CROMPTONS WELCOME DAUGHTER

His many friends and patients in this locality were pleased to hear that a baby daughter, Jill, was born to Dr. and Mrs. Richard Crompton on November 7 in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. There are two older brothers, Gary and Richard. May the new member of the family bring much joy to the hearts of a busy man and his family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rice, Main Street, were among the large crowd enjoying the turkey dinner served Saturday evening by Mt. Grange at Carverton.

It is certainly a happy sight to see John Henninger, Sr., Druid Hills, out again after major surgery some weeks ago. Civic-minded, John, is active in many fields of endeavor. Both the senior and junior Henningers are looking after affairs at the Shavertown YMCA during the illness of "Cliff" King. Mrs. Russell Monte, W. Center Street is caring for the long time custodian.

SYMPATHY TO NEIGHBORS

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Austin Line in the loss of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Yetter, Wilkes-Barre; to Mrs. Louis Cottle, whose sister, Mrs. John Lawther, wife of Professor Lawther, Pennsylvania State University passed away during the past week and to Walter Karl, whose mother departed this life on November 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wagner, Ferguson Avenue and Mrs. Clara Troxell, Main Street began another trip to Florida on Monday with hopes of spending the winter at Miami.

George Casterline, Harveys Lake, who has been making a most satisfactory recovery at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Malkemes, Franklin Street, following serious illness and surgery will leave this weekend to spend the winter with another daughter, Mrs. Claude Lapp, Bethesda, Maryland.

Gay Williams young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Lehigh Street, returned to her home on Sunday following surgery at Wyoming Valley Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall, Main Highway left Friday to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hall and children, Christopher, Carol and Cynthia, in Pittsfield, Massachusetts. The Halls are among the most devoted grandparents in this community.

A talented new writer is in the making in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Ross, E. Center Street. Her classmates at the evening sessions of the Creative Writing course at Dallas Senior High School are amazed at her ability in turning out excellently composed and interesting short stories. She has resided with her small son in Shavertown for the past several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilroy, Sunset Avenue, had as recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. David Spry of Mechanicsburg, Pa. The Sprys formerly lived on Mt. Airy Road.

JACKSON TOWNSHIP

The theft of two new garbage cans and a newly painted chicken supper sign from Huntsville Methodist Church has been reported. The garbage cans were stolen from the rear of the church and the sign from along the roadside. One's principles must have fallen low to steal church property.

Mrs. Albert J. Cadwalder also reported the theft of an old brown jug which she used to advertise the sale of cider. It stood on the stone wall in front of her house. Friday night when about to retire, Mrs. Cadwalder heard the screeching of car brakes, heard the car back up, and saw a man leave it to walk to the wall, take the jug and then return and speed off. She identified the car as a black sedan.

Denise Sherwood was confined to her home with an attack of the Flu. W.S.C.S. of Huntsville Methodist Church will hold a "Harvest Tea" Thursday evening, November 29, to which all ladies of the church and community are invited. The Program Committee are planning the evening entertainment after which refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Conyngham are facing a busy schedule for this weekend, as Mr. Conyngham is General Chairman of the Annual Holstein Cattlemen's Assoc. Convention which is being held at the Hotel Sterling beginning today, and Mrs. Conyngham is Chairman of activities for the visiting ladies.

Ricky Frantz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frantz, a student at Hotchkiss School, will spend the Thanksgiving Holiday with his parents.

Congratulations to Mrs. Kenneth Cooper who will celebrate her birthday, November 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer Cooper, Plymouth were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper.

Jesse Conyngham, student at Madeira School, and William Conyngham, student at Hotchkiss, will spend the Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Conyngham.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, newly-weds, visited at their respective homes this past weekend.

Chief of Police Robert Cooper assisted by Assistant Chief, Roland Gensal and Jim Gordon, a member of Kingston Township Police Department, did a fine job handling the heavy traffic on Chase Road, for the Turkey Supper served by Dallas Rotary Club at the Fire Hall. The parking lot, owned by Harold Bertram, was too wet to use, with the result that cars were parked from Chase Manor and to below Chase Corners. 1000 persons attended.

Congratulations to Jimmie Barrall, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Barrall, who celebrates his third birthday today.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Voitek and daughters, Marguerite, Eileen and Barbara of Cressona, were weekend guests of Mrs. Margaret Billow. Mrs. Voitek is a daughter of Mrs. Billow.

B.A. Class of the Huntsville Methodist Church will meet at the Church, Saturday evening at 8.

George W. Ide, former resident of Huntsville, now a resident of Rochester, is a patient at the Veterans Hospital, Batavia, N. Y. He would like to hear from his former friends in this locality. Drop him a line.

Prof. D. P. Detwiler, Wilkes College accompanied by a group of students visited Western Electric Company Laboratory at Allentown Friday.

Mrs. Fred Gabel has returned home after a two-week visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Stueber of Westfield, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gibbons, had as recent guests their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Nehr of San Francisco. Both were recently honorably discharged from the Army in Okinawa. While here the Nehrs had as their guest, Chaplain Thomas Lightcap from the Chaplain School, Fort Hamilton, N. Y. He was on Okinawa while the Nehrs were stationed there.

Mrs. Gibbons' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Partillo, Hyattsville, Maryland also visited with the Gibbons while the Nehrs were here.

Luzerne County Road and Bridge Department truck was kept busy Sunday clearing the county roads of tree branches, which fell during the heavy windstorm Saturday night.

Congratulations to John Headman, Jr. who will celebrate his birthday tomorrow.

LaBar Painting House

Caddie LaBar is painting his house on Martz Road a stunning turquoise.

Linear Donates 57 Pints Blood

Sixty-six donors presented themselves for the American Red Cross Blood Bank collection at Linear Inc. on Friday afternoon. Fifty-seven pints were obtained.
